Raynia Park was an unusual scene of gayety and frolic on last Thursday afternoon when several hundred youngsters from the North Shore towns from Waukegan to Rogers Park inclusive, participated in the annual children's carnival. It was truly a beautiful affair and very successful in spite of the threatening weather. The boys and girls ranging in sizes and ages were donned in various costumes, making the effect most pleasing to witness. Among the paraders was a group of funny clowns led by Miss Laura Kennedy; Indians, gypsies, wild beasts, teddy bears, bare back riders, gay little butterflies, jugglers and acrobats.

The program which followed directly after the parade around the campus consisted of a medley of dances and acrobatic stunts held in the pavilion at 2 o'clock; the front seats being reserved for the marchers. The Allendale and Glenwood school bands furnished the music. These were led by Miss Rowena Bastin and Miss Edith Lobdell. Following in the line of march were children from Raynia, Highland Park, Lake Forest, Lake Bluff, Waukegan, Libertyville, Rogers Park, Evanston, Wilmette, Kenilworth, Hubbard Woods, and Winnetka. The line formed at one o'clock at the pavilion. Mrs. Edwin Lobdell was general chairman of the carnival. She was assisted by a representative chairman from each of the North Shore suburbs. A pleasing program is planned for the children this afternoon at 2:15 in the pavilion in which Miss Edith Fenner will sing and recite children's songs, and Miss Evelyn Isom will do interpretive dancing. A special feature in the theatre today will be a moving picture film of the children's carnival of last Thursday. It will be exhibited in conjunction with the regular motion picture performance.

Those who were present, (notwithstanding the heat) at the Japanese Musical Tea for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. at Highland Hall on Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 17th, felt more than repaid. A most delightful program of musical numbers was given by well known artists, all of whom are members of Mrs. B. E. Schwalbe's household at Highland Hall. It was through her kindness and courtesy that this entertainment was given and enough cannot be said of the deep appreciation on the part of the Y. W. C. A. members for this extreme kindness. A sincere vote of thanks is extended to the artists, who, being very busy people, lent their services so generously to the cause. The program opened with piano selections by Mr. Leo Sowerby followed by a contralto solo by Miss Latham; Miss Elsie Schendt rendered a mandolin solo; Miss Ivy Scott sang several delightful soprano solos; Miss Lena Mason sang the Aira from "Il Trovatore"; trio for piano, violin and violoncello by Messrs. Leo Sowerby, Hermann Felber, Jr., and Hermann Felber, Sr., was thoroughly enjoyed by the music lovers. Mr. Felber, Jr., played as violin solos, "Meditation from This," by Massenet and "Der Zephyr," by Hubay. Delicious punch was served between the first and second half of the program at five cents a glass. A beautiful and artistic Japanese musical sketch entitled, "An Afternoon in Japan" was given by Mrs. Michitaro Ongawa with Miss Helen Victoria Ryan at the piano. Mrs. Ongawa, in Japanese attire, revealed much of the life of a girl in Japan with her enticing little Japanese songs, dances and legends. Some of the songs were sung in the native tongue of that country. The room was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns and wisteria. Candy and handpainted programs were sold by the camp fire girls in costume.
