REGULARS WIN AN EXCELLENT GAME

CRESCENTS DISAPPOINT MANY SUNDAY

Superba Manager Called Game off About Fifteen Minutes Before Game Time. Two Good Games Scheduled for Sunday

By Regular Fan
The Highland Park Regulars made another deposit Sunday. They trimmed the strong M. and R. Colts by the close score of 3 to 1 at Central Park Sunday p. m. They outthrew and outplayed the Colts all through the game. Reed, Conrad, Duffy, McDade and Wohlbruck divided the ten hits made by the locals, each getting a pair. We note that "Schmalitz" is getting into line again by his hard hitting. Conrad and McDade each got one for an extra base.

"Ike" Duffy was the individual star. He caught one in deep left that was tagged for three bases. Ike ran back about 50 feet, fell over, got up, caught the ball, and made about four summer saults and all you could see was "Ikes" hand sticking up out of the long grass with the ball in his hand. Some fielding Sunday. Sykes and Reed worked in unison all through the game. No one stole on Reed and Sykes got 13 via the strikeout route. You'll go far before you will be able to see a battery like this in the prairies. Next Sunday the Regulars go up against the strong Jefferson Greys at Central Park. Clarke and Sykes will twirl for the Regulars.

The Game by Innings
M. and R. Colts, 1st inning:
Less was thrown out Sykes to Ahlstrom. Mack struck out. Leiberman singled but was out stealing. No runs; one hit.

COLTS, 2nd Inning:
Paul singled and was out stealing. Al whipped, as did Lefty. No runs, one hit.
REGULARS:
Ahlstrom breezed. McDade safe on error. Wohlbruck struck out. Ditto fo Sykes. No runs, no hits, one error.
COLTS, 3rd Inning: Schroeder struck out. Wagoner same. McMann singled. Less breezed. No runs, one hit.

COLTS, 4th Inning: Mack struck out. Leiberman rolled to Sykes and was out. Paul struck out. No runs, no hits.
REGULARS: Cal Christy grounded to Paul and was out. Ahlstrom bumped one to the pitcher, out at first. McDade doubled and scored on Wohlbruck's single. Sykes breezed. One run, two hits.

COLTS, 7th Inning: Leiberman was easy for Reed and Ahlstrom. Paul poled on to left field but Duffy camped under it. Al out Christy to Ahlstrom. No runs, no hits.
REGULARS: Sykes fied out. Reed singled. Con laid down a sacrifice. Hapke whipped. No runs, one hit.
COLTS, 8th Inning: Lefty struck out. Schroeder singled. Wagoner out Conrad to Ahlstrom. McMann whipped. No runs, one hit.

By "Crescent Fan"
Baseball fans that gathered at Ravinia Park last Sunday to witness the Crescent-Superba encounter were disappointed when the Chicago team failed to appear. The cause of the team's non-appearance was that four of the Superba players had a disagreement with their manager and at the last minute quit the team. And being unable to fill satisfactorily so many shoes on so short a notice, the Superba manager called the game off. The Crescents should not be held to blame for this disappointment as they were powerless to avoid it, having received notice of the calling off of the game just fifteen minutes before game

A Tribute
It is with sorrow and regret that we note the departure of Mr. William C. McKenzie as principal of Lincoln school. For seventy-seven years, he has given his time, energy, and affection to bring the school to its present high standard, of which we are justly proud.
Hampered by an insufficient salary, he nevertheless kept abreast with the best in pedagogy, and won commendation from those high in the educational world.
To whatever field of usefulness Mr. McKenzie may go, he takes with him the respect and confidence of the community.
