

House Cleaning is Near

It is soon time to begin cleaning house. This advertisement is to remind you that we are ready to clean your blankets, rugs, pillows, window draperies, lace curtains, etc., as we have done in the past.

Remember our phone numbers are 178, 179 & 471

"Trade in Highland Park"

The Reliable Laundry
Highland Park Illinois

We give National Mileage

High Class Launderers and French Dry Cleaners

The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Miss Elizabeth Prindville was hostess Saturday evening at a valentine supper and dance. The affair was given for the members of Miss Clark's dancing class which meets every other Saturday evening in Library hall. Covers were laid for thirty-two guests.

Mrs. Henry Mason was hostess to a few Highland Park and Winnetka ladies of the younger set on Monday at an informal tea in compliment to her sister, Mrs. Marshall Choenthaler formerly of Chicago, who has just moved to Winnetka.

The annual military hop and Washington's birthday party will take place at the Northwestern Military and Naval Academy on Monday evening, February twenty-second in the gymnasium.

A number of friends most pleasantly surprised Mr. James Healer of S. Green Bay Rd. on Thursday evening when they came to celebrate his birthday anniversary. Old fashioned euchre passed the evening hours most pleasantly. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frederick Fisher, Mrs. Mathias C. Conrad, Mrs. John Fisher, Messrs. Aliph and Jack Lavin of Glencoe, and Mr. Mathias C. Conrad.

The Philathea class of the First United Evangelical Church entertained the Baracca class at a valentine party on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Noerenberg of S. Second St. The house was beautifully decorated in red hearts and cupids, in fact every thing in keeping with the day. Red carnations were the prevailing flowers. A jolly good time is reported by all who attended.

Mrs. J. V. Norcross was hostess Friday afternoon at a six table bridge party. Refreshment were served.

Ida May Esmond will be hostess to a number of her little friends on Monday afternoon at a Washington birthday party, and at the same time celebrating her own fifth birthday. Covers will be laid for twenty children.

Mrs. Roger Vail was hostess on Sunday night at a supper party for fourteen guests of the younger set in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Robbins of Rochester, New York.

Mrs. Carleton Vail will be hostess on Wednesday evening of next week for the Bridge Club.

Mrs. Roger Vail was hostess Wednesday afternoon at an informal three table bridge party in compliment to her guest, Miss Elizabeth Robbins of Rochester, New York.

Mrs. Thomas Clements was hostess on Tuesday evening at a dinner party preceding the pre-lenten dance at the Highland Park Club.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Boehm of W. Central Ave., entertained a number of friends at a valentine dinner at five o'clock Sunday. The home was beautifully decorated in narcissus, primroses and hyacinths. Covers were laid for fourteen guests. After dinner the guests all enjoyed, Lillian Russell in "Wildfire" which was shown at the Highland Park theatre.

Mrs. Fred. Greenslade of S. Second St., was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the Euchre club.

The Misses Shields gave an informal dancing party at their home on Prospect Ave. on Monday evening for a number of out of town guests.

On Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Charles Boehm entertained twelve guests at seven-thirty o'clock dinner.

The members of the local chapter of D. A. R. enjoyed a delightful meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. L. Sandwick on E. Central Ave. The subject of the meeting was "Apparel of the Colonial and Revolutionary Period." Miss Valentine Smith of Chicago, a member of the Chicago chapter of the D. A. R., gave a talk in which she urged the people of this chapter to send necessary warm clothing to the active French soldiers in Europe, in memory of what the French government did for this country during the Colonial and Revolutionary periods. Miss Louise Noyes sang a group of songs. After the program refreshments were served.

Mrs. Simeon B. Chittenden of E. Central Ave., was hostess on Tuesday evening at a dinner party for thirteen guests, preceding the pre-lenten dance at the Highland Park Club.

Miss Julia Stipe of S. Green Bay Rd., entertained thirty of her school friends at a valentine party Sunday. The house was artistically decorated in hearts and cupids and for entertainment all sorts of games were played in keeping with the day.

The Moonshine club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Malone on Thursday evening. Cards were the feature of the evening, the prizes of which were awarded for highest score to Mrs. Kelly of Homewood Ave., and Mr. A. Erickson of W. Central Ave., while consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. C. Zwetow and Mrs. J. P. Malone. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reilly were host and hostess at a dinner on Sunday given in compliment to Miss Elsie Leageler and Mr. Hiram Nichols whose engagement was announced during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. William E. Bliesch of Moraine Rd., entertained at afternoon tea Wednesday for twelve ladies.

