BASE BALL

The Crescents threatened to stir up matters in the ninth, but their efforts produced only two runs. Cassell walked. Potter popped to Reed. W. Kerwin atrolled. Richards singled to left and Cassell slid home safe, Kerwin taking third and Richards second on the throw. W. Kerwin scored and Richards bled to third on F. Kerwin's infield out. Cronin walked and stole second. Harley closed the belated rally by whiffing.

Next Sunday the big doings shift to Crescents Park. The fact that the Regulars cooped the first game of the series by no means makes the west siders sure-thing repeaters next Sunday. The game ought to be a real battle regardless of which club is returned the winner.
