The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

The birthday of the good Saint Patrick this week broke the quietude of the past few weeks and made way for several affairs for the boys and girls. A very delightful party was given on Saint Patrick's Day (Tuesday), at which Mrs. Ross J. Beatty, 535 S. Sheridan Rd., was hostess. The affair was given in honor of John and Roslyn Beatty whose birthdays also occurred this month, they having reached the ages of 13 and 9. The hours were from four until seven o'clock. The decorations and favors were in keeping with the day; shamrock pipes, and other symbols of Ireland being used. All sorts of jolly games were played and of course there was dancing; even the youngest of us in this day and age have to tango. Miss Hogarth of Edgewater furnished the music. Among the guests were Warren and Vincent Schreurs, Harold Stanley, Dorothy and Marjorie Carr, Wallace, David and Mary Kimball; Eugene Tremaine, Jack Abbott, Elisha Gray, Clert-hew and Otho Morgan, McGregor, Helen and Caroline Willis, Seward Baldwin, Dwight and Mildred Moore, Harold Pingrey, Jeffrey and Catherine Carquville, Mary and Esther Card, Jane, Mary and Barbara Tapper, Charline Baylies, Eunice and Alice Knox, Sarah Kerfoot, Josephine Hopkins, Elizabeth Morrison, Frances Holbrook, Josephine and Geraldine Faxton, and Mabel Holland.

This Saturday afternoon Miss Dorothy Clark will give a cotillion in the Parish house of the Trinity church at two o'clock. This will be the wind up of the children's dancing classes for the year.

The Tuesday afternoon bridge club met this week with Mrs. Ward W. Willis on So. Sheridan Rd.

Miss Jane Marshall of Lake Forest, entertained the B. O. N. Club of girls at her home on Friday evening. Those present from Highland Park were Helen Gourley, Alma Olesen, Eleanor Nelson, Gladys Tucker, Hazel Bell, and Mildred and Charlotte Welch. Games were played and refreshments served.

Mr. Harold Olesen entertained a few friends informally on Friday evening at cards. Among the winners were the Misses Mitchell and Golitz and Mr. Olesen. Hearts and five hundred were played.

Miss Priscilla Carver will speak on the Italian School next Tuesday morning at ten thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. George R. Jones, 308 E. Vine Ave. Illustrations will be given from the operas of Leoncavallo, Mascagni, Puccini, and Wolf-Ferrari. This will be the seventh of the series of talks on Modern Music by Miss Carver.

Miss Julia Nasse of W. Central Ave., entertained the Laurel Sewing Society at her home on Monday evening.

Mrs. James Nolan entertained a number of friends informally at cards on Monday evening.

Mrs. E. T. Skidmore entertained a party of friends on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. Skidmore's birthday anniversary. Cards were the feature of the evening, prizes being awarded to Mr. H. Dittmer, gentlemen's first prize; Mrs. Axel Larson, ladies first prize, and consolations were won by Mrs. H. Dittmer and Mr. John Larson. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Oscar Noerenberg entertained the members of the 13 Club at a banquet on Friday the 13th.

Although the musical given under the auspices of the Woman's Club at the Trinity Church Parish house last Monday evening was not as largely attended as had been anticipated it was thoroughly enjoyed by those who were present. The program opened with piano selections by Miss Elizabeth McCrystle whose playing is always so spirited as well as harmoniously sweet. She played "Novallette" by McDowell; "Nocturne" by Grieg and "Wild Chase" by McDowell. A group of songs were sung exquisitely by Mrs. Kenneth Ozmond of Evanston, who also sang at the Ossoli meeting a fortnight ago. Miss Elizabeth McCrystle was the accompanist. Miss Elinor Tustin of Chicago gave two readings, "The Revenge" by Tennyson, and "Brier Rose" by Boyesen. Mr. George Jones played a miscellaneous group of violin solos with Mrs. George Jones at the piano. These, needless to say, were beautifully rendered. In the group Mr. Jones played was the lovely Beethoven's Minuet which the music lovers never seem to tire of. As an encore he played "Romance" by Debussy. Miss McCrystle played several numbers by Debussy. "Goliwogg's Cake Walk," "En Bateau," "Cortege" and "Minstrels," and as an encore played "Scriabine's Nocturne" for the left hand. Mrs. Ozmond sang another group of songs, among them "Where the River Shannon Flows" in honor of St. Patrick's Day.

The Thursday evening tango class will meet this evening with Mrs. John Glass, Cary Ave., Ravinia. Mrs. Glass will entertain the class at dinner preceding the lesson. There will be twelve guests present.

The girls in the Willing Helpers club gave a jolly party in the parlors of the Presbyterian church last Saturday afternoon from three to five o'clock. Games of various kinds were played. In one contest the girls made crepe paper hats for which prizes were awarded for the ones most tastefully designed and carefully made. Miss Edna Vercoe received the first prize and the second prize was given to Miss Constance Vercoe. The girls had great sport over a "Jack Horner Pie." Each pulled a long green ribbon and drew from under its crust a miniature wooden pipe. All the decorations and favors were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. The affair was under the supervision of Miss Mary Louise Sedgwick and Miss Constance Shields. Ice cream and cake were served.

