

We have just installed a Prosperity Collar Moulder, the latest machine for finishing the popular collars. This is the first machine of its kind in use on the North Shore.

The outer portion of a collar is separated from the band so that a space is moulded between MAKING A NATURAL AND AMPLE TIE SPACE. NO MORE "YANKING" THE TIE.

This machine turns out a large round, and perfectly smooth edge, moulds both points absolutely even and adds to the service of your collars.

We believe that our patrons will be pleased with their collars finished on this machine.

The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

So busily engaged are our society folk in housecleaning in general, getting homes in readiness to rent, sell or to remain in them themselves during the summer months that for the present at least everything socially has been put aside for some future date. Every train is bearing great numbers from California, Florida and other popular winter resorts to their summer homes in the suburbs. Among those arriving this week from California were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Deming and the Misses Helen and Margaret Deming. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. P. Wright, who spent four months of the winter in Chicago at the La Salle hotel and the Elms hotel, opened their home on Cary Ave., Ravinia the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Raymond will occupy their new home on Cedar St. of the same place, the first part of next month. There has been any number of houses for rent this year in Highland Park, and the Observer has been fortunate in hearing of several. Mrs. Daniel Cobb has rented her home on E. Laurel Ave. to Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Duncan of St. Louis. They will take possession June 10. The Willoughby house on the corner of Lake and Laurel Aves. has been leased for one year to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Aultman of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. I. Randall and family, also of Chicago, are occupying the Dr. Colburn residence on Lake Ave. next to the Walter H. Baldwins. Mr. and Mrs. George R. Jones have rented their home on Vine Ave. for the summer to Mr. and Mrs. Wahldeck. Mr. Wahldeck is the Vice President of the Continental and Commercial National Bank in Chicago. They expect to occupy the place May 15th. Mr. and Mrs. Jones and family will live at the Laurel Inn until the middle of June when they will occupy during the summer the residence now occupied by Mrs. Clara J. Tremaine. Mr. and Mrs. Morris S. Rosenfield and family, who have spent other summers in Highland Park have rented the Kenneth Cowan home on Hazel Ave. Mrs. Thomas G. Troxel has leased her home on E. Central Ave. to Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Rosenthal for six months. Mrs. Troxel will visit her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Ryther at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. Mrs. Jacob Bauer will again rent the C. C. Hughes residence on Green Bay Rd. during the summer.

The pupils of Mrs. Lawrence Creath Ammons gave a musical last Saturday afternoon at her studio in the Erskine Bank Building.
On last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Gerard Van Schaick gave a luncheon at her home, 603 Hazel Ave. The affair was in honor of Mrs. A. G. Van Schaick of Chicago.
Mrs. Herbert Huber entertained the Euchre Club Monday evening at her home on S. Green Bay Rd.
Another engagement of interest announced this week is that of Miss Margaret Wilton Deming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Deming, 336 Linden Park Place, to John Hanan DeMuth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. DeMuth. Both of these young people are most popular in the younger social set. No date has been set for the wedding.
Mrs. Frank Lincoln Wean gave an informal bridge on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Wean will give another informal affair the latter part of this week at her home on Ravine Drive.
The bridge club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Marshall E. Sampell.
Mrs. Rex L. Jones entertained the members of the Osoli board at a luncheon on last Tuesday afternoon at her home on Linden Park Place.

