Mrs. William M. Lovell gave a delightful informal reception on last Tuesday afternoon from four to six o'clock, at her home on Prospect Ave. to welcome her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Underwood who has spent the past year abroad. The house was attractively decorated with the late spring flowers given the hostess by her friends. Those assisting in receiving were Mrs. E. P. Sedgwick, Mrs. C. A. Smith, Mrs. Ira J. Geer, Mrs. Carleton Moseley, Mrs. R. Calvin Dobson, and Mrs. William R. Ruffner. Among the young ladies who assisted in the dining room were the Misses Mary French, Dorothy Bastin, Rowena Bastin, Ruth Beardsley, Aristine Knaap of Chicago, and Miss McCoy of Bogalusa, La. In the evening Mrs. Lovell opened her home to the young people and some fifty or more boys and girl friends of Lovell and Tom Underwood were present to enjoy a gala evening of dancing.

Mrs. Charles L. Harbaugh entertained at a beach party on last Tuesday afternoon for her younger daughter, Mildred Harbaugh. The guests were Margaret Sedgwick, Elizabeth Morrison, Ruth Warner, Katherine Martin, and Muriel Payne.

The first regular meeting of the Ravinia Club this season was held last Tuesday morning at the Ravinia Park Casino with a large attendance. After the regular business part of the program Mrs. Ruth Goffin Collins read a synopsis of the pageant which is being considered for presentation next fall at Ravinia Park. Mrs. Annett R. Jones, chairman of the children's afternoons, gave an outline of the programs planned for these days, the details of which will be printed in next week's paper.

The first children's afternoon will be observed Thursday, July ninth. A fairy play in dance pantomime entitled, "The Moon Princess", will be given under the direction of Miss Doris Humphry of Oak Park. There is to be a large cast. The entertainment will be held in the theater. These afternoons will be free to everyone this year.

The Junior League has been reorganized into what will be known this year as the Social Committee of which Mrs. W. A. Alexander and Mrs. Frank R. Full of Winnetka, are chairmen. The Ravinia Club has planned a series of tea-dansants which will take place every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from five until eight o'clock. These parties will be chaperoned by different members of the Ravinia Club board. At each dance a new feature of the modern dances will be illustrated by young people from the various suburbs along the North Shore who are experts in the new steps. The officers of the Ravinia Club are: Mrs. Harold F. McCormick, Honorary President; Mrs. Frank R. McMullin, President; Mrs. Edwin L. Lobdell, 1st Vice President; Miss Miriam Steever, Recording Secretary; Miss Katherine Forrest, of Winnetka, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. George A. Thorne, also of Winnetka, Treasurer and Mrs. Everett L. Millard, Chairman of local board in Highland Park.

Did He Part?

A little boy of five was invited to a children's party. The next day he was giving an account of the fun and said that each of the little visitors had contributed either a song, a recitation or music for the pleasure of the rest. "Oh, poor little Jack," said his mother. "How very unfortunate you could do nothing!"

"Yes, I could, mother," replied the young hopeful. "I stood up and said my prayers!"—San Francisco Star.

He Drew the Line.

Officer—What's the matter with that soup you're turning up your nose at?
Private—It's full of sand and grit, sir.
Officer—Now, look here, my man, did you come to camp to grumble or to serve your country? Private—Well, I did come to serve my country, sir, but not to eat it.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Altruism.

Willie—Paw, what is an altruist?
Paw—An altruist is a man who is satisfied with the way the government is run and the way the ball team is managed, my son.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Poor Schiller.

Misses—What? Better one of my china figures? The Goethe, I suppose?
Gretchen—No, ma'am, only the Schiller.—Fliedegende Blatter.

Her Limit.

She—You must admit that a woman generally gains her point. He—Yes, until she tries to sharpen a pencil.—Philadelphia Record.
