He Knew Mrs. Meek.

Mrs. Gotham—I met Mr. Meek and his wife on the street today.
Mr. Gotham—Oh, did you? Meek is clever, isn't he?
"Clever? Why, he never opened his mouth."
"That's why he's clever."—Yonkers Statesman.

Economy.

Mrs. Homespun—What'll we contribute to the minister's donation party?
Farmer Homespun—Waal, I dunno, Hanner. Taters is way up, pork is way up, fowl is way up. We'll save money by giving him money.—St. Paul Dispatch.

Unsettled.

"I hear that they belong to the early settlers."
"Well, you wouldn't think so if you could see the bill collectors climbing their front steps."—Judge.

Oldest Chess Problem.

The oldest chess problem on record is thought to be that contained in an ancient Persian manuscript attributed to Caliph Kalifen Motasin Billah, who reigned in Bagdad, A. D. 832 to 842. But the reader would have to learn the old rules before it was intelligible. For example, the queen could make a move of only one square at a time and that on a diagonal, but a queen promoted from a pawn was allowed to make a move of two squares diagonally. The bishop had no power over any square except the third from which it stood on its own diagonal line, but it was allowed to vault over any piece that happened to be between. In short, it was a totally different game. Chess in the precise form in which we know it and play it today is a comparatively modern game.—London Strand Magazine.

Misnomers of Chemistry.

One of the strangest features of chemistry is the fact that many of the chemical names are misleading and do not describe the articles. Here are a few examples: Oil of vitriol is no oil, neither are oils of turpentine and kerosene. Copperas is an iron compound and contains no copper.

Salts of lemon is the exceedingly poisonous oxalic acid. Carbolic acid is not an acid, but an alcohol. Cobalt contains none of that metal, but arsenic. Soda water has no trace of soda, nor has sulphuric acid of sulphur. Sugar of lead has no sugar, cream of tartar has nothing of cream, nor milk of lime any milk. German silver has no silver and black lead no lead. Mosaic gold is only a sulphide of tin.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Stopping the Idle Talk.

"Pardon my interrupting you, old chap, but really you're wasting your time."
"What's the matter? Aren't you interested in what I'm saying?"
"Not particularly. Besides, it won't accomplish anything."
"I don't understand you."
"It's no use telling me how your boss ought to run his business. Tell it to him or keep still about it."—Detroit Free Press.

What He Wanted to Know.

"Here's an article in this magazine entitled 'How to Meet Trouble.'" said Mrs. Wedderty. "Shall I read it to you?"
"No, thank you," replied his wife's husband. "How to dodge trouble is the brand of information I'm looking for."—Chicago News.

Going Down.

Redd—He started out with a $6,000 automobile.
Greene—And what car is he using now?
"A street car."—Yonkers Statesman.
