Baptist Church Notes

Pastor Thompson took for his text Sunday morning, Heb. 12:15, "Beware lest a root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled."

Sunday night, Miss Thompson played in her Harp Recital Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and Spring Song, and Schubert's Serenade. Another musical number was a duet by Mr. C. E. Thompson and the pastor, accompanied by the two harps.

There is to be one more of these popular Sunday night services which is to be next Sunday, when the evangelist will preach his famous "Bottle" sermon. For weeks people have been bringing bottles to the preacher, until he has a large collection of bottles of all sizes and kinds. With these various bottles he is to illustrate the different hearers that he has met, with a table full of bottles. This is a humorous as well as a profitable lecture. Admission free, special music.

It is expected that the Sunday night services, after next Sunday, will be in the nature of a Young People's Service. The regular Sunday school and preaching service will be as usual.

These Sunday night services have attracted large audiences and accomplished much good, and will probably be resumed in a few weeks.

Thursday afternoon the Baptist Kensington met with Mrs. Geo. M. Howe at her home on the County Line Road. There was a fine attendance, and delightful time. Mrs. F. B. Green gave a Reading from Florence Morse Kingsley's "The Transformation of Miss Philury," which was very entertaining. Delicious refreshments were served in which fresh strawberries from the gardens took a prominent place, flanked on right and left with other good things. All had a delightful outing.

HIGHWOOD SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Much credit is due to Miss Craig and Miss Carolan for the showing they made with the school children in the play and in the school chorus.

The eighth year class made an excellent showing this year. Seven of the eight who took the county superintendent's examination passed with very good averages. One of them, Nils Englund, ranked among the highest in the county. He also succeeded in winning third prize in the county spelling contest held at Libertyville a few weeks ago.

Certificates were awarded to the pupils of the school who did not miss a day of school and who were not tardy during the entire year. Those receiving certificates were: Nils Englund, Gertrude Smith, Margaret Carlson, Ethel Miller, Edward Marks, Alfred Marks, Paul Blanchard, Frank Phillippe and Gabriel Walsh.

School Picnic
On last Saturday the Highwood school closed a very successful year with a big picnic. Nearly every child in Highwood was there and not a few grown-ups. A picnic lunch was served to all. There were running and jumping contests for the children, and every one tried the big swings. The little fellow who said, "Gee we had a fine time" seemed to voice the sentiment of all.

WARNING TO CITIZENS

Communication Received from Father Francis of Waukegan

Following is a communication received by Marshall C. L. Boyd: To the Chief of Police, Highland Park,

Dear Sir: I wish to give you a warning against a certain woman that is going around garbed as a Franciscan Sister, in a brown habit. She is going around collecting, and I hear, using my name. She has no convent or institution of any kind, and is simply a nasty ignorant woman capable of using the most profane language. Hearing that she is soliciting in the north shore towns I write to you. She is rooming here, in Waukegan, but posing as a real Franciscan.

Very truly yours
Father Francis
