Moraine Hotel Notes

On Tuesday evening the guests were entertained by a vaudeville dinner-dance, which proved to be quite a success. Miss Laura K. Kennedy's efficient direction showed itself once more to be an entertaining feature of the evening. The management has secured the services of Fred Spooman who appeared in various characters to the amusement of all. The tables were arranged along the side of the dining room and between courses, those who cared to dance did so in the center of the room which was left cleared for that purpose. It was announced that a competitive dance, would be held after dinner, the judges for which would be elected by Miss Kennedy. After keen rivalry among all the various couples, the prize was awarded to Mr. Dwight Smith and Miss Dorothy Lynch. The prize consisted of "loud acclaim," which the clever victors carried about the rest of the evening. After the dinner dance there was a rag cotillon in the ball room, under Miss Kennedy's direction. The festivities were then declared open for the season, the dinner-dances to be given at short intervals all during the season, probably on Tuesday evenings, to which every one is invited and welcome.

Miss Joan Sawyer, her chaperone, Miss Florence Craig, her dancing partner, Mr. George Harcourt and her manager, Mr. S. I. de Kraft and Mrs. de Kraft are at the Moraine and will remain there during the Sawyer-Harcourt engagement at Ravinia Park.

Recent arrivals at the hotel are: Mrs. Milo Lester Coffeen, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gilchrist, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Jones, and Miss Lulu B. Jones of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Canning, Indianapolis, Mr. Frederick Stock, Chicago, Kenneth Stevenson, Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Furst, Cleveland. The dancing lessons at the Moraine during the season are to be given by Miss Dorothy Lynch of Oak Park, who has already arrived and secured several pupils.

Mrs. A. D. Matthie of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Catherine Cushing at the Moraine.

The United Photo Play Co. who have been making an elaborate picture on the hotel grounds, and have been disappointed many times, because of inclement weather have succeeded at last in getting a very good picture. Eighty-two people form the company, and spent Monday at the hotel. The process of making the picture furnished much entertainment for citizens most of whom were present at the occasion.

Rather elaborate preparations are being made for a swimming beach, so as to encourage bathing among the guests. A life line and an anchored swimming raft have been placed in position, and every effort to popularize this sport is being made.
