ing for a Hindu selling rugs and Wilkerson was shadowing him the new possessor of the idol was hastening to San Francisco to take steamer for India and the city by the river.
The image was concerned with all reverence in his bundle of rugs, and he moved cautiously, because of the dream.
Strange destiny that centered old Tom Gallon's plans for his daughter's happiness. Dorr's dreams of love, Jean Darnell's lust for wealth and Harry Wilkerson's passion for a woman without a heart in the possession of a grotesque image made by a dreamer in faroff India centuries before when a city died and a river waned within its bed.

If you'll stop at Schumachers and hear one record played on the Edison Phonograph, you'll want a machine at once.

EVEN though a house is provided with Electric Light, all the possibilities of the service may not be realized.

There ought to be a push button at the top of the stairs controlling lights in the lower hall. As many lights as desired in any part of the house may be made controllable from a single switch.

There is never a surplus of floor outlets in a house. These sockets facilitate the shifting about of ornamental lamps and fans and likewise electric cooking utensils without putting a light out of commission.

The comparatively new and charming institution, the summer outdoor living room, that is, the porch, should be provided with a ceiling light. Light ornamental lamps are made for the porch tables.

Perhaps an advantageous rearrangement of lights may be made and high power lamps substituted in some rooms and smaller lamps elsewhere.

Closet lights a great convenience. They can be arranged so that the opening and closing of the door lights and extinguishes the lamp.

We shall be glad to advise on these or any of the many other features of Electric Service in the house.

All kinds of electric light wiring done, including the complete wiring of houses. Everything electric sold
