The Ford is lighter than any other car of its size and power. Light weight means economy. Economy is gasoline consumption. Economy is tire expense. Economy in repair bill—less than two cents a mile for operation and upkeep. Yet with all its light weight the Ford is the strongest, sturdiest car that is built. It is the longest lasting car. Vanadium steel is responsible for that. "Antifatigue" steel, scientist call it—the strongest, toughest steel put into automobile construction.

Buyers will share in profits if we sell at retail 300,000 new Ford cars between August 1914 and August 1915.

Highland Park Woman's Club

A very large and appreciative audience attended the open meeting of the Highland Park Woman's Club held on Tuesday evening, March 23rd, in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church. The room had a festive appearance, decorated with ferns and flowers, and made a fitting surrounding for the unusual program. The program opened with a word of greeting from the president, Mrs. John A. Putnam. Miss Helen Mayer, accompanied by Miss Priscilla Carver played very interestingly and delightfully, the violin solos, "Berceuse" and "Humoresque" by Aulin, and for an encore the "Viennese Waltz" of Kreisler. Then Miss Mary Agnes Best, better known as Miss "Mollie" Best was introduced. Her first group of stories were about a club of Jewish girls, the "Lilly Langtree Literary Circle," taken from her actual experience and observations on the east side of New York. Miss Best is an inimitable story teller. She has a gift of reproducing her impressions in a vivid way, and her imitations kept her audience in shouts of laughter, although as Professor William James has aptly said, "her stories are not 'comic' in the usual meaning of the word, although a laugh always ensues. But it is a laugh at the unexpected turns with which truth comes in." Her true stories of real people are well known in the various magazines. Miss Carver played in her usual charming and beautiful style "Aufschwung" and "Romanza" by Schuman, a Liszt etude in d flat, and a Spanish dance, Albeniz, as an encore for her enthusiastic listeners. Miss Best then impersonated Mrs. Tubbins, the cockney English woman who keeps a lodging house on the east side of London; an inglorious philosopher, but not a mute one, who bases world politics on her own personal experience. After hearing Mrs. Tubbins ideas on the war, the audience insisted on several extra stories. The program closed with Mehul's "Gavotte" and a "Scherzo" by Goens, well played by Miss Mayer and Miss Carver. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon, April 6th, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Celia Parker Woolly, head teller of Frederick Douglass Centre, will tell of her work among the colored people.

Ossoli Club

The next regular meeting of the Ossoli Club will be held in the Highland Park Club House Thursday afternoon, April first, at 2:45 o'clock. Mr. Jesse Lowe Smith will give a stereopticon lecture on Birds and Flowers.

The members of the Ossoli Club were delightfully entertained on Thursday afternoon of last week. The program included, "The History of the Patchwork Quilt", given very well by Mrs. Hugh Scott who wore a costume of the days of the forties; several very old, heirloom quilts were on exhibition. "The Evolution of the Dance", under the direction of Miss Doris Humphrey was a complete demonstration of the development of the dance from the colonial minuet; given by eight girls, Elizabeth Prindville, Mary and Catherine Card, Josephine Sidley, Josephine Faxon, Frances Holbrook, Charline Baylies, and Grace Andrews, who wore very fascinating costumes of the colonial days; to the modern dances demonstrated by the Misses Loudon and Miss Doris Humphrey and Mr. Carroll in a gavotte. Following the program, refreshments were served.

There is some complaint in Boston that base ball is interfering with art; still base ball has given Boston considerable prominence that would have been impossible to art.

An editor is often placed in an embarrassing position by only too frequent requests not to publish legitimate news. No one would ever think of asking a merchant to suppress the sale of limburger cheese or a short skirt to a stout lady. But everyone seems to have an idea that a newspaper can at any time and on any occasion dispense with the sale of its chief stock in trade—news. Yesterday there was a request from a friend and patron to suppress an item regarding an arrest for violating the speed ordinance. Yet the story was printed. It had to be in view of the recent terrible accident and the only too reckless speeding. If drivers dislike the publicity of having their offense printed in the newspapers, let them desist from the dangerous habit. The fastest drivers generally have the least need of hurry. The busy man whose time is really worth something has long since learned that the old adage is quite true—"less haste, more speed."—Elgin News.

High School Notes

Rehearsals for the senior play, which is to be given some time before the middle of May, have begun and everyone is doing his work with much interest and enthusiasm.

Mrs. Henry Atwater sang a group of songs in general assembly on Monday, they were: An aria from La Boheme, a "May Morning," "When I first met my Love," and "Pierrot." Mrs. Atwater's sweet soprano voice pleased the students very much and her singing was well received by all.

The Glee Club concert to be given on Saturday evening of this week is to be very interesting and a good deal of work is being done to make it a success. The program will be found in another part of THE PRESS. There will be a charge of admission.

On Friday the French club, "LeCercle Francaise," gave a short play under the direction of Miss F. L. Stuart, entitled "Les Cuisinieres," which is an amusing little drama very well given by members of the French class who are: Susanna Bolan, Elizabeth Buckley, Marion Lambert, Florence Osbourne, Ruth Lidgerwood and Esther Hicks.

Those who are to take part in the annual declamation contest at Northwestern University Friday afternoon and Saturday morning of this week are Joseph Gibson and Clayton Youker.

Y. W. C. A. News

"Edith's Dream," given at the Elm Place Auditorium Saturday evening, brought out a large and appreciative audience. Each one did her part well and the production as a whole greatly pleased those in charge. The Association is indebted to Mrs. Carqueville for a most complete set of musical compositions, including every kind and class. This will add greatly to the pleasure of the evenings spent around the piano in the gymnasium.

The dancing classes still meet every Monday, afternoon and evening.

The Story Telling class every Monday interests the little folks very much.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prindville, left on Sunday for Virginia Hot Spring where they will remain for two weeks.
