Everything in the way of Vegetable Plants. Try the new Tomato "John Baer", there is no better or earlier sort. Mr. Julius Zimmer of our town from 10 plants last year picked 14 ripe tomatoes July 2nd and the plants kept on bearing until cut down by frost, Pepper, Egg Plants, Cabbage, Cauliflower and Celery.

There is nothing new being introduced anywhere whether here or abroad, we don't go after and give a trial, if it is good we want it, if it isn't we want to know it. Give us a chance to fill at least a part of your order, no one can possibly try harder to be deserving of your patronage, and while we are doing well, we want to keep it up, giving better service, the most for your money and help all we can to beautify things outdoors.

Deerfield News Items

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mr. John Vetter, Sr., Thursday afternoon. The topic will be "Siam and Laos."

Commencement exercises for the Inter-denominational Teacher Training class of Deerfield will be held in the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, May 20th at 8 o'clock. Mr. Schenck, Field Secretary of the Illinois State Sunday School Association will deliver the address. Special music has been provided.

At the Christian Endeavor Society meeting in the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, Rev. Orsborn had charge of the meeting and the subject was "Why I am Proud of My Denomination." Statistics of benevolences and organization of the church were given, also stories related of heroes of the Home and Foreign Mission fields, one of the most interesting of which was of Frank Higgins, the "sky pilot of the lumber jacks." Rev. Orsborn's Sunday morning sermon was a stirring argument for universal peace, taken from the text, Gen. 4-9; "I know Not, Am I My Brother's Keeper? Involving Man's Responsibility to the Other Man." A tribute to the president of the United States was made in the statements. "History will know no better name than that of Woodrow Wilson, who has shown a calmness born of the sense of right, for 'He that Ruleth His Spirit is Better than He That Taketh a City.'" Rev. Orsborn is an unusually eloquent and fluent speaker, his popularity being attested by the large congregations which overtax the seating capacity of the church. The community is singularly fortunate in securing the services of such a scholarly man.

On account of the severe storm of Saturday evening the concert to have been given by the Lyric male chorus of Chicago was postponed until Saturday evening, June 5th. Part of the program was given to the audience who were brave enough to go to the school in spite of the weather. Mr. Yngve Joranson sang a Swedish folk song, "Du Gamla, du Fria," the chorus sang "On the Sea," "Sunset" and "America." Mr. Avern Scholnik, the violinist, played five numbers. Tickets were returned to the audience to be used at the next concert, when the full program will be given. This generous concession should insure a large attendance, for the singing of the men was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

Commencement exercises for the Deerfield Grammar school will be held in the assembly hall Friday evening, June 4th.

Mr. R. L. Sandwick, principal of the D. S. H. S. will deliver the address. The members of the class are Lillian Schwab, Susie Easton, Dorothy Supple, Dorothy Reichelt, William Boetcher, Benjamin White, Harley Schmidt, salutatorian, and Edward Therrien, valedictorian.

Friday evening, May 14th, Miss Ruth Reichelt gave a linen shower at her home in compliment to Miss Irene Hutchison whose marriage to Mr. Ray Reeds of Chicago takes place in the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, June 16th. The beautiful pieces of handwork which were showered upon the bride-to-be were evidence of their esteem for her. The table decorations were in mauve and white. A huge bowl of lilacs was the center piece, and the place cards and favors were of the same hue. Covers were laid for twelve.

The "Gold Medal" team of Deerfield beat the "Prairie Dogs" of Wilmet at a ball game Sunday on the grounds of the latter with a score of 20 to 11.
