ROUGH CAST BUNGALOW DESIGN.
 Design 799, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

WARDROBE CLOSET INTERIOR.

When the door of this closet is opened the light inside is turned on automatically, and when the door is closed the light is turned out. There is a place for all manner of wearing apparel—built-in hat boxes, rod for coat hangers underneath and drawers for shirt waists, skirts and gowns. Such completely designed closets for every chamber are a guarantee of the completeness of the remainder of the interior of this home. Size of the house 26 feet wide and 28 feet deep over main part. Full basement. Finish throughout red gum, Washington fir or red oak. Second story pine to paint. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $3,200.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will furnish a copy of Saxton's new 1914 book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains 310 designs of residences costing from $1,000 to $30,000; also book of interiors for $1.50.

AN ATTRACTIVE CEMENT EXTERIOR.
 Design 798, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN. SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

Living room across the entire front and a sun room or porch, which is livable the year round. French doors between sun room and living room. There are three chambers in second story, large bath, linen closet, clothes chute and an abundance of closet space. Size, 28 feet wide, exclusive of sun porch, and 26 feet deep. First story, 8 feet; second story, 8 feet. Full basement. Red gum, oak or southern cypress throughout first story, second story pine to paint. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $2,850.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will furnish a copy of Saxton's new 1914 book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains 310 designs of residences costing from $1,000 to $30,000; also book of interiors for $1.50.

MARRIAGE MOURNERS.
 Rites of a German Club When One of its Members Weds.
 There are other places besides All Souls' college, Oxford, that penalize a member who marries. Many readers have doubtless heard of the Bachelors club in London. When a member so far forgets the principles of the club as to marry he is promptly expelled. By payment of a fine of $125 he can, however, retain an honorary membership, but of course he cannot enjoy the privileges of this select band of nonmarrying men.
 There is a similar organization in Germany—the Junggesellen club. Whenever there comes to the officials of this club any intimation that a member contemplates matrimony he is immediately summoned for trial in the club court, with the president as judge. The culprit is allowed to plead in extenuation of his offense, and upon his skill in presenting such plea depends the amount of his fine, which ranges from $100 to $1,000.
 The humorous feature of the fine consists in the purpose to which the money is applied. The money is devoted to a dinner, whereat all members appear in mourning attire. At the conclusion of the feast the president solemnly reads the sentence of expulsion, and the delinquent is led from the room amid the groans and lamentations of his erstwhile clubfellows.—London Tit-Bits.

LUXURY IN ARGENTINA.
 The Big Story They Tell of a Buenos Aires Hotel Charges.
 The hotels of Buenos Aires are fairly good and very expensive. One of the cheapest rooms I saw in the Plaza hotel was $7 a day, European style. There are good Spanish hotels with rooms from $2 a day upward.
 The Plaza is, perhaps, the most cosmopolitan of all the hostleries of the city. In its ballroom and its drawing room I was reminded of the Waldorf-Astoria. The meals are a little higher than in the big hotels of New York city. But there are numerous small restaurants where good refreshments may be had at reasonable prices.
 As an example of the charges in the big hotels of Buenos Aires I may quote a story told me by an Argentine official. He said that some years ago a commission of European ambassadors was entertained by the Argentine government at the Bristol hotel on the Avenida de Mayo and that the bill for soap and perfumery was $15,000 a week. Nobody seemed to complain and apparently everybody was satisfied.
 Luxuries seem to be necessities to the Argentines, for I was told that the tariff on champagne is only 2 per cent, while that on a plow is 50 per cent.—National Magazine.

Weight of a Lion.
 What does a lion weigh? Those who know the look of the king of beasts best and how small his little body really is will probably come farthest from the truth. About 300 to 350 pounds is a usual estimate, but a full grown lion will tip the scales at no less than 500 pounds. Five hundred and forty pounds is the record for an African lion. His bone is solid and heavy as ivory. The tiger runs the lion very close. A Bengal tiger killed by an English officer weighed 320 pounds. A tiger this size has, however, considerably more muscular strength than the big gest lion.

Hired His Newspaper.
 Lady Taylor once took a friend to see the poet Tennyson and was rather coldly received. On Lady Taylor rallying him on his manner he said:
 "Madam, I am a poor man, and as I can't afford to buy the Times I have it from the stationer. He charges me 2 cents for it, which entitles me to keep it an hour. Why will people select just that hour to come and call on me?"

His Periodicals.
 "Do you take any periodicals?" asked the clerk on his first round of parish visits.
 "Well, son't," replied the woman, "but my husband takes 'em; frequer I do will 'd try to get him to stir the pleur."
 "—Judge.

Often the Cause.
 "It was a fair fight, wasn't it?"
 "Sure it was. The under dog got whipp'd."
 "Call that a fair fight?"
 "Wat? let me explain. The under dog provoked it."—St. Louis Republic
