

Have you ever wanted a collar badly and found those just returned to you badly worn and broken?

Did you ever start to dress in a hurry, put on your collar, start to tie your four-in-hand and have your tie stick?

What did you do? Give the collar a yank, have it come unbuttoned or buckle up and crack at the joints? If after the struggle you succeeded with the tie did you whistle merrily or did you — ?

The Reliable Laundry

is laundering collars without cracking and with an easy tie space. GIVE THEM AN OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW YOU.

The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Bridge parties, although of the most informal kind, are beginning to make their way through this spell of quietude which has been reigning over the society world for the past month or so. Probably within a few weeks bridge will again hold its place in the social realm. Several affairs of this kind are being given for Miss Muriel Boulton of Beaumont, Cal., who is visiting with her sisters, Mrs. Arthur Van Schaick and Mrs. John Harmon. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Paul Bird entertained informally at bridge at her home, 240 E. Park Ave., in honor of her cousin, Miss Mendenhall of Kansas City, Mrs. Parker Johnson and Mrs. William L. Lafane, both of whom are new residents of this city. This afternoon Mrs. John Grenville Mott will be hostess at an informal two table bridge at her home on E. Laurel Ave. Miss Annie Cobb will also entertain at bridge this afternoon for Miss Muriel Boulton. The affair is to be most informal, only a few of Miss Boulton's old time friends will be present. The social calendar for this week opened with a luncheon on last Monday afternoon at which Mrs. Arthur W. Jerrens, 224 Linden Ave., was hostess to twelve guests. On last Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Franklin B. Hussey gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Richard F. Peyton, Jr., who will leave soon with Mr. Peyton and their daughter Catherine for an extended trip abroad. The guests bidden were the intimate friends of Mrs. Peyton.

One of the prettiest dances ever given in the high school gymnasium was the Junior Prom in honor of the Senior Class of 1914, on last Saturday evening. The decorations were most artistically arranged giving the hall an appearance like that of a Japanese tea garden. Crepe paper in shades of pink and green was festooned from the center of the room to the four walls; shower bouquets of pink tissue paper roses and Japanese glass chimes hung from overhead. On the four sides of the gymnasium branches were tacked and here and there pink tissue paper rose buds were fastened to these. In the southeast corner of the room a three piece orchestra from Lake Forest rendered a good selection of popular music which caused the tangoes to dance on until nearly midnight. The chaperones for the evening were Mrs. Ira J. Gear, Mrs. William J. Fyffe, Mrs. William A. French, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Bacon, Miss Grandy, and Mr. Sidney Dietch. Delicious punch was served by Mrs. Schubnell. All voted this to be the most successful dance ever and all the committees in charge of the affair deserve hearty congratulations.

Mrs. Edward Huber of So. Green Bay Rd., entertained the Euchre club on Monday evening.

Miss Catherine Murphy entertained informally with a miscellaneous shower on Saturday afternoon for Miss Marguerite Kreger of Glencoe, whose marriage to George E. Phillips of this city will take place Wednesday, June 10.

The Five Hundred club met on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Larson. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. W. Ernst and Mr. Geo. Vetter, while Mrs. Geo. Vetter and Mr. Wm. Ernst received the consolation prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krueger were most pleasantly surprised on Saturday evening when about twenty of their friends came to help them celebrate their fifteenth wedding anniversary. Cards were the feature of the evening. Mrs. A. Jones and Mr. Dean Anysley received first prizes and Mr. F. Sheeks and Mrs. Dean Anysley won the consolation prizes. Mr. and Mrs. Krueger were presented with a lovely china tea set.

On Thursday evening the members of the Laurel Sewing Society, twelve in number, will enjoy a dinner at the North American Restaurant, later enjoying the performance of "The Third Party" now playing at the Princess Theatre, Chicago.

The annual meeting of the North Shore Chapter D. A. R. with the election of officers was held at the residence of Mrs. C. N. Kimball, May 18th. The program consisted of a group of songs by Mrs. Carleton Vail and a paper on Colonia Children by Mrs. Daniel Cobb. Mrs. Kimball showed photographs and told of a visit to "Sulgrave," the old Washington home in England. A number of pipe organ selections followed. Mrs. Hoffman of Wilmette, presented the subject of "Our lack of both State and National Flag Laws and the consequent frequent desecration of our flag" and she urged that the chapter members use their influence to see what can be done in the matter. The following officers were elected: Regent, Mrs. George Cummings; vice regent, Mrs. Gordon Buchanan; secretary, Mrs. Joseph Leaming; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Faxon, historian, Mrs. F. B. Green; registrar, Mrs. W. C. Egan; directors, Mrs. Francis Thorn, Mrs. A. P. Smith, Mrs. Carleton Moseley, and Mrs. George R. Nichols.

There were eighty-four ladies present at the annual spring luncheon of the Arden Shore Association held at the Moraine Hotel on Friday afternoon. Interesting reports were given by Miss Theresa Clay, Superintendent of the Arden Shore Camp, and Mrs. Charles Thorn of Winnetka, chairman of the Finance Committee. Mrs. Robert B. Gregory presided. It was interesting to those present to learn that the camp which was open all winter, cared for nearly sixty convalescing men and boys during the winter months. Mrs. Fayette S. Munro is the chairman for Highland Park. Mrs. Frank L. Wean is chairman of the Industrial section having filled the vacancy of Mrs. A. L. Drum, who served last year. A new member of the board is Mrs. Burridge D. Butler of this city. The Industrial department which heretofore has been under the management of the local chairman, has now a special head for this division, Mrs. James Simpson of Glencoe.

Another affair given this week in honor of Mrs. Richard F. Peyton, Jr. was a bridge party on Wednesday afternoon at which Mrs. George Allen Mason, was hostess at her home on Hazel Ave. Those bidden were the members of the whist club in Highland Park and intimate friends of the guest of honor.

The embroidery class met this week Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Albert J. Metzler on Sycamore Place.

The Ekmoor Club opens next Saturday evening, May 30th, with a dinner and dance.

On Wednesday at three o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Agnes Simmers, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Simmers of So. First St., to Mr. Edward Golden of Highwood. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Florence Simmers, sister of the bride, and Mr. George Kenry. The Rev. Father Gates read the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Golden will be at home after June 15th in their flat on N. Green Bay Rd.
