eatre entral Ave.

PICTURES audeville y 26th 12th series of Kathlyn re Every Friday or the Gold Seal Co. turday's Vaudeville the highest class ainable, booked by udeville Association s find a good show and Park Theatre udeville Nights 25c under 9, 15c Children under nine 5c

Bird Houses

d Wren houses Berlepsch 'de-Food Shelters, n Houses $3.00

DRESS PATTEE Shipping Clerk ALE FARM lla, Illinois

CHAEFER IBING

Highland Park

Russell NEER AND burveyor

Lake Forest, Tel 534-W gineering, Tapoand Construcears in Engineernd Construction.

etc. ires, Metals

SPECIALTY stal card or me and

Il for

erfield Road Highland Park Park 890-Y-3

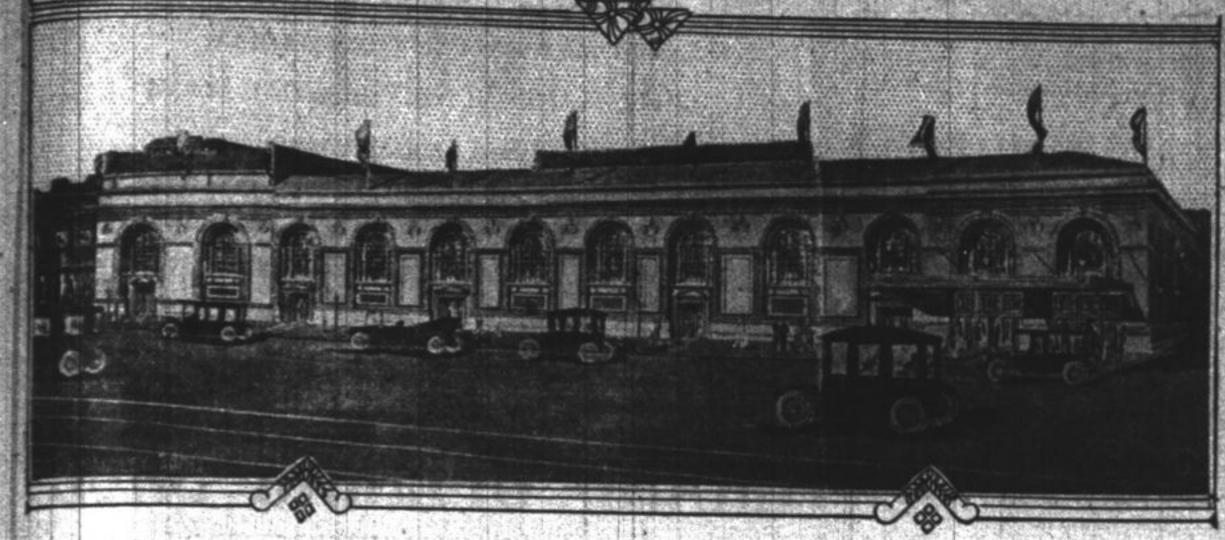

ER 65 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

ENTS

TRADE MARKS DESIGNS COPYRIGHTS &C. and description may ion free aliether an htable. Communica-ANDSON on Patenta Mann & Qp. receive Packly, Largest chr. Parnal, Terms, $3 a. 2 by: I new wdenlers.

North Side to have Mammoth Auditorium

George W. Stewart plans quarter mil- which 150 feet have been acquired by a ama and Europe after being awarded Belmont. The North side is to have chased at an approximate cost of $40,000. an able corps of assistants. He will halls, parties, theatricals, church festivals, will begin within the next thirty days. W. W. Kimball Piano Co.

The building will have a stage with an opening 70x60 ft.; also a beautiful balcony and large promonade. The location is on sheffield Ave., 100 feet south of Belmont. Mr. Martin Carroll, formerly of Martins, Salle Street, Chicago. Phone Central The building is to cover 250x125 ft, of class of women.

etc., address

1653 Monadnock Block Chicago

on dollar fire proof dancing palace and 99 year lease from the heirs of the Phillip the World's Gold Medal, as dancing Procolossal new auditorium. Mr. George The new auditorium will cost in the troduce all the new foreign, as well as Stewart, a prominent North side build- neighborhood of $250,000. The structure modern local dances. In connection with who has erected many stores and is to be absolutely fire-proof; the exterior the regular musicians, there will be partments in the Sheridan Park and to be finished in white enamel brick and band of thirty Hawaiians, as entertainers wilson Avenue districts, is behind the white glazed terra cotta, with verdi green who will furnish string, as well as vocal lect. The building is to be used for trimmings. The work on this building music.

approximately 7,000. A pipe organ, at the firm of Robert P, Hillinger & Co. mitted for the new auditorium. ost of $25,000 is to be installed by the The legal part of the transaction was A $250,000 Illinois corporation has been W. Stewart; and Samuel Petersen, repre- may be sold. senting the heirs of the Hillinger estate.

charge of the Arcadia, is to be manager. New York, who has returned from Pan- 4936.

