

A FAIRY REALM from "A Midsummer Nights Dream"

About one hundred young women from the Cumnock School of Oratory are to take part in the June Pageant Tuesday afternoon, June first at 4:30 on the Northwestern University Green. In case of rain it will be given the first pleasant day following. There are to be fairies, wood nymphs, mortals, naiads and Russian Satyrs who will give a mythological ballet after the fairy scenes of Shakespeare. The affair is under the direction of Miss Laura Lee who will give dances to a Chopin Prelude and to Grundohn.

Y. W. C. A. News

The regular monthly meeting of the Mothers' club will be held Tuesday evening, June 1st at 8 p. m. A social evening has been arranged for, somewhat different from the preceding meetings and each member is privileged to invite a friend. A musical program will be given followed by dancing and a general good time.

Wednesday evening, May 19th, Miss Goelitz Camp Fire group gave a dinner and party in the gymnasium.

Six boxes of flowers were sent to The Commons last Thursday from the Y. W. C. A. reaching there just in time for a children's party. Every Thursday flowers will be sent from the Association.

Parents and Teachers' Association

The public is cordially invited to attend the annual reception of the Parents and Teachers' Association to be held on Friday evening of this week at the high school. There will be an important business meeting at seven-thirty in the Assembly Hall, at which time election of officers will take place. The program which is to be given in the girls' gymnasium is: Musical selections by the school orchestra; minuet dancing by the Elm Place eighth grade pupils; ten pictures to be shown on the screen and described by the Lake Forest eighth grade; Swedish folk dance by 6th grade of Lincoln school; German play by 6th and 7th grades of Ravinia school; high school girls' glee club. Following the program, exhibition of swimming will take place in the swimming tank, manual training and shop exhibition, and girls' gymnastic dancing, all the building will be open for inspection. Informal dancing will take place in the boys' gymnasium.

When you're a fan yourself, you really don't mind the heat—but you want it cool in the little old cabin home.

With Electric Light in your house, there's no need to complain of Summer Heat. Just attach to any Light Socket an and turn the switch. Any room in the house can be made comfortable on the hottest day.

This little 8-inch fan is made especially for home use. It weighs only 4 1/2 lbs., but is sufficient in capacity to produce a delightful, refreshing breeze, no matter how high the thermometer soars. Its extreme light weight permits it to be carried from room to room. It's an ideal fan for the bed room. It's the best quality throughout and will last many seasons.

There's an Electric Fan for every requirement—a fan that will give the largest possible air circulation for the current consumed.
