The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

A marriage of interest to many Highland Parkers is that announced by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Smith of Colorado Springs, Colorado, of their daughter, Miss Gladys Mary Hemmingway Smith to Harry Obee Bock of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly of this city. The ceremony took place Saturday, November twenty-eight in St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Los Angeles.

Eighty guests enjoyed a most delightful party New Years Eve at the home of Mr. Walter C. Hatley of Beach St. The house was beautifully decorated in poinsettias pink roses, and greens; a beautiful bunch of violets was given to each lady. The feature of the evening's entertainment was accomplished by the Misses Dorothy, Rosalind, and Cynthia Fuller, of Dorset England who sang very pretty and catchy English and Scottish ballads. The song which seemed to create the most pleasure on the part of their listeners, was "Roman Soldiers", a children's song from Kent. The Misses Dorothy and Rosalind sang it, accompanied by Miss Cynthia on her harp. The second part of the program was the singing of "Tipperary" by the guests. Miss Victoria Pownall at the piano. The verses were sung by, Mesdames, O. L. Mills, W. A. Alexander, C. G. Alexander, George R. Nichols, and Miss Marion Mason. After which a very clever parody on Tipperary. "It's a short way to Walter Hatley's", was sung several times, with much fervor and very much enjoyed by the host, Mr. Hatley. Supper was served a few minutes before midnight and at the stroke of twelve, the company sang "Auld Lang Syne."

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Goodnow of S. Green Bay Rd., were host and hostess at a dinner party New Year's eve for twenty-four guests in honor of Mr. Albert Goodnow, their son, and Miss Susan Newell of Evanston. There were a large number of out-of-town guests present. The house decorations were pink roses.

Mrs. H. M. Bacon of N. Sheridan Rd., was hostess at a vaudeville tea New Year's day for about fifty of the young people. The entertainment which consisted of "stunts" by the guests, included a very interesting "watch talk" by Colin Sanborn, a clever slight-of-hand performance by Evelyn Taylor, dialogue by Leslie Schaffler and Gray Stubbs, entitled "The Origin of our Flag." Mrs. Bacon read "Excelsior," in a very melodramatic way which pleased all. Several other stunts were "pulled off" which were clever and interesting. Delicious refreshments were served after which the young people enjoyed dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Baker and family of N. St. Johns Ave., entertained eight out-of-town guests at a chafing dish supper Sunday evening.

Mr. Alfred Olsen of Moraine Rd., was host New Year's eve to a party of forty guests. Games and dancing were features of the entertainment.

Mrs. Mather Smith has cards out for a musicale to be given at her home Monday afternoon, January eleventh. The hostesses for the affair are Mesdames John Grenville Mott, John Irwin Marshall, J. F. L. Curtis, Edward H. Raymond, H. W. Boyd, G. V. Dickinson, E. B. Metzler, F. Ward Wood, Walter Wardrop, H. Frederick Raff, H. D. Faxon, and the Misses Valencia Rafferty and Genevieve Mott.

Mrs. Joseph Schoeninger of Wade St., will be hostess to twelve out-of-town guests at a luncheon and card party on Wednesday.

The O. H. B.'s of the First United Evangelical Church gave a sleigh ride party on Tuesday night. The party started from the H. Glow residence on S. Second St., and drove to the R. Tillman farm where delicious oyster stew awaited them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roth entertained seventeen guests at dinner at their home on N. Second St., New Year's day.

The Baracca class of the First United Evangelical Church entertained the various church societies at a delightful New Year's party last Thursday evening. There were about sixty guests present.
