A prize was offered for the one who displayed the most originality in making their costume, the prize, a box of candy was awarded to Naomi Olmstead. A second prize for the most grotesque costume was awarded to Henrietta Shreve. A regulation Halloween supper was served followed by dancing.

Saturday night the Chippewa Camp Fire group gave a party, they too came masked and gaily dressed. Supper was served at 5:30 and the table fairly groaned with good things to eat. A prize was awarded to Elsie Blomdahl, who represented a black cat, her costume being the most original. Dancing and an organized play with a trip around town completed a very pleasant evening's diversion.

The Y. W. C. A. headquarters have been the recipient of some very useful and ornamental gifts during the past week for which due appreciation is given.

Trinity Church Notes

A "Mission," using the word in its sense, is "a course of special services held for the purpose of quickening believers and converting unbelievers." It is a kin to the old fashioned protestant revivals, but in the Anglican churches it is without the sensational features which have brought revivals into disrepute, and is an appeal to the conscience and reason rather than to excited emotions.

The Mission which is to begin in Trinity Church on Sunday morning, November 15th, has for its purpose the reviving of personal religion. The emphasis will be placed upon religious duties and spiritual truths, things which are apt to be neglected and overlooked in these days that are so crowded with external activities, but which nevertheless, are the really important concerns of our lives. The invitation that is extended is to come apart and rest awhile and consider the great spiritual realities.

The services in addition to those usual on Sunday, will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 o'clock every morning, a conference on personal religion each morning at 10 o'clock, at which questions may be asked and answered, a brief informal service each evening at 8 o'clock and meetings especially for children on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons at 4 o'clock, there will also be a special Sunday evening service at 8 o'clock on November 15.

Everyone will be welcomed to these services and it is hoped that they may be a help to many in our community who are not in any way associated with the Episcopal Church. The purpose is not to make people Episcopalians but to make them better Christians and better neighbors. Ecclesiastical controversies will be carefully avoided.

The Rev. Dr. Herman Page, who is to conduct the Mission is well known to many of our people, having been rector of St. Paul's Church, Chicago for the past fourteen years. He is a man of deep religious convictions and wide experience and broad sympathies, a man whose teaching has always been distinguished by its wisdom, its sanity and its wholesomeness.

At Elm Place School

The first meeting of the Elm Place Division of the Parents and Teachers' Association will meet in the school auditorium at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 18. Miss Martin, head of the kindergarten department of the University of Chicago, is to speak.

There was a reception to the new teachers on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the school auditorium. The program which was very interesting and pretty was as follows: Mr. Carl H. Booth, who sang, "Love the Pedlar," and as an encore "The Four Leaf Clover," Miss Laura K. Kennedy, who gave a reading "The Bride's First Visit to the Butcher Shop," and as an encore "The Sociable Seamstress." After the program followed the reception for the purpose of everyone to meet the teachers and parents, and also Miss Helen A. Young, the new visiting nurse. Many thanks are due Mr. Fritz Bahr for the beautiful roses which he so generously sent over for the ladies; also for the palms which helped to make the hall very pretty. Mrs. Thomas Clements was chairman of the meeting.

High School Notes

The football team will play Riverside High School Saturday afternoon on the school field at 2:45.

Mr. Sandwick has begun a series of talks given weekly in General Assembly, "How to Study," these talks are of great benefit to the students.

Many thanks are due the Misses Stuart for the help and suggestion given for the Senior party Friday evening at the High School.

Last year and also this year Mr. Sandwick has devised an interesting scheme of publishing in the school, the work accomplished by the different sessions. The result of the last months work is Miss Noyes' session received the greatest number of "excellents," Miss Marks' session the fewest failures, and Mr. McLajra's session the best attendance. Much interest and competition is shown in this work.

Last Thursday, Mr. Ralph Perrine's American History class observed Registration Day and on Tuesday, a regular election was held, the booths, three in number, were placed in the main corridor. The regular county ballot was used, having been obtained from Mr. Lew A. Hendee of Waukegan, the girls used the same ballot as the boys. The judges of election were: Clayton Yonker, Evelyn Taylor, and Earl Ritta; clerk, Paul Barker. The result of the "straw vote" was in favor of the Progressive Party, with the exception of J. H. Harnly, who lost to T. Arthur Simpson for County Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. George Baldwin of the class of 1914 is a freshman at Cornell University and has become an active member of the freshman football team, which recently played Hotchkiss school in Connecticut. Although Cornell lost the game it afforded the team a chance for a nice trip.
