Among the guests who arrived the past week are Mrs. F. J. Haefner and daughter, of Kansas City, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Owen, M. A. Sweet and daughter, Albin Steidel, Mr. and Mrs. Emery J. Levy, Chicago, Miss Myrtle Bourgeois, Miriam Orenby, H. Branch and H. C. Wagner of Oak Park, Mrs. S. O. Wright and Mignoa Wright, Madison, Wis., Mrs. Helen M. Gottfried, Joplin, Mo., Mrs. Etta Edwards, St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Harriet F. Bain, Kenosha, Wis.

The Edgewood Bowling club of Chicago, 37 in number, held their annual banquet here last Thursday, later enjoying the opera at Ravinia.

Mrs. W. H. Bowman and children, and J. H. Ohi of Hinsdale, Ill., Miss Elsie Shendt of Milwaukee, Wis., Mrs. J. O. Weiss and son Harold, and C. J. Schubert of La Crosse, Wis., John Champion, Texas City, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Trude and Mr. and Mrs. J. Bishop, of Chicago, were among the week-end guests.

The regular dance will be held Saturday evening. Those formerly held have been very successful.

On Tuesday, Aug. 18th, there will be a Japanese musical tea for the benefit of the local Young Women's Christian Association. Besides music by well known artists there will be a Japanese sketch, "Along the Road to Tokyo," with characteristic songs and dances by Mrs. Michitaro Ougawa. Mrs. Ougawa is known in Highland Park through her appearance at the Oasoli club, and needs no further recommendation to those who have seen her.

Exmoor Club

John Tuttle, L. E. Hart, W. M. Plant, and George E. Moore tied with a score of 87 in the 18-hole blind bogey or "kickers handicap" on last Saturday afternoon. On Saturday morning, Aug. 15, there will be a mixed foursome at 9 o'clock in which members of a family are eligible, with a special trophy for winners, presented by Mr. Wm. V. O'Brien. Mesdames A. B. McCaughey and Walter E. Carr will be in charge. In the afternoon there will be a 4-ball foursome in an 18 hole medal play handicap; the total score of all four balls to count. A special trophy will be awarded the winners. At 4:30 o'clock there will be an approaching and putting contest with a special trophy. The total score of all three balls to count. Mesdames Faine and C. N. Thomas were in charge of Flag day at Exmoor on last Wednesday, Aug. 12th. Winners in the "match play against bogey," of Wednesday of the previous week played finals on that day. Results will be printed next week.

CLAIMS HE IS PAUPER IS RELEASED

John Murray of Highwood, who recently was indicted on a charge of running a blind pig and who was sentenced to thirty days in jail in addition to a fine of $300 was released from custody Saturday by Judge Persons under the pauper act. Murray had served more than thirty days in jail but pleaded an inability to pay the fine.

Highland Park Residents First

The well known real estate firm of E. P. Maynard & Co. are opening up a new subdivision at the corner of St. Johns and Forest Avenues.

They offer residents of Highland Park a splendid opportunity of securing east side property at a price within the reach of all, $50, enabling one to secure a beautiful wooded lot.

This is a step in the right direction as heretofore the real estate operators have been inclined to hold east side property in large plots which make it impossible for persons of average means to secure home sites especially as the terms are so low.

Mr. Franklin, the manager, will be at the Highland Park Press office on Friday and Monday evenings to give information.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS RE-UNION

Annual Gathering of Lake County Veterans at Waukegan Next Week

The thirty-sixth annual re-union of the soldiers and sailors of Lake County will be held at Waukegan next Wednesday and Thursday. The general program announces a "camp fire" for Wednesday evening, baseball games, dancing, concerts by a brass band and quartette and other amusements. The principal speaker will be Bishop Fallows, Department Commander of Illinois.

Passing of Old Houses.

Riders and walkers through the New England countryside and villages learn to look for the venerable houses, many of them centenarians twice over, which not only distinguish this region, but fit into its landscapes with a suitability which newer buildings somehow lack. As this interest grows the observer begins to notice that they are all too rapidly disappearing to give place to modern houses which are certainly no improvement in workmanship and architectural design, and not necessarily superior in comfort and convenience if the old houses are properly handled. In losing these ancient buildings we are losing not only parcels of history but also a certain style of domestic architecture which is all the more effective by being severely plain.—Boston Transcript.

Cooling Water Without Using Ice.

To cool water without using ice get a slender glass test tube from any drug store. Half fill it with nitrate of ammonia salts, fill up with water, cork tightly. Shake till the salt is dissolved. Be careful to wipe the outside of the tube dry in order that all traces of the nitrate may be removed. Place this tube into a glass of water and agitate as you would a spoon. The water is rapidly chilled. The nitrate of ammonia salts can be bought at any drug store. This is a far better way of cooling water than putting ice in it.—New York World.

The Sweetest Days.

After all, I believe the nicest and sweetest days are not those on which anything very splendid or wonderful or exciting happens, but just those that bring simple little pleasures. Following one another softly, like pearls slipping off a string.—L. M. Montgomery.

When men are rightly occupied their amusement grows out of their work, as the color petals out of their fruit-flower.—John Ruskin.

ELECTRIC LIGHT

THE COOL LIGHT Public Service Company of Northern Illinois

Writes About Highwood Paving

Mr. E. M. Laing having had the contract of paving Highwood Avenue and High Street has completed his contract and the same has been accepted by the Board of Local Improvements. The city has had an inspector on the work continuously during its progress, an engineer of Mr. Anderson's office, also the Universal Cement Company had an expert on hand while all cement was being mixed.

