

The Favorite Dish of Fish
is doubtless the most welcome to its lovers. But it must be fresh and have a flavor, otherwise it is not "reliable." The freshness of fish is its principal attraction. It is a necessity with us before we buy it, and we only take enough in stock to last a single day - no keeping of fish for us, for fish will not keep. Here you may be always certain that you are getting the previous day's catch.

"When in doubt, telephone," is an axiom that should ever be borne in mind by the mother who has a son or daughter away at college.

No other medium conveys the personal assurance that a telephone talk can give, and the cost is nominal when measured by the results in peace of mind.

The quickness of telephone communication gives it vast superiority over the mails.

Woman's Club

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Woman's Club was held last Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the club rooms. Miss Estelle Clark sang "Spring Awakening." Songs My Mother Taught Me, and "A Summer Idyl." William J. Smith, architect from Chicago, spoke on "How to Plan for a Club House." He told of different club houses all over the country as to size, style of architecture and price, ranging from $18,000 to $20,000. It was suggested that each member endeavor to earn at least $10.00 during the summer for the new club building fund. Mrs. Dooley read the nominating ticket: President, Mrs. John Putnam; 1st vice presidents, Mrs. D. M. Erskine and Mrs. T. C. Williams; 2nd vice presidents, Mrs. James Watson and Mrs. Henry Thayer; treasurer, Mrs. Maud H. Shannon and Mrs. John Duffy; recording secretary, Mrs. Wm. Dooley; board of directors: Mrs. John Scott, Miss Jennie De Roo, Mrs. Josiah Boyer, Mrs. George M. Bard, Mrs. H. W. Boyd, Mrs. C. G. Phillips, Mrs. Charles Drake, and Mrs. A. L. Renning. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames Herman Denzel; George G. Green, John A. Schreurs, J. Welch, Arthur Moore, and Robert Schneider.

Highland Park Club

The annual meeting of the club will be held Saturday evening, April 18, and the directors are offering an innovation in the fact that ladies will be most welcome this year. The meeting will commence with a banquet at 6:30 p. m., following which the business meeting, election of officers and reading of reports will take place. The business of the evening over a formal dance and card party will be held.

Owing to the fact that Good Friday falls on this date the usual picture show will not be given tomorrow night.

The balance of the program for the following week will be as follows: Monday the 13th, at 8:30 o'clock the annual Easter dance will be held; Tuesday the 14th, the Junior dance will take place; Friday at 8 o'clock, the usual motion pictures will be shown.

United Evangelical Church Notes

A communion service of the prayer meeting classes was held on Wednesday evening, April 1st at which Mr. Fred Botker, the lay-delegate to the annual conference held at Aston, Ill., gave a very interesting report. At the same meeting there was read a letter from Dr. C. N. Dubs, a former pastor of this church, but at present superintendent of the missionary work of the U. E. church in Hunan, China. He wrote of the last illness of Mrs. Dubs, and her wish to be buried among the people whom she had loved and served so well. He also thanked the people of the Highland Park church for the set of sterling silver spoons sent as a Christmas gift. He says that nearly all of the missionaries' personal effects of any value had been lost during the recent disturbances.

The monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society was held, also, on the evening of April 1st.

The Woman's Missionary Society will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Rose Thursday, April 9th at 2:30.

Appropriate services with special Easter music by the choir will be held on Easter Sunday, April 12th.

The music committee of the C. E. Society will have charge of a Vesper service held at the time of the regular meeting 6:30 to 7:30 Sunday evening.

The German prayer meeting class held its weekly meeting at the home of August Noerenberg Wednesday, April 8th.

Attendance in Sunday School last Sunday was 178, an increase of 10 over that of a year ago and an increase in offering of $1.45. To any not attending another school, we bid a hearty welcome and desire that you may enjoy with us the benefits of association with Christian people and the spiritual uplift of the study of the Scriptures.

High School Notes

Several members of the Alumni Association have spoken recently before the school in general assembly. Mr. Lewis Pease, chief engineer at the Naval Training Station, spoke to the students on Tuesday morning. He began with a short resume of the history of the American navy, illustrating with a stereopticon a few of the famous ships and naval engagements, from Paul Jones down. Following this he gave views of the training station itself, chosen to illustrate the life of a cadet there, and ended with a series of pictures taken by officers when on the world cruise with the navy.

Mr. Paul Gilroy, of the class of '07, who is with the American Steel and Wire Works at St. Louis, visited Mr. Sandwick on Monday. Mr. Gilroy says his company are getting nearly all their engineers from western colleges, and that other companies report in of favor men trained in the west.

The annual reception to parents under the auspices of the Parents and Teachers' Association, will occur on Friday evening, May 1st.

Baptist Church Notes

The Philathea class of the Baptist church school met Tuesday evening for election of officers about the dinner table. Covers were laid for eighteen. Miss Charity McKenzie is the new president.

The interest in the series of studies Wednesday evenings at the Baptist church shows marked increase. The general topic for April to July is "The Bible and Every Day Life." Next Wednesday the topic is "The Bible and the Human Heart." Everyone is invited.

Beginning Sunday, April 19th, the evening editorials preceding the sermon will be resumed. Much interest was expressed during the earlier series.

Special music will be offered at both of the services of the Baptist church next Sunday. Mr. William Rae will sing "Resurrection Day," by Huhn; Mrs. Charles H. Warren will sing "From Gloom to Glory," by Geibel. Mr. Robert Carlson, director, will sing in the evening an appropriate gospel solo. The chorus will render an anthem at each service, "Christ has Won the Victory," by Hawley; and "Chime Softly, Bells of Easter," by Bonner. Easter sermons by the pastor both morning and evening. There will be baptism at the evening service.

