

After Election

WELL, we are all here yet, the Election over and the Commission Form of Government a Fact. Every citizen who voted hopes and looks forward to, that our good town will flourish and prosper, have clean streets, a clean city hall, and perhaps a new one, a paved Ravinia and more electric lights, that the City Fathers will, under the new form, give us the best administration Highland Park ever had and so become the Ideal Home Town of the North Shore.

That is what the voter expects from the Commissioners, but let us not forget or overlook that there are duties to be performed on the other side in order to have this come true. No Government, no matter under what form, can ever be a success without the support of the people themselves, the actual cooperation of the citizens is necessary to produce a clean, progressive and healthy administration. To find fault, to criticize or not care how things go, doesn't create encouragement, while showing an actual interest, in a friendly spirit commend on what is being done and offering suggestions to those in office will not only encourage them but make their task a pleasant one, if it doesn't pay in dollars and cents.

If the Interest which has been displayed during the past campaign will be kept up and both women and men will keep on concerning themselves as to what is being done and give an actual hand in doing it, things are going to boom as they never did before.

Don't worry about over doing it or going too fast, our town is progressive to be sure but not a bit more so than others. We can not make the town too good to live in, if we are healthy in mind and spirit we are bound to have higher Ideals as we go along and this leads or should lead to a desire on our part for others to enjoy and participate in all that which makes for the good of all. The Ideal Town is the one which is clean from one end to another, where the people assist in planning and working for the good of the whole community, and we are coming to that very thing because man is progressing and going forward, up higher, even if some of us have quite a time in keeping step.

All this again of course leads to beautifying the Home Grounds. Why not let the Mayor and Commissioners point with pride to your front Lawn and the Shrub and Flower beds next summer? Make them attractive, it will encourage others to do the same, it will make the Home dearer to you and yours. What better could you do for the town? The present is the time to fertilize the Lawn, sow Grass Seed, plant Shrubs and Hardy Flowering Plants. Don't wait, get at it now, your neighbor is bound to follow and we like just to have a share of your order, that's why we write all this and shall keep on writing, hammering away at what we think is right, selling Posies for a living and being called up over 85 for free advice on any and everything pertaining to Horticultural matters.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church held their April meeting at the home of Dr. Knaak on Deerfield Ave. Thursday afternoon. Miss Danolds of Chicago, in her own inimitable manner, told of her work for and among the Freedmen.

About three weeks ago the Grammar school was broken into by some vandal who forced open the window gratings, threw all of the school supplies in the book cases all over the floors, also damaged the baskets made by some of the pupils, stole a clock, some stamped envelopes, two check books belonging to one of the teachers, and two razors from the engineer. Last week Mr. Bleimel's store was entered and 25 boxes of cigarettes and ten dollars in cash were stolen. Early Friday morning Pete List, who in some incomprehensible manner was released from the jail in Waukegan after stealing tickets and money from the Deerfield station, was arrested while prowling around the station at two o'clock in the morning. Since then people in the village have been resting easier at night not knowing when their houses might be entered.

No Need to Climb

It was a very wet night, and the last omnibus was full inside when the conductor asked, "Will any gentleman ride upon the top to oblige a lady?"

There was no response, so the inquiry was repeated. But again there was no reply.

At last one of the male passengers remarked, "Are you sure she is a lady and not a poor woman?"

"Oh, yes, she is a lady," said the conductor without hesitation.

"A well dressed lady?" again asked the passenger.

"Yes, a thorough, well dressed, fashionable lady," said the conductor.

"Then I should think she can afford to take a cab home," said the passenger.—London Mail.

First Thanksgiving

The first Thanksgiving was conducted by an English minister named Wof fall in 1578, on the shores of New foundland. The first celebration in the present territory of the United States was held in the Popham colony at Sagadahoc, on the coast of Maine, in 1607. The first regular appointment of a Thanksgiving day was by Governor Bradford, the first governor of Massachusetts bay.

Peter the Great's "Window"

The city of St. Petersburg (renamed Petrograd by the czars) was founded by Peter the Great in the year 1703. He called it the "window through which he could look out upon Europe."

The Brigand

Pullman Porter:—Boss, yo' sho' audsisty. Passenger resignedly:—Well, you may brush off about a nickel's worth.—Judge.

Antiquity of "A Regular Shindy."

The antiquity of many familiar terms is surprising when it is known. Many people are not aware that "What the dickens" occurs in Shakespeare, but fewer still will be prepared to hear that the phrase "a regular shindy" is found in an author's note to a poem called "The Popish Kingdom," published in 1570. A writer quotes this note, which refers to the celebration of Maundy Thursday. "Midnight services are held in church, the lights are put out, and a regular shindy follows, men being beaten and wounded."—London Globe.

Fine Language

As a rule the educated native of West Africa, like his Indian brother, loves high down language. A clerk some time ago sent a report complaining that the carlines of the police at his station often mistred. This is how he put it: "It is ridiculous to report that the firarms of the police when pointed at the firmanent refuse to give explosive sound."—London Saturday Review.

Of the Past

Geologists say that several species of man have entirely disappeared from the earth. Doubtless these last species include the nice old gentleman who used to pull off his boots on an evening with the help of the bootjack.—Chicago News.

The Fourth Estate

The expression "fourth estate" was first used by Thomas Carlyle and was applied to the editors during the period of the French revolution.

The Almanach de Gotha was already of sufficient importance over a century ago to prompt a dispatch from Napoleon. On Oct. 20, 1807, he wrote to Champagny, his foreign minister, complaining that "the latest edition of the Almanach de Gotha is full of errors, no account having been taken of the changes wrought by me in Germany. Tell the minister from Gotha to call on you and inform him that this must be set right in the forthcoming edition. Insist on seeing the section devoted to Germany before the edition is published."

One of Many

"What kind of work could you possibly do around an office?"
"I'm a kind o' all around handy man, mister. I kin hold a door open, light a match for ye, look out an' see if it's rainin', call a taxi, drop letters down the chute an' tell folks yer out wher ye ain't."—Life.

A Mystery

"It's always been a puzzle to me."
"What has?"
"Where the man who first said that two could live as cheap as one got his idea."—Exchange.
