ALL RECORDS BROKEN IN POSTAL SAVINGS

500,000 DEPOSITORS HAVE ACCOUNTS

New Rulings Issued by Postmaster General Permits any Person Over Ten Years of Age to Open an Account

Every person in the United States ten years old or over may open an account in a postal savings bank after July 1st, according to an instructive leaflet on the Postal Savings System just issued by Postmaster General Burleson. This important extension of the service will be made possible by permitting persons living in communities so sparsely settled as not to justify the designation of their local post offices as regular postal savings banks to open accounts by mail.

Governor Dockery, Third Assistant Postmaster General, who has direct supervision of postal savings, was so impressed by appeals from all over the country to open postal savings accounts by mail that he took up the task some weeks ago of working out a feasible and safe method for meeting a demand well illustrated in a letter from a Saline County Missourian, who resides many miles from a postal savings bank.

"Having a few hundred dollars saved from fifty years of hard and assiduous labor and skimming economy on the part of my wife, and myself, we concluded to deposit it in the Postal Savings Bank of ——. We wrote to the postmaster at that place and received reply to the effect that none but patrons of that office could deposit in that office which is very disappointing news to us. Our little farm is not large enough to support us and land is so high that it is impossible for us to buy more with what little we have saved and we are so old that we can't labor much now and we would be so glad to lay by at least enough to put us away in decency."

Under the plan adopted by the Postmaster General for opening accounts by mail and intending depositor, residing where there is no regularly designated postal savings bank, will apply to his local postmaster who will see that necessary identification data is prepared and forwarded to a nearby post office authorized to accept deposits. The intending depositor will then be given permission to forward his first and subsequent deposits by money order or registered mail direct to the postmaster at the banking point for which receipts or certificates will be issued. He may withdraw all or any part of his postal savings by mail and on demand together with any interest that may be due him.

The new leaflet points out that any person ten years old or over may open an account in his or her own name; that an account may be opened by a married woman free from any control or interference by her husband; that post office officials are forbidden to disclose to any person, except the depositor, the amount of any deposits; that withdrawals may be made without previous notice; and that the Government guarantees to repay all deposits on demand with accrued interest.

The leaflet will soon be printed in 22 foreign languages for distribution through local post offices. The foreign-born citizen has taken very kindly to postal savings, and literature in his own language will be of great assistance to him. In a recent article, Postmaster General Burleson commented on the foreign-born depositor as follows:

"Upwards of 500,000 depositors now have accounts in the Postal Savings System and they represent every nationality on the earth. They also represent almost every known occupation—professional men, theatrical people, mechanics, laborers, fishermen, pack peddlers, etc. But the majority are wage-earners, and of this class the foreign-born largely predominate. A census of depositors taken by the Post Office Department shows that approximately 40 per cent (200,000) of the depositors are foreign-born citizens and they own more than 50 per cent of the deposits—splendid evidence of the confidence of our newly acquired citizens in the ability and good faith of their adopted country to fulfill its obligations."

"There is another reason which led immigrants, unfamiliar with our language and business methods, to turn to the Government to safeguard their humble savings and that reason is the disastrous experiences many of them have had by the failures of bogus 'private banks' offered by swindlers of their own tongue who have preyed mercilessly upon their loneliness and credulity."

Postal savings receipt have broken all records the past year. During the eight months prior to April 1st there was a net gain in deposits of $19,000,000, as against a gain of $5,000,000 for the same months the year before. Thousands of new accounts have been opened and the millions made up largely of hidden savings have been turned into the channels of trade just at a time when there was pressing demand for every dollar.

WILLIAMSON SUBMARINE PICTURES TO BE SHOWN

NEXT WEEK THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

The First and Only Submarine Motion Picture Ever Shown. It is Educational as well as Marvelous. Children Should See It

On Thursday and Friday evenings of next week, June 3rd and 4th, the most wonderful moving picture ever taken will be shown at the Highland Park Theatre at which time the Moving Universal pictures will present the Williamson Submarine Expedition. This is the first and only submarine motion picture ever taken under the sea. The picture begins with scenes showing the native plunging from their boats to follow to the bottom of the crystal sea the coins thrown them by tourists on an ocean liner, where through a flawless glass panel can be seen the divers scrambling for pennies on the very bed of the ocean. A wonderful and ever changing panorama is revealed of a world heretofore unknown to man. Strange fish, never seen before, swim past the glass window of the submarine chamber, where the camera man turns the crank and photographs a panorama of wonders and beauties of the deep. Among the thousands of feet of film obtained are pictures showing a battle to the death between a daring swimmer, armed only with a knife, and a huge blue shark.