A number of friends most pleasantly surprised Mr. W. E. Brand of Belle Ave. Tuesday night, the occasion celebrating his birthday anniversary.

The piano recital given by the pupils of Miss Charlotte Brand, Saturday afternoon and evening in Brand's Music Studio, 211 E. Central Ave., was a very delightful affair and very much enjoyed by an enthusiastic audience. The studio was filled to its capacity and all those taking part did unusually well.

The next morning musicale in the series which Miss Priscilla Carver is giving, will be held Tuesday morning, February the twenty-third at ten thirty o'clock. The subject is to be Chopin, and following Miss Carver's paper, a program of his compositions will be given by Mrs. Annette R. Jones, Mrs. Carleton Vail and Miss Carver.

Mrs. Fred. P. Kennedy of Michigan Blvd., Chicago, entertained at a valentine party in honor of Miss Elizabeth Irwin of 222 Maple Ave. Among the guests present from Highland Park were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Ritchie, Miss Hazel Ritchie, and the Misses Irwin. The table was very attractive in red hearts and cupids and much fun was derived from the doll valentines with moving eyes and hands which were loaded with hearts. The evening entertainment was of musical fashion. Miss Ritchie and Mr. Kennedy played several numbers on mandolins with Mrs. Kennedy at the piano. Miss Ethel Underwood, a small guest, danced most gracefully several Mexican and Quaker dances in costumes.

A very interesting meeting of the Westminster Guild was held Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church. The meeting was an open meeting and included all the young women of the church who were interested in the work of the Guild. Luncheon was served at one thirty o'clock to about sixty people. Mrs. A. L. Mills and Mrs. George W. Childs acting as chairmen of the luncheon committee. Following the luncheon a very interesting program was enjoyed; Mrs. C. G. Alexander acting as chairman of the program committee. Miss Helen Mayer accompanied by Mrs. George R. Jones at the piano, played a group of violin solos. Miss Alice McElrath from the high school, gave a very pretty reading. Miss Mildred Thayer, accompanied by Mrs. James Watson, sang a group of songs. After this followed a talk by Mrs. Tyler of Evanston, who spoke on the works and the aim of the Westminster Guild, followed by an address of welcome by Mrs. Carl H. Booth, who is the newly elected president of the Guild.

Mrs. H. L. Burke of Highwood gave a surprise party for her mother, Mrs. A. Pearson in honor of her sixty-sixth birthday on Tuesday evening, February sixteenth. Many guests attended.

The ladies of the Baptist Church were delightfully entertained by Mrs. R. G. Evans last Friday when the afternoon hours were spent in sewing and visiting.

The Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church will give a Washington social Monday evening, February 22nd. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Foster Van Evera entertained nineteen friends of their son, William Van Evera on Tuesday evening at seven o'clock dinner, the occasion celebrating his birthday anniversary. The decorations were carried out in the valentine color scheme of red hearts. Red roses formed the center piece of the attractive table.

Mrs. Louise Osterman of Chicago was the guest of Mrs. E. H. Willman Sunday.

Miss Mildred Whiting entertained a few of her friends at five hundred Saturday in compliment to the Misses Fannie Arthur and Maud Jones of Chicago, who were the week-end guests of Miss Beene Kent.

Miss Beatrice Carr of Libertyville, was the guest of Miss Eleanor Meyer Thursday evening.

Miss Hermina Haunchild will entertain the Mu Sigma Chi at her home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Steffis entertained a number of their friends at a five hundred party Saturday evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Lancaster, Mrs. Geo. McDonald, Mrs. B. H. Kress, Mr. Wm. Whiting, Mr. Lincoln Pettis, and Mr. Arthur Ender.

Wesley Stryker was given a surprise party Tuesday afternoon in honor of his birthday anniversary.

Additional Deerfield on page 5

Deerfield News Items

A large party of the Alumni from the village of Deerfield attended the Alumni dance in the new gymnasium at the Deerfield-Shields High school Friday evening, among these were Misses Christine McMahan, Lela Glynn, Ruth Reichelt, Florence Carolan, Irene Hutchison, Mildred Whiting, Marie, Loretta and Ruth Kress, Messrs. Alvin Knaak, Samuel Hole, Lester Stanger, Robert Antes, Alex Willman, Robert Greenslade, Carl Rommel, and Walter Antes.

