BREAK ATTENDANCE RECORDS AT RAVINIA

LAST WEEK AVERAGED 2000 A DAY

Best Attendance Park has Held Under Present Management. New Dancers, Dickson and Heisen are Scoring Great Success

In spite of the fact that a general opinion seems to prevail that the attendance at Ravinia has been light so far this season the box office man comes forth smilingly with a statement that the second week was the best in the history of the park, there being an average attendance of about $2,000. In point of receipts the week was probably even better than in attendance because the reserved seat habit appears to prevail to a greater extent than in former seasons. Last season the second was one of the season's poorest weeks, due largely to bad weather, the same reason that made the first week this season a bad one.

Those who were inclined to shake their heads in sorrow over the introduction of modern dancers and dancing to classic Ravinia either have remained away or have joined the happy thousands who have been shaking their hands in applause over the work of Miss Dickson and Mr. Heisen, who are filling Miss St. Denis' shoes so hard that she is hardly able to keep up with the demand. Miss St. Denis' atmosphere this week. They are doing it well, too, and the crowds and applause which greet them nightly auger well for a continuation of last week's prosperity. As a sop to those classic taxidermists who enjoy a sight of cuticle now and then Mr. Shawn and Miss Beyer have been retained and these dancers are proving as popular as they were during the first weeks of the season.

As to the effect of modern dancing on the attendance at the park—something over which dire predictions were made—the following conversation may prove enlightening: "The dances? Oh I've lamped better; and I've turned the lights down on worse. That pair could sure do some 'tahn-go,' but that music! Say, when that band began to play I sure started on a long journey, to nowhere." "How did you enjoy the classic dancers?" "Oh, the few clothes pair? Oh they're all right for them that likes 'em—say, I piped a lot a Johnnies and James using helps for their peepers when dat pair was on that they didn't untash on the others. But I don't care much for this high-brow stuff myself." "You say you enjoyed the music and that's considered high-brow." "That stuff high-brow? Nix on that talk, old top; say I was wise to every number and believe muh you don't have to get no stepladder to reach from my eyelashes to my hair. Youse can take me to—what's the name of the place?" "Oh, yes, Ravinia. You can take me to Ravinia again if you want to—that sure was some band."

Regulars Trim Evanston Colts, While Crescents Perform a Similar Stunt With the West Side Athletics

By Regular Fan

The Regulars added another game to their string of victories Sunday by defeating the Evanston Colts, a colored team, by the score of 8 to 0. Dougherty, formerly of the Leland Giants, twirled for the visitors and deserved a better game, but his support was not of the best, the Colts making six errors behind him and all costly. Greenslade pitched his usual good game. Bob struck out ten of the colored boys and allowed six scattered hits. Sunday's game makes the third successive win for Bob. He has pitched twenty-seven innings without being scored on. That's some record, considering the strong, hard hitting teams he has faced, namely: M. & R. Colts, Crescents and Evanston Colts.

The intense heat Sunday was responsible for the absence of some of the fans but the Regulars are very much satisfied with the attendance up to date and appreciate the support given so far.

Next Sunday, July 19, at Central Park the Regulars will meet a strong aggregation from Chicago. Greenslade will try for another shutout Sunday.

By Crescent Fan

The Crescents administered a 13 to 0 beating to the West Side Athletics last Sunday at Crescent Park. The contest was not so punk as the size of the score seems to indicate. Ten of the runs were earned, being produced by timely clotting especially in the third inning, when the home team cut loose with eight of its twelve safe wallops.

The locals played a dandy game in the field, committing only one bobble, which did not prove costly. Potter twirled his usual air-tight game, allowing only six bingles and whiffing nine batsmen.

A couple of the home players showed signs of a return to their normal gait in hitting, but three or four of the team's best stickers are still in their slumps. The latter are about due to open up, and when they do get back into their stride, look out.

Old Sol made up the heat that the battle lacked and poured it down on the players a plenty. The spectators in the stands, however, were not affected; they managed to keep cool.