Endorsations have been volunteered by all the prominent educational and scientific institutions in America, headed by the Smithsonian Institute at Washington.

CHILD LABOR BILL UP FOR FINAL VOTE

60,000 WOMEN ASK BILL'S PASSAGE

If it Passes the House now, There will Still be Time to Get it Through the Senate. Wire Your Representative

This week sixty thousand women are focusing their eyes on Springfield. They are watching the action of their representatives in regard to the Shurtleff Child Labor bill, up for third reading and final vote in the House. The impression of these sixty thousand women, who are included in the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, the Illinois Congress of Women, the Women's City Club of Chicago, the Chicago Political Equality League, the Illinois Congress of Mothers and Parent Teachers Association, and other organizations of women throughout the State, was expressed by one of their number as follows:

"It is our belief that any member of the legislature who votes to delay the bill at this late hour votes to kill it. If it passes the House now, there will still be time to get it through the Senate."

Interest and agitation for the bill on the part of the women has been increasing since the convention of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs held in Springfield last fall at that time. From all parts of the state came the opinion that children should be kept in school until they were sixteen years of age, and that the child labor law should be improved as the Shurtleff bill will do. Delegates returned to their towns to kindle the enthusiasm of their special clubs in favor of modern protection for the Illinois child.

"Activity on the part of women in favor of the Shurtleff bill," said Mrs. Medill McCormick who is taking an active part in the work of the legislature, "was to be expected. Every woman who loves children or who is civic-minded, has written or will write or wire to her representative to vote for House Bill 104. She will also use her influence to see that the man who votes against it will stay at home the next time."

"Those who are trying to defeat the bill," added Mrs. McCormick, "have circulated the report that the age limit has been raised to eighteen years. This is false. As amended in the House, the bill merely prohibits the employment of children under sixteen, except in agricultural and domestic service, in which it does not interfere, during the actual hours that the schools are in session. It does not change the present law as far as their work during vacation and outside of school hours is concerned. This fits into the compulsory school law which already requires that children be in school up to sixteen unless lawfully employed."

All the laboring people included by the Illinois State Federation of Labor as well as the State Teachers Association, the Consumers' League and the Illinois Child Labor Committee, are also backing the bill.

SENIOR PLAY PROVES SPLENDID SUCCESS

ALL PARTS TAKEN PARTICULARLY WELL

Joseph Gibson, as the Piper, Proved Himself a Clever Actor as Did Many Others of the Cast. Large Crowd Attends

The members of the class of 1915 of the Deerfield Shields High School have shown much artistic as well as dramatic ability in their play "The Piper" by Josephine Preston Peabody, given on Friday evening at Ravinia Theatre. The play was a success artistically from the standpoint of lines, well given by all, costumes, scenery and groups of children, whose presence always charms; and a success financially judging from the full house with its careful attention from the very start to the joyous ending.

Those taking major parts to whom much credit is due for their superb playing sustained throughout the entire play were: Joseph Gibson, the Piper, whose soft pipings pleased the children of Hamelin; Clayton Youker, the sword ester, who was very good in his love for Barbara, the part cleverly taken by Mary French; Norris Pitt, Colin Sanborn, Paul Barker, Robert Sholz, Ralph Wheeler, Harmon Smith, Francis Everett, Homer Scott were all very good, and Charlotte Welch, as Veronika showed very skillful acting in the sad role of Veronika. Elsie Shrieber, Evelyn O'Neil, Alma Oleson, Minta McGath, Estelle Conorton and Grace Schlie were all very good. Esther King, as Jan, the lame boy, was truly remarkable in her child-like ways and sweet innocence, ably assisted by Alice Schoendorf and Gertrude McLaren, while the groups of nuns, children, old women and young women whose pantomime parts were certainly pleasing added a great deal to the picturesqueness of the play.

Too much credit cannot be given to Miss McElrath, the director whose untiring work showed itself in the production while the singers under the direction of Mr. Dietrich, off stage and the school orchestra under the guidance of Mr. Schneider, all did unusually well.

REGULAR MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

FIRE CHIEF AND COLLECTOR APPOINTED

Creates "Garbage Disposal Commission," "City Beautiful Commission," and "Smoke Nuisance Commission." Passes Many Ordinances

The council meeting last Friday evening, May 21st was held under rather a unique condition. Business was transacted to a musical accompaniment, due to a misunderstanding between Mayor Hastings and the weather clerk who, instead of sending calm, quiet weather in keeping with the well modulated tones of the gentlemen of the council, sent a high wind which played a different tune of vibration at every window and at times made the voices completely subservient to it, as happens so frequently with piano accompaniment.

