ATTRACTIVE AND ECONOMICAL.
Design 940, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

INTERIOR VIEW—KITCHEN.

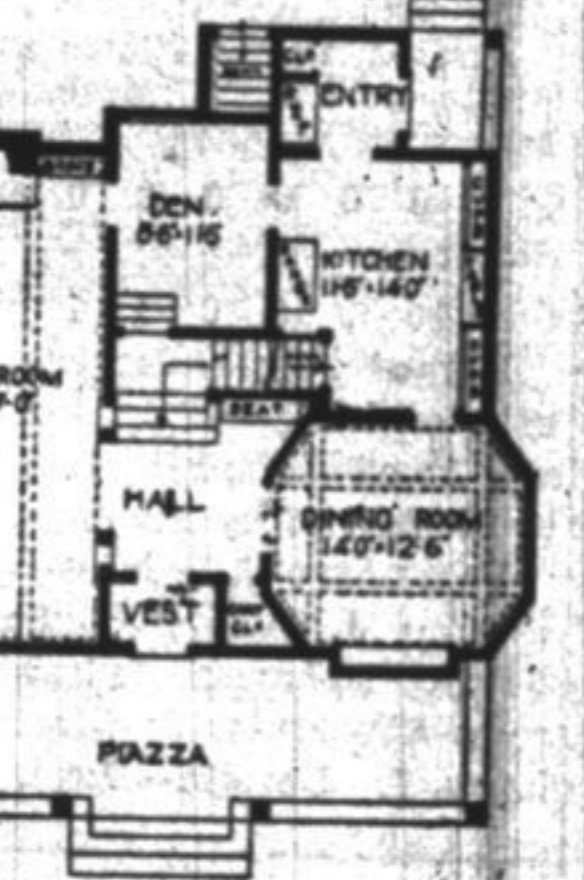

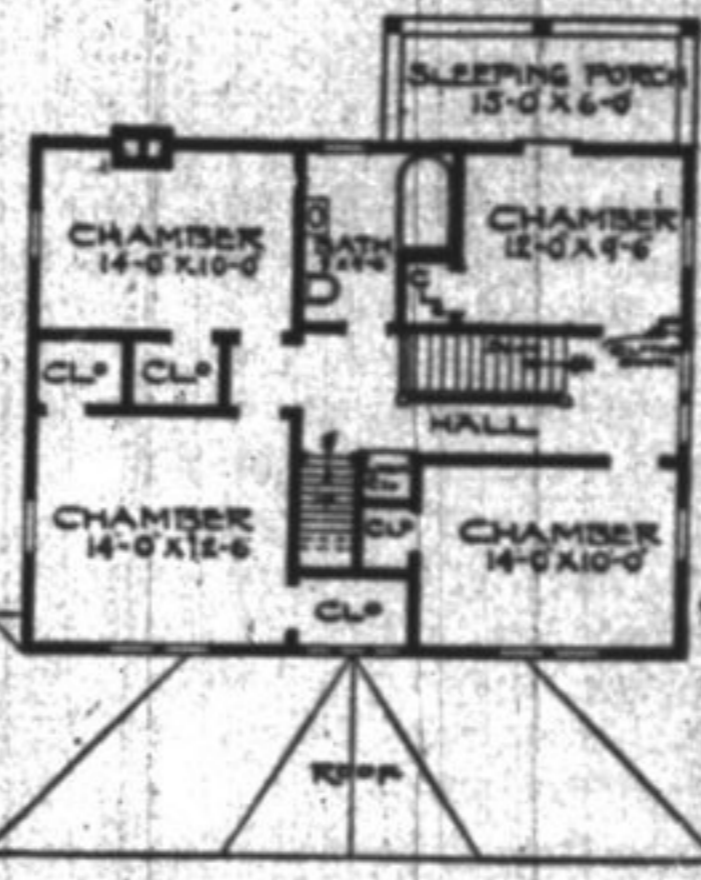

With this design is shown a "Model Kitchen." This kitchen has receptacle for electric iron and an electric fan. The size of the house is 26 feet wide and 28 feet deep over the main part. There is a piazza in front, which has the advantage of not shutting out all the sunshine from the living room. It is 10 feet wide and 14 feet long, making a commodious screened porch in summer and a sashed-in sun room in winter. Living room extends across the entire front. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $3,400.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will furnish a copy of Saxton's new 1914 book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains 310 designs of residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000; also book of interiors for $1.50.

SUGGESTIVE OF COMFORT AND EASE.
Design 650, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

FIRST FLOOR PLAN. SECOND FLOOR PLAN.

One of my most complete designed homes with a central hall. Living room across entire side on left hand side of hall, dining room and kitchen on right hand side. Stairway and den directly back of wide landing. The den, which is accessible from kitchen, living room and landing of stairway, is the most convenient room and the one most used of any in the house, where the family all go for rest and relaxation. Four chambers; also sleeping porch 15 feet long. Size, 36 feet wide and 28 feet deep over main part. Full basement. First story, 9 feet; second story, 8 feet. Finish throughout first story red gum, Washington fir or red oak; second story pine to enamel, with mahogany doors. Cost to build complete, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $5,200.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will furnish a copy of Saxton's new 1914 book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains 310 designs of residences costing from $1,000 to $6,000; also book of interiors for $1.50.