It is a little too early in the season perhaps for many of our people to make a change of residence or to even think about what they will do or where they will go for the late spring and summer months. Nevertheless a few are beginning to make plans and preparations. The Observer has only heard of a small percentage of such changes being made. Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Pickering have sold their beautiful home on Waverly Place to Mr. and Mrs. Parker Johnson of Cornell Ave., Chicago, who will take possession within a month or so. Mr. and Mrs. Pickering returned last Thursday from a week's absence in Philadelphia. They will leave next week Monday or Tuesday for the same city where they will reside permanently on account of Mr. Pickering's business. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. McClernan and family of Ravine Drive, have taken the William H. Miller residence, 420 E. Central Ave. for three years. They do not expect to occupy their new place of abode before May 1st, however, as several alterations are being made in the place to add to its comfort and beauty. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will leave in June for an extended trip abroad, going first to London and from there will go to visit places of interest in England, France and Germany and other nations. Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Peyton Jr., will go east as usual this summer and will take an apartment in Chicago next fall where they expect to remain definitely. They have rented their home on E. Laurel Ave. to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bird and family who are now living on E. Park Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Bird expect to take possession of the Peyton home later in the spring. Mrs. Thomas Troxel has rented her house on E. Central Ave. for six months and she will visit her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Ryther (Jean Troxel) at the Presidio in San Francisco, Cal.

Mrs. John Grenville Mott entertained at informal bridge last Wednesday afternoon at her home on E. Laurel Ave. There were three tables.

The Law and Order League held a meeting in the assembly hall last Thursday evening. Mr. Fred Stryker presided; Mr. Fayette Munro of Highland Park delivered the first address. His political interests in the neighborhood caused him to side step the main subject of the evening but he delivered an entertaining discourse on humanity. Mr. Ebert of Chicago spoke on prohibition and his remarks were direct and to the point. He stated that nine states are now "dry," that of those who spend money in saloons not one in ten is a tax payer, and when the saloons are abolished the men save their money, buy homes and increase the taxable property which is a better substitute for license money.

Misses Marie and Ruth Kress returned to their home Sunday morning after a month's visit with their aunt, Mrs. N. McKellar of Fargo, N. D.

Friday evening, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association, Mr. Anthony Carnecki, an election commissioner from Chicago delivered an address on Civics and Woman's Suffrage in the assembly hall. Specimen ballots were used for demonstration purposes and the laws pertaining to the enfranchisement of women were clearly explained. The regular March meeting of the association will be held in the school Friday afternoon, March 27th at 2:30 o'clock. A practical demonstration of the use of the ballot will be given by a speaker from Chicago.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be entertained by Mrs. Edward Selig next Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Black returned to the United Evangelical church after an absence of two weeks.

Mr. McClelland of Chicago occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sunday. The text of his morning sermon was "What Think Ye of Christ?"

Mrs. Fred Meyer is attending the Royal Neighbors convention at Bloomington this week. Mrs. Meyer will also visit a few days in Champaign.

Mrs. Chas. Osborne has started an oil painting class which will meet at her home on Saturday afternoon. On Saturday evening the Royal Neighbors entertained a "hard times" party at the home of Mrs. Albert Haggge. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vant, Mrs. Geo. Pettis and Mr. Henry Segert were awarded prizes for having the best costumes. Numerous games were indulged in and a very enjoyable evening passed.

A business meeting of the Christian Endeavor was held at the home of Miss Louise Huhn Tuesday evening and the following officers were elected: Miss Louise Huhn, president; Mr. Elmer Therrien, vice president; Miss Elizabeth Reichelt, secretary, and Miss Irene Rockenback, treasurer.

The Alumni of Deerfield held a meeting at the home of Mr. Carl Rommel Monday evening where plans for a one-act play, to be given at Ravinia Park sometime in April, were discussed.

Mr. Theo. Knaak is redecorating his drug store and has put in a beautiful new soda fountain which cost $1300. It has improved the store greatly.

The Mu Sigma Chi will hold a special meeting at the home of Miss Martha Karch Thursday evening.

On Monday morning the warehouse of Mr. J. Antes caught on fire; the Deerfield fire department was immediately summoned and before any serious damage was done the flames were extinguished.

WILSON-M'ADOO

Daughter of President and Cabinet Officer She is to Marry.

Photos by American Press Association.

With the announcement "The President and Mrs. Wilson announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Eleanor Randolph to Hon. Wm. Gibbs McAdoo" the Wilson family has effectively closed the mouth of rumor. The wedding is thought to be planned for June but no announcement has been made and, according to White House officials "no announcement on that matter will be given out just yet."

Appreciations

HERE is the verdict of a few North Shore families as to the efficiency of the "Judd" Electric Home Laundry Machine in their homes. I can show you a great many similar testimonials.

I have used the "Judd" machine almost a year and cannot praise it too highly. No woman, whether mistress or maid, should be asked to use up her vitality in doing the family washing when there is a machine on the market which will do it so cheaply and so beautifully. —Mrs. David K. Tone, 118 Elmwood Ave., Wilmette.

Your washing machine has proved most satisfactory and I am certain that it excels any other machine on the market. —Mrs. G. W. Maher, Kenilworth.

The "Judd" is perfection, and I am glad to say we have had no trouble with either the machine or the motor. I had no idea there was a washing machine on the market that is so simple and practical in operation as is the "Judd". —Fred P. Patton, M. D., Glencoe.

We have one of your machines and can speak in highest praise of it. Our washing is done in less time and better than ever before. It not only saves time and labor with the small things, but does heavy work, such as blankets and spreads, in the easiest and best manner possible. The old time washing day has been forever eliminated from our home, thanks to the "Judd". —Mrs. C. DePeyster Berry, Park Lane, Highland Park.

If you are considering the purchase of a laundry machine let me arrange a fifteen days' free trial in your home. No obligation or expense to you except a fair trial.