It was refreshing to witness so large a volume of business transacted systematically in so short a time. Reports from the chairmen of the various departments and committees were given briefly and passed upon, committees were appointed as occasion required; new, left over and unfinished business taken up while the corporation council, Mr. Holmes kept things well in hand and saw to it that everything was done with due attention to the legal forms. An atmosphere of impersonal attention to the best welfare of the city prevailed that was gratifying to an observer.

Before adjournment an opportunity was given to any one in the room to call the attention of the council to any matter of interest to the citizens.

Mr. Bahr, chairman of streets and public property, spoke in regard to the city's alleys. Said the city had just expended $150 to put them in a clean and sanitary condition and a recent tour of inspection found them to be nearly as bad as before. He bespoke the co-operation of the residents in this matter as he felt that the greater responsibility rested upon them. It is true that a development of civic pride would help make possible a city beautiful, and a contagious interest among citizens would greatly assist the present administration in their efficient work.

The question has frequently been asked "what is an alley for? Is it simply a thoroughfare to back yards? Or is it a place for the proper depositing of ashes, garbage and all that would destroy the beauty of a back yard, such deposits to be taken away later by the garbage man?" A discussion of the subject would be interesting.

Commissions Appointed

Mayor Hastings announced the appointment of the following commissions, which were approved by the council:

One to be known as the City Beautiful Commission. This Commission to have charge of the parkways, height of shrubbery at street intersections, real estate signs, public parks, and make such recommendations for improvements and beautifying the city as in their judgment would soon proper. This Commission to consist of: Mr. Everett Millard, Mr. Jesse L. Smith, Mr. W. C. Egan.

A Commission on the matter of incineration and disposal of garbage. This is an important commission and a matter that will confront Highland Park. To consist of Mr. Frank W. Sheahan, Mr. Irving Randall, and Mr. Walter H. Baldwin.

A Commission to be known as the Smoke Commission to have charge of all questions arising concerning smoke nuisances. To consist of Herman Denzel, Annie N. Campbell, Thomas M. Dooley.

Commissioner Willits moved that the resignation of Harry B. Evans, city collector, be accepted. Motion prevailed.

EVANSTON SUBDUES SPEEDY REGULARS

WILL PLAY GLENVIEW NEXT SUNDAY

Brisk Game Expected. Glenview Beat Regulars Two Games out of Three Last Season and Crescents Two

Highland Park lost its first game of the season Sunday to Evanston by a score of 4 to 2. The Regulars took the lead in the second inning by scoring two runs on singles by Potter, Burchill and Meyers but Evanston came right back in the third and scored 4 runs on three hits and some loose fielding by the regulars. With perfect support Evanston should have scored only one run.

Next Sunday and Monday the Regulars will bump up against a team sorrowfully remembered by Highland Park fans. The Glenview bunch took everything in sight last year by trimming the Crescents twice and taking two out of three from the Regulars. They also took a slap at Evanston two weeks ago, which means rough sailing ahead for the local team. Come out and help steady the boat. Sunday's game will be played at Highland Park and Monday's at Glenview. The score: Highland Park 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0—2 10 4 Evanston 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—4 11 0

Two base hits, Heath, Cronin; Struck out by Greenslade 8, by Heath 6; Bases on balls, off Greenslade 2, Heath 1; Umpire Rush; time of game 2:15.

UNITED PHOTO-PLAY CO. AT MORAINE

Scene Taken Was Daphne's Garden in a Grecian City. Picture Entitled "The Victory of Virtue"

Nearly a hundred members of the United Photo-Play Co., of Chicago were in Highland Park Tuesday and Wednesday posing for pictures on the grounds of the Moraine Hotel. The picture is "The Victory of Virtue" a six reel feature, by Penelope Knapp, which will be released the latter part of June. A mythical Grecian throne room was set up on the lawn of the hotel and some scantily clad young dancing girls fluttered about a negligee leading lady and a leading man in Roman costume. The play, in part, is an allegory, and it was these allegorical settings which were filmed here. Gerda Holmes, a well-known motion picture actress, and Wilmoth Meyers, recently of the Famous Players Co., are the leading lady and leading man, Mr. Harry McKee Webster is the director.
