The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church was held Wednesday evening; Dr. Parker of Chicago, was Moderator. Reports of the Session, the Woman's Missionary Society, the Dorcas Society and the Sunday School were read and favorable and encouraging criticism made by Dr. Parker on the splendid financial reports. The following trustees were elected: William Kreh for one year, Edward Therrien, and William Schlie, each for two years; Dr. Davis and Edward Easton, each for three year terms. On account of the strong financial support given the church by the Dorcas Society, Mr. Davis advocated the election of a woman on the board of trustees. Two were nominated by progressive members, but both failed to be elected. Miss Frances Biederstadt was elected organist with the privilege of selecting her own assistants. As Mr. J. T. Jones did not accept the call made him by the church, Mr. Creswell, another candidate was selected by vote, and a call given him which has been accepted.

The Parent-Teachers Association met in the assembly hall of the Grammar school Friday afternoon, Mrs. Supple, the president, presided and she suggested an amendment to the constitution which was voted upon and carried which was to have a meeting of the association every month during the school year instead of in alternate months.
