Highland Park Woman's Club

The program on Tuesday was indeed a very delightful one. Miss Marion Mason sang beautifully a number of songs, namely, "Melisande in the Woods" by Alma Goto, "The Sleep That Rests on Baby's Eyes" by John Alden Carpenter, and "The Awakening" by Mrs. A. O. Mason. Miss Mason was accompanied on the piano by her mother, Mrs. A. O. Mason. Following the musical numbers, Mrs. Harper of Seattle, Washington, chairman of the council board meeting of the general Federation, announced that the council meeting of General Federation will be held in Portland, Oregon, in June, 1915. The council board meetings are held the alternate year of the Biennial Convention. Then followed a lecture by Prof. Maria L. Sanford of the University of Minnesota. Prof. Sanford chose as her subject "The Influence of Good Art and Literature Upon Character." She brought out the fact very strongly of the great need of instruction of the best music, art and literature in the schools, and she also stated that the best literature and art of any age is handed down and preserved for the coming generations, and that the people were great in any period of history is shown in art and literature of that age. She recited several verses from Whittier, Lowell, Longfellow and Mrs. Browning. At the close of her address she recited most delightfully "The Broomstick Train" by Oliver Wendell Holmes. The hostesses of the day were Mrs. Lamborn, chairman, assisted by Mrs. E. B. Metzler, Mrs. Faxon, Mrs. Edward Laing, Mrs. Chas. Harbaugh, Mrs. Lloyd Bergen and Miss Mildred Coale.

A charity card party will be given by the Woman's Club under the auspices of the Philanthropy and Civics Committees on Wednesday, November eleventh at two-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Oliver, 453 No. Sheridan Road. Tickets can be had from any member of these two committees at fifty cents each. The chairmen are Mrs. Frederick Schaefer and Mrs. Maud Shannon.
