Baptist Church Notes

Despite the very severe weather last Sunday larger congregations than usual greeted Dr. Evans both morning and evening. The presence of strangers every Sunday shows the increasing interest in the ministry of this church to the community.

Mrs. Robert Carlson of Northwestern University, has been elected to the position of choir leader. He has already won many friends by his sympathetic voice and pleasant manner. It is confidently expected that under his leadership the music will be increasingly helpful in worship. Special music will be heard in every service. Mr. Carlson's solo in the morning and a duet by Miss Alice Evans and Mr. Carlson in the evening were both enjoyed by the audience.

Dr. and Mrs. Evans entertained the chorus at their residence on So. Sheridan Rd., last Thursday night. An evening of music and musical games passed happily and the chorus became better acquainted socially with their new leader.

Friday night the Young Men's class of the church school entertained the Philathea class with a sleigh ride. About thirty enjoyed the ride after which hot cocoa and wafers were served in the parlor by the young men. This marked the beginning of a friendly contest for new members by the two classes. The losing class has promised to banquet to the winners.

The primary department of the church school gave a delightful valentine party to the members and their mothers Saturday afternoon. The little children greatly enjoyed the afternoon of games, at the close of which they sat down to attractive tables decorated in red and white hearts. Ribbon streamers leading to the plates enabled each child to draw from the heart shaped center a valentine for himself. Fond mothers watched the children with the greatest interest. It was a red letter day for the little tots.
