REAL SATISFACTION

You must use Nu-Finish to have real dusting satisfaction.
You cannot get Nu-Finish results without Nu-Finish.
Every user becomes an enthusiast. A trial will convince you it has no equal.

NU-FINISH is a marvelous dustingcleaning, polishing liquid. With it you just dust in the usual way—but what a difference!
No dust flying in the room to settle down again. Every spot is taken up and taken out—just as if it were not there.
No extra work, your furniture, woodwork and hardwood floors are cleaned and polished. Try a 25c bottle.

Y. W. C. A. News

Saturday evening, Miss Joanna Zumpf gave a party to her friends in the Association rooms in honor of her eighteenth birthday. Dancing and games occupied the evening and all enjoyed the time very much. Many tokens of appreciation were left as reminders of Joanna's birthday. Cake and ice cream were served.

A story telling hour has been added to the domestic science club on Wednesday evening, three numbers being on the program each evening.

The Blue Eagle and Chippewa Camp Fire groups are practicing "The Pilgrim," a Thanksgiving play to be given Tuesday evening, Nov. 24th, in the Association rooms, at which time the mothers of the girls will be the guests of honor.

Miss Elizabeth Gill, National Secretary for County work, will be the guest of the Association the last of the week and will conduct the Vesper service Sunday, Nov.
22nd. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present whether members or not. Come and hear what the Y. W. C.
A.'s are doing all over the land. Special music will be provided.

High School Notes

Saturday evening there will be a football banquet in the lunch room at seven o'clock for all the former and present football men of the high school. It is hoped that all the men will turn out since there is to be a fine dinner served at the moderate price of sixty-five cents per plate.

Reverend Dr. Herman Page, who is conducting a series of meetings at the Trinity Church, spoke in general assembly Tuesday morning. His talk on "Fellowship and Cooperation in all branches of life," was extremely interesting and very much appreciated.

Friday morning at 8:45 o'clock, there is to be quite an interesting general assembly at which time Madame Rosika Schwimmer of Buda Pest and London, will speak to the students. Madame Schwimmer, who is an author and contributor to Suffrage magazines, is the guest of Miss Jane Addams of Chicago, and is going to speak at Fullerton Hall this evening. Through the personal acquaintance of Miss Grandy and Madame Schwimmer, the high school has been fortunate enough to procure this famous speaker, who was sent from the women's organizations of all Europe, to interview President Wilson on the Mediation plan.

Presbyterian Church Notes

Thanksgiving service will be observed by the Presbyterian Church Thankgiving morning from ten to eleven at which time the Pastor will preach a Thankgiving sermon and the choir will render special Thankgiving music. The service will be in the auditorium of the church, closing in ample time to permit those so desiring to meet the 11:22 train. This Thanksgiving service is one of the annual events of this church and should prove especially attractive this year because as a nation we have special reason for thanksgiving because of the continuance of our national peace. In response to the call of our President and in accordance with the time honored custom of our fathers, it is hoped that the service on Thursday morning will appeal in a special way to the citizens of Highland Park. The service will be brief and will be of interest to all.

At the close of the Church and City Week conducted by the Church Extension Board of the Presbytery of Chicago, Dr.
Edgar P. Hill, the Superintendent of the work, will assist the pastor in the local service next Sunday morning and speak about the work as being carried on in Chicago. Dr. Hill, who was with us in our dedicatory services is always a welcome speaker in the local church.

At Elm Place School

There was a meeting of the General Parents-Teachers Association, at Elm Place School auditorium, Monday evening at eight o'clock. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Gordon Buchanan who is the chairman of the Association. The program was songs by Mrs. C. G. Alexander, who sang "The Day is Done" by, Margaret Lang; "Gardian Angel", by Lisa Lehman, and "Mad Cat Marjorie" by Fredrick Norton. Mr. Ralph Dennis of the Northwestern University School of Oratory read selection from Kipling, and Mr. Charles Weeks sang a group of songs.

After the program followed refreshments and a short reception.

A meeting was held Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, at which time Miss Catherine Martin, one of the heads of the Kindergarten Department of the Chicago University gave a "Kindergarten Talk".

Highland Park Woman's Club

The next meeting of the club will be held in the Sunday school room of the Presbyterian Church Tuesday, Nov. 24th, at 2:30 o'clock. The day is in charge of Mrs. B. A. Fessenden. Her subject will be "The American Woman of Day Before Yesterday, Yesterday and Today."