Miss Gloria Beecham was on the sick list last week.

"Jumbo Jumb", a comedy, was presented by pupils of the Everett school in connection with the motion pictures at the Deerfield school Friday evening, Feb. 15th. An unusually well trained company of performers under the direction of Miss Marie Kelly gave this clever little playlet. The title role was taken by Joseph Yore. Others who took prominent parts were Coletta Conway, Florence Corcon, Raymond Yore, Joseph Seyl and Mary Sneddon. A large number of the audience were from Everett. Two comedies and a two reel drama were given in moving pictures.

Misses Ellen Shahens and Margaret Kennedy of Lake Forest were the week-end guests of Miss Beatrice Carolan.

Saturday evening, Feb. 27th, a big minstrel show will be given in the assembly hall of the Deerfield school. Reserve the date, for a big treat is in store for all. New songs, stories and personal jokes are expected to keep the audience interested from start to finish.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian Church held an election of officers at their meeting at four o'clock Sunday afternoon with the following results: President, Dorothy Reichelt; vice president, Faith Reichelt; secretary, Leslie Haggie; treasurer, John Carnell; social committee, Ward Reichelt; lookout committee, Raymond Meyer.

Mrs. Franc Hempstead will entertain the Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church at her new home "The Lonesome Pine", on Lincoln Ave., Thursday afternoon.

The Woman's Missionary will give a literary entertainment at the home of Dr. Knaak on Deerfield Ave., Tuesday evening, Feb. 16th. The program is in charge of Mrs. Frank Peterson and Misses Emilie Knaak and Josephine Woodman. Admission ten cents, including refreshments.

Miss Ida Crawford of Castine, Maine, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. E. Moore.

Mrs. Carl Seastrand of Chicago was the guest of Mr. S. D. Nelson Sunday.

Mr. Roy V. Hutchison, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Missouri for the past three months, has located in Tulsa, Okla., where he has accepted a responsible position.

A dancing party was enjoyed by about twenty young and married people at the home of Mr. John C. Ender Monday evening, the occasion being a surprise on Mr. Arthur Ender.

Mrs. Frances Garrity was the week-end guest of Mrs. E. Gerkens of Highland Park.

You'll Want More

after taking the first cup of our Swedish Blend Coffee. It is the kind like mother used to make. If you will do yourself the favor to try a sample pound we know you will never want to be without it afterward. And the price is so very moderate for the excellent quality. 32c per pound

New Method Tea and Coffee Store

EDWARD J. BOCK, Proprietor

Try our New Method Blend 30c Coffee and our Ceylon Tea at 60c per pound

Watch our Show Windows for Lent Specialties

WE DELIVER ANYWHERE

PHONE 169 AT ANYTIME

Bowman Dairy Company

121 Vine Avenue

TELEPHONES: HIGHLAND PARK, 9. GLENCOE, 3

High Cost of Living

Does not apply to Safe Milk. It is the cheapest article of food that you can buy. The Retail Price has not been increased.

Use More Safe Milk

And thereby cut down your living cost

Dairy Inspection
Perfect Pasteurization
Bottling in the Country

These are the three vital points connected with the production of Safe Milk. All our products are safe.

Bowman Dairy Company

THE ERSKINE BANK

is a

GOOD BANK It's Old and Strong

3 per cent interest paid on Savings
Real Estate, Loans and Insurance

Take your pick of these Victor-Victrolas

IV $15 VI $25 VIII $40 IX $50

It isn't necessary for you to have one of the higher-priced Victor-Victrolas to have access to all the wonderful variety of Victor music.

Any instrument from the Victor-Victrola IV to $15 to the $200 Victor-Victrola XVI will play every record in the Victor catalog.

Select the instrument that is best suited to your home and start in to enjoy the music and fun. Come and see us about it today.

Ask us about our Easy Payment Plan

Knaak's Pharmacy

The Rexall Store
Deerfield, Illinois

Automobiles Overhauled and Repaired

WM. J. HENNIG

Mechanic and Repairman

Auto Repairing of all kinds

Overhauling a Specialty Prompt Service
Telephone 835-W 202 W. Vine Ave., Highland Park

Announcement

ALMA PECK
Modiste---Milliner

235 West Vine Ave.

Telephone 405