The ordinance for the Waukegan Avenue brick pavement was passed by the City Council again, having lost in the Court about a month ago on some small technicality in the specifications of the ordinance, the objectors were mostly out of town property owners but one, being the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railroad Company Mr. Otto R. Hanson of Milwaukee, Wis. and Rudolph of Chicago, Mr. Sidney Mandel of Chicago and Mr. W. F. Hogan of Highwood.

All the property owners living on the street are all in favor of paving the street as it will improve the property values. As it is now, it is either very dusty or very muddy having been left in a very bad condition by the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Company at the time they removed their tracks from said street as before it was a good macadamized street.

The ordinance for the Concrete pavement of Washington Avenue was also passed by the City Council before was the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railroad Company all of the property owners seemingly for paving the street, this ordinance did not stand trial before it being dismissed in court by the City Attorney Mr. O. S. Gooch is having the same technicality in the specifications of the ordinance as the Waukegan Avenue Ordinance.

The city officials and a large majority of the property owners of both of these streets think that these improvements are very badly needed and will be urged in court for confirmation.

"Highwood"

ENLIVENED THE PLAY. Sentiment and Impromptu Humor at a Moving Picture Show.

"Where we went last night," said a frequenter of moving picture shows, "there was a scene in one of the films showing a man and a girl, young lovers, kissing. She was a pretty girl and he was a fine, manly, young fellow, and of course everybody was deeply interested in the picture. But at the precise instant that the lovers' lips met some man in the audience exploded with a gigantic sneeze, whereat the whole house blew up with spontaneous hilarious laughter.

"In this picture scene there was a third figure, that of a man who had seen the lovers meeting and who when he saw them kiss turned away from them to smile. He was, to be sure, smiling over the lovers; but as he looked out on the house at that moment with that smile on his face he seemed like a real man smiling in appreciative understanding of what had just happened in the audience. At the sight of his smiling face the audience again blew up. But, of course, the pictures kept on moving all the time, and in half a minute the audience had once more settled down to look on again at the pictures in the usual quiet."—New York Sun.

She Carried It. Miss Leigh-I admire your efforts so much, Mr. Dauber. I sincerely wish I could carry some of your brilliant coloring away with me. Mr. Dauber-I think you will today, madam. You're sitting on my newly made up palette!—London Telegraph.

CRUSHING THE KAFFIRS.

Treated Like Slaves, Even by White Children in South Africa.

In "The Heat South Africa" the author, Ambrose Pratt, says that the Kaffirs are not only enslaved by the Boers, but it would seem also by the other whites, who ought to know better. The white children born in South Africa acquire incurable habits of pride and indolence before they reach their teens. Their manners are haughty and overbearing.

"The first day I landed in South Africa I witnessed a small incident that will tell its own story. Strolling through the city of Durban in the early morning I saw a great hulking Kaffir carrying a bundle of papers to the door of a news agency, where a little boy about ten years of age was waiting to receive them. The Kaffir very respectfully placed the bundle on the steps at the child's feet and moved away. He was immediately recalled and most imperiously, "You cheeky devil!" shrieked the child. "How dare you leave the papers there! Take the bundle into the shop at once and give it to me!" The Kaffir silently and humbly obeyed.

"Now sort the papers!" ordered the child. "Again the Kaffir obeyed. When his task was completed the little boy contemptuously pointed to the door. "Get out!" he said. "The Kaffir inclined reverently and backed out of the shop as though taking leave of royalty. The child did not even smile. The steer on his face was fixed."

PITY THE POOR LIONS.

Hunters in Africa Actually Kick the Brutes Out of Their Way.

A globe trotter and a hunter, by name Percy Stanhope, is an Englishman who may or may not have a sense of humor. Here is what he said in New York recently about lion hunting in Africa:

"You hear them talk of lion hunting in Africa as though it were the king of sports. It's a beastly shame the way they treat the poor beasts. Why, when I was out in British East Africa two years ago there was a movement on foot to punish lion hunters for cruelty to animals. In fact, they were seriously taking up the question with the home government.

"The lives of the poor lions are being made a burden to them. I can remember when the lions would come in out of the jungle and sit on the platform of the railway stations, and some of those cruel Englishmen actually booted the beasts out of the way. Think of it, the cruelty of it all! "There being no force available, the sportsmen out in those parts have a habit of stirring up a lion and pursuing the poor beast with whoops and yells until it drops dead of exhaustion and actual fright. The poor beasts have been so terrorized that when they see a white man they whimper from fright. This fear shortens the life of the lion, and unless drastic steps are taken to put a stop to the cruelty there won't be any of the animals left in Africa."—New York World.

Fear is Useless.

Phobias is an addition to fear (another name for worry). If sluggishness be unlovely from a social point of view phobias is fatal to its victim. Did it ever occur to you that fear was once a habit and a luxury, just as smoking is? But phobias is the more insidious. We fear poverty, we fear disease, we fear death, we fear that we shall be snubbed socially. And each separate fear impairs our capacity for work in a definite, measurable way. I know many people addicted to the use of fear. Some of them use it to excess. To the psychologist fear is the most expensive of all habits that people indulge. Ninety-nine and forty-four one-hundredths per cent of fear is as useless as a deckhand on a submarine.—Elliott Park Frost in Atlantic.
