

Men, a Special Offer on Dry Cleaning and Pressing Suits

Next week we will dry clean and press men's suits at a specially reduced price—$1. Don't neglect this opportunity—

To save money,
To see for yourself how vastly superior dry cleaning is to sponging,
To compare our dry cleaning and pressing with that of others.
We want you to test our thoroughness.
Let's have your best "Sunday go-to-meeting" suit. We delight in particular work.
Or let's have a soiled suit that you have given up as hopeless; we'll clean it, purify it, put new life into it, make it fit to wear.
Phone and a wagon will call, or leave suits at our town office, 124 East Central Ave.
Ask for special rates on doing your work regularly.

The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Evans, 14 S. First St., announce the marriage of their daughter, Alice Irene Evans to Harold Otis Larsen, who is a Northwestern man, and is associated with relatives in the Larsen Canning Company in Green Bay, Wis. The ceremony took place Thursday evening, November twenty-sixth at seven o'clock in the Baptist Church of this city. Dr. Herbert Francis Evans, brother of the bride, was the officiating minister. The church was wonderfully beautifully with banks of palms and ferns and chrysanthemums. Mr. Wycott of Evanston and Mrs. Mabel Sharp Herdian of Chicago created a beautiful musical setting for the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white bridal satin trimmed in Princess lace and pearls, made with a court train and wore a tulle veil which was gracefully draped in hood form, trimmed in pearls and lace. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Emma Evans, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of yellow taffeta trimmed in Chantille lace and rose buds, with a lovely cascade bow for the sash, and carried yellow chrysanthemums, while Webster Larsen, a brother of the groom, acted as bestman. The bridesmaids, Misses Irene Campbell of Austin, Hazel Bailey of Anna, Ill., Frances Larsen of Evanston, and Liela Hyson of Columbus, Ohio, all wore satin gowns of pink, lavender, blue and green, carrying chrysanthemums of the colors of their gowns, bringing out the rainbow effect. The little flower girl, Irene Stevens, a niece of the bride, wore a little dress of white net, trimmed in pink satin and little pink rose buds and carried a basket of pink roses. The ushers were: Messrs. Lawrence Larsen, Warren and Donald Larsen of Green Bay, Wis. Arthur Evans and Ralph Dobson of Chicago. The bridegroom gift to the bride was a lovely rope string of pearls with a rhyne stone clasp. After the ceremony a reception followed at the home of the brides parents. The out of town guests were: Mr. Arthur H. Ranous, Mr. and Mrs. Otis R. Larsen, and Miss Pearl Ranous of Evanston, Mr. and Mrs. Herdian, L. C. Dobson, Miss Bertha M. Outzen, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Shatuck, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Browne, and Miss Ruth Sharp, of Chicago, Dr. John A. Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Campbell of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh of Glenocoe, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Larsen, Miss Marie Larsen, and Messrs. Warren and Donald Larsen, all of Green Bay, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen left among showers of confetti for a short honeymoon trip after which they will be at home after January fifteenth at 222 Oxford Ave., Green Bay, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feulner of Highland Park were host and hostess at a Harvest party on Saturday. There were about forty guests present including friends from Evanston and Chicago. Dancing was the feature of the evening, the house being beautifully decorated in corn stalks and pumpkins and colored lights.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arnsward of West Laurel Ave., were host and hostess at a dinner on Sunday celebrating the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Garling, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnsward.

Mr. Archibald Abercromby was host on Saturday night to a party of friends from Chicago, who came to surprise him in memory of his birthday anniversary. There were twenty guests present. Games and music passed the evening hours most pleasantly. Delicious refreshments were served.

Deerfield News Items

Miss Bonnie M. Benton of Chicago gave a most interesting and instructive lecture on Yellowstone Park in the Deerfield Grammar school assembly hall Friday evening. Miss Benton has a fine collection of colored slides and one reel of motion pictures to illustrate her travel talk, which was delivered in an easy conversational manner. The delight of this most wonderful park in the world, were brought to her audience in a realistic and vivid way. A comic movie reel entitled "That's fair enough," completed the program.

The first church to avail itself of the opportunity to use the assembly hall of the grammar school will be the Presbyterian. The Dorcas Society will hold a Christmas sale and a supper Thursday evening, Dec. 10th. The evening meal will be served from 5:30 until 8 o'clock and an excellent one is promised.

There can be no doubt that a great deal of good has been accomplished for Deerfield by the religious campaign in progress here. The most skeptical person will scarcely attempt to deny a fact universally known that the communities whose churches are most thoroughly alive are the most desirable for residence purposes, and that the churchless community is the lawless and undesirable location. The pastors who assisted in the meetings were Mr. Meyer of Simmerton, Mr. Johnson of Indiana, Mr. Woodley of Chatsworth, Mr. Elmer Gieser of Highland Park, and Mr. Creswell of the Presbyterian church preached Sunday evening. Miss Wiess of Reddick, Ill., had charge of the children's meeting.

Mr. Ralph Peterson entertained a number of friends at a rook party Thursday evening.

Mrs. John Whiting of Winnipeg, Can., is the guest of her son, Mr. Wm. A. Whiting. Mrs. Whiting is on her way to Detroit.

Messrs. Alvin Meyer and Irwin Plagge who are attending college at Urbana, spent Thanksgiving with their parents.

The Butterfly club met at the home of Miss Clara Pyle Tuesday evening.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Huehl Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerr and Mr. Wm. Hellman of Waukegan were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peterson Thanksgiving.

The Altar and Rosary Society of the Holy Cross church will meet at the residence of Mrs. W. Steffis Wednesday afternoon.

The Misses Liela Glynh and Ileen Kent spent Thanksgiving at their home in Wauconda.

The Misses Loretta and Ruth Kress, Clara Pyle, and Elda Hornberger attended an entertainment at Josephium auditorium Friday evening.

Mrs. Sarah Adams and her grandchild, Lois Adams were the guests of Mrs. Fred Kimbark of Ravenswood over Thanksgiving.

Miss Mary Dunn and Mr. Wm. Harding of Lake Forest were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gunkel.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Galloway announce the birth of a girl, born Thursday, Nov. 26th.

A family reunion dinner was celebrated at the home of Mrs. L. P. Todd Thanksgiving day. John Woodman, Jr. and Marley Kist remained over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wolf were the guests of Mrs. Raps of Chicago Thursday.

Miss Loretta Kress entertained the Tattling club Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Hildenbrand and family were the week-end guests of Mrs. Hildenbrand's sister of Chicago.

Miss Christine McMahan was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. McMahan of Waukegan.

Miss Edith Stryker of Chicago and Miss Wiess of Reddick, Ill., were the guests of Mrs. John A. Stryker Sunday.

The next meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Deerfield will be held in the school hall Friday, December 4th. Mr. Spencer Smith of Chicago will talk on "The Vocational Ideal, A Cog or a Man." A most interesting subject at this time when vocational training as a part of our public school system is under consideration. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this lecture and to help make pleasant the social hour following.
