Ossoli Club

Past presidents day proved to be very interesting on Thursday afternoon of last week, when the Ossoli Club met in the afternoon at the club house. The stage was delightful in blossoms of jonquils, clycamens and hyacinths, the colors of which contrasted wonderfully with the ferns and palms which were cleverly arranged among the flowers. Chairs were set on the stage for those taking part in the program, the ex-presidents of the club. Mrs. Daniel Cobb had charge of the meeting, and was first on the program, her part consisted of a very interesting sketch of her early experiences in Highland Park when the city was then but a village. Some of the first presidents were unable to be present, but messages came from them which were pleasantly read by Mrs. Cobb.

A number of ladies spoke on questions which the club woman always is anxious to hear. The program was preceeded by a group of songs delightfully sung by Mrs. Carleton Vail, accompanied by Mrs. Annette Jones on the piano. After the program delicious refreshments were served.
