Worth Coming Many Miles For are the delicious dishes prepared by us for the delight and good digestion of the resident and visiting folk. It's not the food alone (always of the choicest), nor yet solely the cooking, services, prices or surroundings—it's a happy mixture of all these desirable things that make our Restaurant the most popular in town.

Major General Carter and Scenes From His Camp.

Photos copyright, 1912, by American Press Association.
MAJOR GENERAL WILLIAM H. CARTER and his 10,000 United States troops in camp near Galveston, Tex., have been long prepared for instant action against Mexico. General Carter is here shown with a scene from his camp and his artillery on the march. Transports have long waited at Galveston to take the troops to Vera Cruz.

Rear Admiral Fletcher and Two of His Warships.

Photos by American Press Association.
REAR ADMIRAL FRANK F. FLETCHER, commanding the second division of the Atlantic fleet, directed the operations of the American warships on the eastern coast of Mexico from his flagship Louisiana, shown at bottom. The other battleship is the Michigan, also under his command. Other ships under him are the New Hampshire, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Virginia, Chester and Tacoma.

Wireless Wonder of the United States Navy.

THE scout cruiser Chester is in Mexican waters because it is equipped with the most powerful wireless in the United States navy. It enables Rear Admiral Fletcher to keep in constant and direct communication with the government wireless at Arlington. The Chester is under the command of Commander W. A. Moffet and has twenty-two officers and 351 men.
