BOTH LOCAL TEAMS DEFEATED SUNDAY

CRESCENTS LOOSE TO GLENVIEW SAT.

Regulars are Defeated by Waukegan on the Latter's Copied White Crescents Loose Two Games to Glenview

The Crescents lost a nerve-racking pitchers' duel to Glenview at the latter's grounds on Decoration Day by the score of 2 to 1. Potter, who worked on the mound for Highland Park, twirled a remarkable game and had a shade the better of his opponent, Rugen, the home team's smoke-ball dispenser. The Crescent hurler had everything in abundance, speed, curves and control, and certainly deserved the fruits of victory, but the breaks of the game refused to favor him.

Of the thirty-one Glenview batters that faced him, Potter whiffed fifteen, and of the remaining sixteen only four connected for safe swats. He was also accorded gritty-edged support, his mates playing errorless ball behind him.

The Crescents were the first to tally, slipping over a counter in the third inning on an error, a sacrifice hit and a single. The home team evened up matters in the fourth when Shannon drove a homer where nobody could get it—over the right-field wall. In the final inning Glenview put the game on ice forever when they tallied a run on a walk, an infield out, a steal and a dinky shot to left field.

Lineup: Crescents: Heilman, lf; Richards, ss; Cassell, cf; Crolin, c; Duffy, 3b; Schmidt, 2b; Potter, p; Flinn, 1b; Greenslade, rf. Glenview: Coulon, 2b; Grimberg, 1b; Shannon, cf; Pierre, c; Goldbach, ss; Sticken, rf; Wold, lf; Bierbaum, 3b; Rugen, p.

Score by innings: R H E. Crescents—0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 4 0. Glenview—0 0 1 0 0 0 0 *1—2 4 1. *Two out when winning run was scored.

Summary: Earned runs—Glenview, 2. Stolen bases—Richards; Grimberg; Wold. Sacrifice hits—Cassell; Schmidt. Two base hit—Crolin. Three base hit—Richards. Home run—Shannon. First base on balls—off Potter, 2; off Rugen, 2. Struck out—by Potter, 15; by Rugen, 9. Left on bases—Crescents, 5; Glenview, 3. First base on error—Crescents, 1. Hit by pitcher—Flinn. Umpire—Rusk.

The Crescents also dropped Sunday's game with Glenview at Ravinia Park by a 6 to 3 count. In this game Greenslade worked against Clark, the Glenview curve artist. Both twirlers were somewhat unsteady in the matter of control, and, except for the fifth and eighth innings, Bob held his own with his rival. In these two innings, however, Greenslade let terra firma long enough to permit the winners to bag the contest.

Wold's homer in the fifth started the rumpus and before the atmosphere cleared Glenview had piled three runs on three hits, a walk and an error. Again in the eighth a hullabaloo broke loose, and a fluke single, a scratch double, an infield hit and a clean single developed into another trio of runs. Attendance about 650.

Lineup: Crescents: Heilman, lf; Richards, ss; Cassell, cf; Crolin, c; Duffy, 3b; Schmidt, 2b; Potter, rf; Flinn, 1b; Greenslade, p. Glenview: Coulon, 2b; Grimberg, 1b; Shannon, cf; Pierre, c; Goldbach, ss; Sticken, rf; Wold, lf; Bierbaum, 3b; Clark, p.

Score by innings: R H E. Glenview—0 0 0 0 3 0 0 3 0—6 10 2. Crescents—0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 1—3 7 2.

Summary: Earned runs—Crescents, 1; Glenview, 5. Stolen bases—Richards; Crolin; Duffy; Pottery; Grimberg; Shannon. Two base hits—Schmidt; Pierre. Home run—Wold. First base on balls—off Greenslade, 5; off Clark, 2. Struck out—by Greenslade, 6; by Clark, 5. Left on bases—Crescents, 8; Glenview, 7. Double play—Clark-Grimberg. Wild pitches—Clark, 4. First base on errors—Crescents, 2; Glenview, 1. Hit by pitcher—Heilman, 2. Umpire—McDonald.

Although Glenview pocketed both these games, an analysis of them shows the Crescents and the Glenviews to be about as evenly matched as it is possible for two teams to be. Highland Park showed up a bit stronger than Glenview in the first game. In the second game Glenview showed to better advantage, mainly because of their work in the fifth and eighth innings.

Next Sunday the Crescents run up against the Superbs, a team that since its first game of the season has been cutting quite a swath in the
