REAL SATISFACTION

You must use Nu-Finish to have real dusting satisfaction. You cannot get Nu-Finish results without Nu-Finish. Every user becomes an enthusiast. A trial will convince you it has no equal.

NU-FINISH

is a marvelous dusting-cleaning-polishing liquid. With it you just dust in the usual way—but what a difference! No dust flying in the room to settle down again. Every speck is taken up and taken out—not just stirred up. And, at the same time, with no extra work, your furniture, woodwork and hardwood floors are cleaned and polished. Try a 25c bottle.

Highland Park Woman's Club

The Woman's Club met at two thirty in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church Tuesday afternoon. The speakers of the day were Mrs. Benjamin E. Page who spoke on "What the State Federation is asking of the Legislature", and Miss Elsa Wertheim of Chicago, who spoke on "The Consumer's League", both of which were very instructive and much liked by all. Mrs. W. J. Fyffe also had a paper on "The Tenth District Federation." A short business meeting preceded the program. The next meeting of the club will be an open meeting at the Trinity Parish House January twenty-sixth in the evening. The hostesses of the day were Mesdames George Bird, Otis Beardsley, N. A. Aldridge, L. Buck, Ernest Gail, Alex McDougall, John Oliver, Samuel Parliament, Orren Peabody, T. C. Williams, and Louis A. Pease.

Highland Park Club

The David Copperfield motion pictures at the club house Tuesday evening were very good and served to amuse and instruct a good sized company of spectators. This film was preceded by a reel of pictures illustrating George Ade's "Fable proving that Spongers are found in a drug store," which was extremely funny and very much appreciated.

Announcement is made of the dinner-dance for January twenty-third; reservations must be made as early as possible.

On Thursday evening, January twenty-first at eight fifteen, Mr. Percy Eckhart will give a stereopticon lecture on "Here and There in Sunny Italy," assisted by Mr. Worth Falkner in a group of songs. The entertainment is in charge of the Ossoli Club.

On Friday evening, January twenty-second, a three reel motion picture of Alaska will be shown. These pictures are one of the few scientific scenic and educational pictures of the present day.

Ravinia Village House

Mr. William L. Tomlius, well known to all Chicagoans through the wonderful singing of the children's chorus at the World's Fair and through his long service as conductor of the Apollo Club, will speak at the Ravinia Village House Monday evening, January eighteenth at eight o'clock. This is a free lecture under the auspices of the Educational committee of the Woman's Civic Club of Ravinia which extends a cordial invitation to be present to all who are interested in music as an important factor in our educational and social life.

Obituary

Charles L. Harder, Sr., died at his home on Wisconsin Ave., Lake Forest Monday morning of heart disease, at the age of sixty years. He was born in Germany in 1854 and came to this country at the age of fifteen years. He has been a good, loyal citizen of Lake Forest since 1869, when he came to that city to reside, making him a resident there for forty-five years. He was a member of A. O. Fay Masonic Lodge, of this city, Oriental Consistory of Chicago and many other fraternal organizations. Funeral services were held yesterday, Wednesday at three o'clock at his late residence. Rev. Dr. McClure read the service. Interment was in Lake Forest. He leaves to survive him a wife and one son, Charles L. Harder, Jr.

Mrs. Mary Walker Dyer, widow of Edwin Dyer, and mother of Mrs. W. W. Flinn, of E. Central Ave., passed away at her residence, 334 E. Central Ave., Tuesday forenoon. Mrs. Dyer was born in Stoneham, Mass., November 1st, 1828. She was married to Edwin Dyer of Boston in 1848 and lived in East Boston until their removal to Highland Park in 1877. Mrs. Dyer was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was very active until shut in by feeble health. She is survived by one son, Mr. George Dyer, and one daughter, Mrs. W. W. Flinn, and six grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at the residence at 334 E. Central Ave. this afternoon at two o'clock; burial in the family lot in Lake Forest.

Mrs. Mamie Richardson, daughter of Mrs. Guron of Highwood, died on Thursday, January seventh, after an illness of but a few days of a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at St. James Catholic church. Rev. Father Kirkfleet of Sacred Heart Academy, officiated in the absence of Father Gates. Interment was in Fort Sheridan. She leaves to survive her a husband and one 16-month-old son, Leo; a mother, two sisters, Mrs. Zogner of Ft. Thomas, Ky., and Miss Florence Guron and one brother, Leo. Mrs. Richardson was laid to rest beside her father who was buried less than a year ago.
