EVER-READY HOT WATER FOR THE KITCHEN

Unlimited quantities—at all hours, and not a fire in the house—no light to strike. Nothing to turn on—nothing to turn off—but the faucet. Unless you are right up to the minute in modern household conveniences, this seems mystifying—yet simple as the twist of a wrist. It is done by the silent, unobserved

Ruud Automatic Gas Water Heater

tucked away in the corner of the cellar—uncomplaining—requiring no attention, but always ready to serve you. Scrub and clean to your heart's content—the hot water is always there at a turn of the faucet. Start your stews and porridges with fresh hot water, for the Ruud heats it as you need it—direct from the water main—purer and freer from bacteria than your cold water supply. Closing the faucet shuts off the gas and your fuel expense. Write to-day for complete details or see the Ruud operated at our showroom.