Mrs. Walter Carr entertained a few guests at an informal dinner last Monday evening for Mr. Carr.
Miss Emma Evans was hostess on Thursday at a one o'clock luncheon in compliment to Miss Anna Freise of Baylies Harbor, Wis., who was the guest last week of her aunt, Mrs. C. A. Smith of Belle Ave. Covers were laid for ten guests.
A very entertaining and interesting program is planned for the annual reception of the Parents and Teachers' Association to be held at the Deerfield-Shields High school on Saturday evening, May 2nd, at 8 o'clock. The special program consists of "Orchestra Selections" by the High school orchestra; a cello solo by Mr. Henry Schaeffer; a reading by Miss Alice H. McElrath, and Folk Dancing by the class in Physical Training. These numbers will be rendered in the lunch room on the third floor. The program to be given in the assembly room on the first floor will open with "Part Songs" by the Girls' Glee Club followed by a contralto solo, by Miss Ruth Pinkerton; a tenor solo by Mr. Albert Renning, and a soprano solo by Miss Marion Mason; Mrs. F. B. Green will recite a monologue; Mrs. Rich Hine will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Samuelson and in conclusion the Boys' Glee Club will sing jolly songs. There will also be an exhibition of the school work in the several class rooms and there will be social dancing in both the gymnasium and the lunch room for every one.
Miss Towner gave a luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at her home, 210 Prospect Ave., complimentary to Mrs. Tappan Francis of Boston, Mass., who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Francis C. Brown. The guests present were old time friends of Mrs. Francis.

MEDIATORS HOLD ALL NIGHT PARLEY

Stand of U. S. and Mexico Next Move in Plan.

HUERTA LIKES "GOOD OFFICES"

Thanks South American Representatives and Refers to the "Real Spirit of Solidarity Between Peoples of the Same Race"—Wilson and Bryan Silent.

WASHINGTON. — With the swinging of the pendulum in the Mexican crisis—Huerta's formal acceptance of the good offices of the South American diplomats—President Wilson and his advisers awaited the setting of the stage on which representatives of Argentina, Brazil and Chile hope to pave the way to peace.

Until the early hours the envoys remained in conference, completing preliminary plans of proposed mediation. Their first move, it was suggested, would be a request to the Washington and the Huerta governments for statements of probable demands each would make, preliminary to any attempt at formal mediation. The next step would depend upon the nature of those replies. Upon them probably would be based the proposals intended for submission to the Washington government and Huerta.

Huerta's Reply Is Received.

Huerta's reply, conveyed through his minister for foreign affairs to Mr. Llanos, Spanish ambassador in Washington, was received during the night. His tenor was expected, because Mr. Llanos had received private advices the night before that Huerta would accept, and the South American envoys had been at work all day on that assumption.
The text of the acceptance was not made public, but Huerta's minister was said to have thanked the South American envoys and the Spanish ambassador for their good offices and to have referred to the "real spirit of solidarity between peoples of the same race."
To what extent the "good offices" of the South Americans might reach was an absorbing topic in official Washington and the entire diplomatic corps. Other features in the situation were lost to sight except among army and navy officials charged with execution of preparations for eventualities.
Vera Cruz, April 29.—American prisoners of General Maas, at Cordoba, are sleeping on the stone flagging of the all patio, with insufficient food, no sanitation and threatened every night with assassination by drunken jailers, while General Funston and his troops are lying off this harbor awaiting the results of the mediation plans.
Rear Admiral Fletcher has seized the piers, yards and buildings of the Terminal company, a British-owned concern, control over which he regarded as necessary in order to facilitate the resumption of the normal business activity of the city.
This was the situation in Vera Cruz early in the day.
The release of the Cordoba prisoners has been promised by General Maas in reply to a request from American Consul Canada, through a messenger who has returned to Vera Cruz.

J. CAILLAUX IS RE-ELECTED
Ballots indicate Little Change in French Chamber of Deputies.
PARIS. — Balloting in the elections for members of the chamber of deputies was carried on quietly. Returns indicate that the personnel of the chamber will be little changed. Joseph Caillaux, who resigned the ministry of finance after the killing of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, by Mme. Caillaux, was re-elected.
Amedee Thalmes, the radical deputy who defended Mme. Caillaux, was defeated. The latest returns indicated that the Caillaux radicals were losing ground slightly. Among those re-elected are Aristide Briand, Alexandre Millerand, Louis Barthou, Paul Deschanel, Rene Viviani, Abbe Lemire, Maurice Barres, Denys Cochin.