Ossoli Club

There were one hundred reservations at the Ossoli luncheon last Thursday afternoon. The luncheon was served at 12:30 o'clock and the table decorations were in yellow and green, Jonquils and other spring flowers being used. Miss Wertheim, Superintendent of the Consumers League in Chicago, spoke to the ladies on the "Minimum Wage Law and the Manner in which Women and Children were Treated in the Factories." Mrs. H. S. Vail recited a parody on one of Kipling's poems about the "Woman Voter." Reports were given by the chairmen of the various committees. Miss Priscilla Carver and Mrs. Annetta Jones played a duo for two pianos. Mrs. Rex L. Jones, who was unanimously elected president for next year, spoke in acknowledgment. Mrs. Wm. J. Fyffe gave a farewell address to the members and told of the financial standing of the club. She stated that the club had handled this year $2,333,340 of which was to be used for the general expenses of the club and the remainder donated to Philanthropic work including the maintenance of the bathing beach at Central Ave. The results of the annual election of officers is as follows: President, Mrs. Rex L. Jones; vice president, Mrs. Marshall E. Sampsell; recording secretary and treasurer, Miss Marion Mason; corresponding secretary, Miss Jessie Chandler; the board of directors are: Mrs. Otis L. Bardsley, Mrs. John F. L. Curtis, Mrs. Walter H. Baldwin, and Mrs. Herman Thomas.

Y. W. C. A. News

Princess Kiku, a Japanese play given by the Y. W. C. A. Friday night at the Elm Place auditorium reflected great credit on the association and those directly responsible for the presentation. A crowded house as well as an appreciative audience greeted the players and the frequent bursts of applause convinced the cast that their efforts to please were not in vain. The stage was beautifully decorated with cherry blossoms, chrysanthemums, holly hocks, while the summer house was made a bower of beauty by the use of wisteria blooms. The flowers were all made by the Y. W. C. A. girls. Princess Kiku played by Alice De Young and the four ladies in waiting, Lois Greene, June Rhinehart, Esther Baker and Amelia Schwartz were charmingly portrayed. With their pretty Japanese kimonos and incessant bowing they won the audience from start to finish. Mrs. Frank Shelton as Sakara, and Hilda Larson as Little Ito, her play actor, were very well portrayed, every word reaching the audience. Elsie Laeger as Lady Cecil and Alma Kelly as Miss Prendergast kept the audience good natured and on the lookout for something all the time. Miss Kelly was plainly the star of the evening and easily won her audience from the first. The two choruses under Mrs. W. E. Brand gave some very good music. The duet by Darline Jones and Helen Nicholls in costume, was very well done. The fan dance and moonlight fairies were very pretty. Perhaps the audience showed more enthusiasm over the Mother Goose dances of the Junior gymnastic class than any other number on the program. The little tots always are a great attraction and this was no exception to the rule. Mrs. Searcy, the Y. W. C. A. secretary, has worked faithfully and well in training the young people for this production and certainly deserves a great deal of credit for the success of the undertaking. Miss Burr, the gymnasium teacher, was responsible for the pretty dances, and they demonstrated her ability along this line. Take it all in all the entire production was a success from a financial as well as artistic standpoint. The receipts were about $63.00 which will be used as a Lake Geneva fund.

WATER IN COAL MINES.

Pumping It Out Costs a Big Pile of Money Every Year.

It costs quite a bit of money to pump 1,000,000,000 tons of water out of the anthracite mines of Pennsylvania every year, but it must be done or there could be no mines. In times past, collieries were abandoned because of inability to cope with the water flowing into them, but more and more pumps, some of them costing $30,000 and $40,000 each, have been installed, and the enormous amount of work they do is all that enables the operators to keep open the mines.

The calculation as to the amount of water handled in this way is simple. The output of the mines is a little less than 70,000,000 tons a year. The average amount of water pumped is about fifteen tons for every ton of coal produced. The cost of this is one of the most important elements in the increased cost of mining. As the richer and more accessible veins have been exhausted, shafts have been sunk deeper and the volume of water to be pumped has increased rapidly.

The pipes, of which there are thousands of miles in the mines, wear out quickly because the sulphur in the mine water eats into the iron like an acid. This destructive quality prohibits the use of the water in the boilers that generate steam at the collieries, and the result is that, when there is a drought, the companies often are obliged to haul water to the mines in tank cars from many miles away.—New York Post.

Odd Contrasts in Climate.

New York is usually thought of as being directly west from London. It is, however, despite its far more rigorous climate, 100 miles nearer the equator than is the British capital. The bleak coast of Labrador is directly west of London. The same line passes the southern part of Hudson bay and Lake Winnipeg. On the other side of the continent it touches the southern extremity of Alaska and continues through the center of the isthmus of Kamchatka and Siberia and Russia to Honolulu.

Another illustration of the unexpected in contrasts is found in a comparison of St. John's, Newfoundland, with Paris. Paris has a winter of comparative mildness, while St. John's is a drift of bitter cold and fogs, with drifting icebergs along its coast. Yet St. John's is 100 miles nearer the equator

New York's Sewage.

Every day there is poured into the Harlem river 98,000,000 gallons of sewage; into the North river, 132,000,000 gallons; into the East river, 204,000,000 gallons. So in the course of a year New York city pollutes its harbor with about 405,000,000 gallons of refuse matter.—New York World.
