REAL SATISFACTION

You must use Nu-Finish to have real dusting satisfaction. You cannot get Nu-Finish results without Nu-Finish. Every user becomes an enthusiast. A trial will convince you it has no equal.

NU-FINISH

is a marvelous dusting-cleaning-polishing liquid. With it you just dust in the usual way—but what a difference! No dust flying in the room to settle down again. Every speck is taken up and taken out—not just stirred up. And, at the same time, with no extra work, your furniture, woodwork and hardwood floors are cleaned and polished. Try a 25c bottle.

The Blue Eagle Camp Fire group and their guardian, Miss Marion Craig, gave a sleighing party Friday evening out to the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Edstrand in Deerfield. Hospitality was the keynote of the evening, and all enjoyed the various games and plays. Refreshments of sandwiches, cocoa and eake were served after which a musical program was given. Besides the guardian, the Misses Beasley, Meierhoff and Mrs. C. Boehm and Mrs. Searcy accompanied the merry crowd. The kindness of the host and hostess and the Deerfield people who were present, was very much appreciated by the Camp Fire girls and all look eagerly forward to another invitation to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edstrand.

The Chippewa Camp Fire group with their guardian, Mrs. George Taylor, enjoyed a sleighing party Thursday evening, after which they returned to the Association headquarters and had a merry party. Light refreshments were served and all spent a very pleasant evening.

The second term of the dancing class will begin January 25th. The enrollment so far has exceeded the expectations of the Association but there is always room for more. Miss Humphrey has found it necessary to be in Highland Park, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and is prepared to give private lessons during the day time. Arrangements can be made by telephoning 675.

A boys dancing class will be formed as soon as a possible number can be secured. Boys between the ages of 6 and 12 will be admitted. Miss Humphrey has wonderful boys classes in other places and there is no reason why Highland Park should not have one. Information secured by telephoning the Y. W. C. A. secretary No. 675.

High School Notes

The first game of the basketball season was played at Chicago Heights, between Deerfield and the Bloom Township High school. The result was victory for Deerfield with the score of 26 to 18, the lineup was as follows: Robert Sholz, forward; Joe Lindenmeyer, guard; G. Bolan, guard; W. Fitzgerald, center; H. Maroney, forward; H. Flagg, forward; L. Smith, sub.

The seniors are making great preparations for the big minstrel and vaudeville show which is to be given Friday evening in the school auditorium. The program, which is in part, to be a repetition of the vaudeville show which was given at Halloween time, is as follows: Military March by twelve senior girls; flute solo, Rosika Siljestammer, Reveries of a Bachelor, and Floradora Sextette. It was the intention of the senior class to buy a picture machine for the school, when the purchase was made, the salesman, Mr. William Roberts promised to give a Burton Holmes lecture but failed to do so. The lecture, therefore, was a failure and as a recompense to those who bought tickets, the class has decided to give this very entertaining and novel program.

On Friday afternoon of last week, the Parents and Teachers Association held a very interesting meeting in the school auditorium. The program consisted of a number of songs by the Girls' Glee Club and several vocal selections by Miss Noyes.

Mr. Henry Brown, principal of New Trier High school, lead the discussion on "Modern Movements in High School Education." He spoke on the work of the junior high school in various cities, to relieve the financial embarrassment of grade schools, and to enable certain high school subjects to be studied earlier than the high school age. The meeting was well attended. A social hour followed the discussion.
