THE WORLD'S GREAT BANKS.

Only Sixty-one Have Deposits Over a Hundred Million Dollars. For years the mere name of the Bank of England has been a synonym for financial strength and greatness. In a list of the great banks of the world the Bank of England is sixth.

In Doubt. The Banks' maid of all work was a practical young woman of about twenty-seven years. One day when her mistress was making some plans for the future the matter of fact Sereida said: "I don't know, ma'am. It might be that I won't be with you much longer, an' then mebbe I will. I ain't sure yet."

Knowing that a young man had called a good many times to see Sereida, her mistress said: "Are you thinking of getting married, Sereida?" "Without the least show of embarrassment or enthusiasm Sereida said: "Well, yes, to tell the truth, I am. Then again I don't know if I will. I've got a good place here with good pay, and he's such a fool, mebbe I'll stay on with you!"—New York Post.

Complimentary. Gebhard von Blucher, the famous Prussian general field-marshal, had as surgeon major of his army a man who was very homely, but extremely proud and vain.

One day, says Novellen-Schatz, Blucher entered the surgeon's tent and found him standing before a looking glass, arranging his toilet and admiring himself generally. "Doctor," said Blucher, laughing, "I suppose that you are the incklest man in the world."

A Blanket Injunction. "Say, you're a lawyer. Can you tell me how to get out a blanket injunction?" "A blanket injunction?" "Yes. My wife will insist on buying cheap ones at bargain sales."—Baltimore American.

An Eye Opener. "Eight o'clock," exclaimed a guest at a hotel, yawning, "and I'm so sleepy I can scarcely open my eyes!" "Shall I bring your bill, sir?" inquired a waiter.

Then She Might Help. Madge—Would you marry a spendthrift, my dear? Marjorie—It wouldn't be so bad if he were just starting out on his career.—London Telegraph.