An Opportunity

POSITIVE --- RARE-SIGNIFICANT

For the merchant, manufacturer, educational institution, firm or organization contributing in any manner to the advancement of womenkind-is offered through the medium of the Congress of Woman's Achievements and Exposition of Science, Art and Commerce

Coliseum --- June 13-20

Held during the Biennial Meeting of General Federation of Women's Clubs and under the auspices of the Chicago

A portion of the Coliseum has been alloted to exhibits of those who value the patronage of intelligent, responsible

By exhibiting at the Coliseum June 13-20 you will get the personal, favorable attention of the maxium number of this

The very women you want most to interest will be in daily attendance

For detailed information as to space, rates, regulations,

Woman's Achievements Co.

Shoes of Refined

Individuality

The Foster Colonial Pump is correct for afternoon and semi-dress wear this season. Perfect proportion of high arch and Spanish heel is the feature of this shoe. Shown in patent leather with white calf uppers and other attractive combinations of leather.

F. E. FOSTER & CO.

Phone Wabash 5394

Woman's Association of Commerce and Affilated Clubs.

aditorium, located on Sheffield Ave., Hillinger estate; the remainder was pur- fessor, will be the chief instructor, with

A prize of $500 will be offered the conventions, etc. The seating capacity The lease and sale were made through opening night for the best name sub-

Mr. Frederick Limouze, formerly in communicate with George W. Stewart, 528 National Life building, 29 South La

THE SIMPLE LIFE.

Some of the Rewards That Come to Those Who Follow It.

I am bound to praise the simple life because I have fived it and found it good. * * * 1 love a small house, jugin clothes, simple living. Many persons know the luxury of a skin bath-a folunge in the pool or the wave, unimmpered by clothing. That is the simple life-direct and immediate contact with things, life with the false wrappings torn away-the fine house, the fine equipage, the expensive habits all cut off. How free one feels, how good the elements taste, how close one gets to them, how they fit one's body and soul! To see the fire the towarms you or, better yet, to out the wood that feeds the fire that warms you; to see the spring where the water bubbles up that slakes your thirst and to dip your pall into it; to see the beams that are the stay of your four walls and the timbers that uphold the roof that shelters you; to be in direct and personal contact with the sources of your material life; to want no extras, no shields; to find the air and the water exhibarating; to be refreshed by morning walk or an evening saunter to find a quest of wild berries more satisfying than a gift of tropic fruit; to be thrilled by the stars at night; to be elated over a bird's nest-these are some rewards of the simple life. - John Burroughs, Quoted in 'Our John Burroughs," by Clara Barrus.

CARRYING AN UMBRELLA.

Crowded Street.

they hold their umbrellas down in or- could get on with one husband. I must der to protect their faces from the driving rain," explained an ambulance looked at me as if she would bite my themselves from the rain they place even saving goodby. themselves in grave danger of being struck and run over by surface cars, all instead of doing it. Aunt Kate was automobiles and other vehicles.

just stand in a doorway some night ed the arts mentioned." where you are protected from the rain "I am afraid you don't understand and where you are in a position to see your aunt. At any rate, I have an an expanse of thoroughfare which all tagonized her, and I think you'll find kinds of vehicles use. You will be sur- that if you marry me she will not prised at the large number of persons leave you a cent of her money. you will notice crossing the thorough- I went straight to my aunt to hear fare with their umbrellas held down so what she had to say about the matter. far that it is impossible for them to see but she locked her tongue and would anything approaching. They seem ob- give me no satisfaction. I judged, livious of danger, and a spectator however, that she had not been overwould suppose from their actions that there was not the remotest chance of Edith had overdone the matter. an accident occurring.

the sides, the pedestrians walk in front happened."-New York Sun.

"But he couldn't." reports the veravious Mr. Miller, "He cut the price when a gentleman asked me if I would borne her out in the deception, down to almost nothing and didn't get make one of four to play whist. Glad perate and put this advertisement in I was the partner of the gentleman site my house. In that field I shall place the car I have been trying to our antagonists got the idea that I and the may h between ourselves. sell. The first man to that car aft- my partner were a pair of professional It appeared later that Mr. Springer er 6 o'clock tomorrow morning maj

"And what happened?" you ask Mr. Miller.

"Well," says the young man, "my friend woke up early the next morning and looked out, and there in the field were four other cars."-Herbert Cores

inding Out the Truth

in Engaged Couple Try to impose on Each Other's Relatives

BY DONALD CHAMBERLIN

When Edith Lambert and I became been at the meeting. gaged, on comparing notes we found that Edith had an uncle whose fortun she expected to inherit, while I had an cunt whose heir I was to be. Edith gaye me the impression that her uncle was a very dignified old gentleman. whose lideas concerning the man she should marry were that he should walk chalk line. This did not indicate that the chances for pleasing the old man were very good, for, if ever a young ster was full of Old Nick, I was that

Per contra, my aunt had been in her outh a society girl, a flirt, fond of orse rucing, yachting, and had even been so victous as to play curis for ney. Edith was just the reverse of this; a young woman of reserve and guilty and, withil, very religious,

Naturally It was essential that should be acceptable to Edith's uncle and that Edith should please my aunt. handled by R. C. Fergus, representing G. formed and a small amount of this stock for neither Edita uor I had any forand had both been brought up in For any information concerning above, laxury. Edith's uncle was worth $500. ood in 6 per cent bonds, while my aunt something more than this in wel relited real estate. The problem before me and my flancee was to make her uncle believe that I was a very steady and well behaved young man. and to make my hunt think that Edith was a woman of the world.

After a long conference in which va es as she could, though I had misgivings as to her decelving my aun for it was born in Edith to be dignified. and she had no sympathy whatever with that license which pertains t people of the gay world. However, was arranged that my aunt was to call were to pass an evening together a

The evening after this call I went to see Edith and found her in a very distressed state of mind.

"Why did you tell me that Miss Mar tindale was a woman of the world? she said. "I commenced soon after she appeared to talk freely and kept it up, while she listened to me without betraying any sympathy with ideas I expressed, and she finally arose, evidently very much disgusted with me, and took her departure." "What did you say?"

"Why, I began by cracking jokes about our forthcoming marriage, say ing that I hoped when you were out late at poker parties your companions wouldn't have to set you up against the front door and ring the bell." "What did she say to that?"

"Why, she seawled." "What else did you say?"

"I said I find fost $500 on the last races and expected to make it up at hoped you wouldn't feel that you must I called for Edith, and she said that Don't Hold it Before Your Face in a were welcome to firt with other women and get yourself talked about all There are a great many persons in you liked, provided there was nothing jured on windy, rainy nights because criminal in it. "As for me, while I have attention from other men. She surgeon. "In their desire to protect head off and whisked away without

"Perhaps if was because you said it my hand. Curious to know why she probably shocked at the bare state-"If you wish proof of my assertion ment, while she would not have mind

"It is a fact that many pedestrians me to make the acquaintance of Mr. are injured on windy, rainy nights. Springer, Edith's wealthy uncle, He With their unibrellas pulled down so wrote Edith that I was to stay with that it is impossible to see ahead or to him at his house and desired her to inof vehicles and are knocked down and that he might send his car to the stainjured before they realize what has tion for me., She gave him the desired information, and one bright morning i boarded the train, resolved to make better impression on Edith's uncle than been trying for two months to sell his I determined to guard against-that I had not been long on the traina bite. So the other day he got des to while away the time, I consented. who invited me to play, and the stake, "I've rented a ten acre field oppo- beginning at a quarter a corner, was gradually increased to a dollar. But gamblers who were intending to "do" them and soon retired from the game.

> This threw my partner and myself together, he assuming considerable bonhomie. He had a flask with him would smell my breath. But my new became its head objected, for if a whisky breath is paid enjoyable, so again I yielded,

After our smoke my compension p taken $76 from my antagonist, He meet him again for his revenge, being just as cheery at the parting as he had

I found Mr. Springer's car at the his home. When I arrived I was told pected scon. I was shown to a room where I made a tollet, taking care t use some aromatic tooth powder I had. with me to destroy the odor of whisks and tobacco on my breath. I also d vested myself of my traveling suit which was saturated with tobacco smoke. Having got as well rid as pos sible of these telltales, I went down lote the library, where I found an

I was engrossed in the paper when hearing a footstep, I looked up, and great was my astonishment. A man on his face, and who should he be but the person who had sought my acquaintance on the train and whom I | Care had relieved of $76. He offered his

"I'm glad to see you, my dear boy can tell you at once that I heartily approve of you. We can't trust one an ed, so I concluded to take you un

B-b-b-ut I thought you were

So I am in business and among women and children, but I know what a young man is, for I've been one my self. So I concluded to go back to the days of my wild outs and see you as you are, not as you would pretend to I'm very fond of my niece and wish her to marry a man, not a sniveling, driveling fellow who pretends goodness while his inclinations are otherwise. I have found you perfectly honorable and you played a fair game. I'll say this, even if you did relieve me of my money. Come in to dinner." Mr. Springer did not let me go for several days. He was not the man be had been on the train, but was no prude. He was much engrossed in business, and this did not give him time for dissipation even if he was inclined that way, and he was not so inclined. I went back to Edith with a far better report of my status with her uncle than she had given me of her status with my aunt.

I found that Aunt Kate had been called away for a few days, and I was obliged to go to Edith to be informed as to the situation. She told me that my aunt had written her a brief note. saying that on her return and mine she would be pleased to see us at her house to spend an evening. I gave Edith an account of my meeting with her uncle, at which she was much sur-

"You men are very queer," she said. A few days after my return I received a telephone message from Aunt Kate that I was to fetch Edith to her house for dinner and to spend the evening. On the evening in que she would try to undo the impre she had made upon my aunt. I told her that she would better act herself and not try to appear to be any one else. Aunt Kate was very shrewd and not to be fooled.

We found our hostess got up in her finest costume, extremely decollete and with plenty of adornment. She gave Edith a smack and warmly pressed had been so different with Edith dur ing her call. I entered upon the sub ject at once.

"Edith told me she had shocked you Aunt Kate," I said. "Shocked me! She was trying to fool me. Do you suppose I don't know a woman of the world? Why, my dear, you could never be bad even if you tried ever so hard. Come in to din-having so successfully passed the or deal required. But we had done nothand my aunt had taken pains to pre-would have been far more delightful if with, behaved herself remarkably well trying to impose upon her; that Aunt Kate had maligned berself and I had well-that was with Edith's uncle. We the two, but they had passed too far into bachelorhood and spinsterhood, so had a double motive for taking the trouble to travel with me incognito. He was getting old and wished to retire. Since he had no son to succeed bim and Edith was like a daughter to and invited me to join him in emptying | him he conceived the idea of working it. I hesitated, fearing that when I me into the management of his bust met Mr. Springer in the evening he ness. The result was that in time usly low prices in order to move

Convenient terms can be arranged for

Mitchell Automobile Co 13 14 So, Michigan Ave. Cal. 1429

Sidney Arno Dietch (Paris 1909-1910)

Organist and director of Trinity Episcopal Church and supervisor that he will accept a limited numpiano and harmony. Mr. Dietch on repertoire, etc.

Studio: 12 Erskine Bank Bldg. and 609 Fine Arts Bldg.

Estimates Furnished Joseph J. Berube

138 Green Bay Rd., Highland Park

Ladies' Hats of any Kind

Retail or wholesale prices, re-blocking, bleaching, and dyeing of Panama hats. Ask for catalogue and prices

Chicago Hat Mfg. & Rebleaching Co. 12 N. Michigan Ave. Ward Bldg.

NEEDLECRAFT SHOP Children's Dresses 1 to 16 years Ladies' Waists to order $3.00 up Cornets to Measure - Smocking, Benetitely THE NEEDLECRAFT SHOP
717-718 Ventus Bile 15 E Westington St. Chicago
Tel. Constrail 4691

Acme Massage Institute Scientific Massage, Electric Light and Shower Baths, Therapeutic

Light and Vibratory. Manicuring Hours 10 a. m. to 7 p. m. daily MISS MAE OLIVER, Prop.

Telephone Harrison 3535

Emma Steffen DRESSMAKER 207 M. Second Street HIGHLAND PARK ILL

DR. WATSON DENTIST

45 St. Johns Ave. Highland Park

Telephone H. P. 18

John Takah Landscape Gardener

J. P. STEFFEN

Fresh Butter, Eggs and Poultry HIGHLAND PARK ILL

E. E. FARMER

Geo. H. Morris Painting and Decorating Wall Paper, Etc.

O. NELSON Brick Jobbing and Cement Work

The Highland Park Public Library is open daily, except Sunday, from and Friday Evenings from 7 to 9 p.m

Building Material

We carry limestone, granite screenings, sewer pipe, lime, cement, gravel, sand, etc. Also Coal, Coke and Wood

Highland Park Fuel Co. 102 N. First St Herman Denzel, Pres. Telephone 335

Box Ball Alley VENCEL MUZIK BARBER SHOP

Highland Park

. Central Ave.

Dr. I L. Baughman DENTISTS Suite 4, 5 and 6, State Bank Bldg. HIGHLAND PARK, ILL

in New York Globe.