

HOUSEWIVES = SPECIAL

From now on you can have your entire family laundry, wearing apparel, bedding, table linen, etc., called for, washed, ironed and delivered at 75c per dozen. Handkerchiefs, socks and stockings 1c each. Shirts and collars list price. Our driver will call for your laundry on his regular route, or if you will call 178-179 or 471.

This rate is for YOUR particular benefit. It's a SAVING, and a CONVENIENCE to YOU. Hand our driver YOUR dry cleaning too when he calls for your laundry.

The
Reliable Laundry
Highland Park
Illinois

High Class Launderers and French Dry Cleaners

The Social Side of Life Local Affairs of the week

By the Observer

Among those occupying boxes on Friday evening at the Wagner concert at Ravinia Park were: Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Boynton, Miss Boynton, Mr. Sanborn Smith of New York, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Alexander, and Mr. and Mrs. George Mitten, and Mr. F. J. Baker of Winnetka. The soloists of the evening were: Mr. Morgan Kingston and Mr. Harry Weisbach. Mr. Kingston sang Lohengrin's Narrative, and as encores, "Parted," by Tosti, and "Nirvana," by Adams. Mr. Kingston, who was overwhelmed with "clamors for more," was accompanied by his instructor at the piano, Miss Evelyn Hatters Edwards. Mr. Weisbach with his violin, charmed as usual, the very-large audience with the Prelude to "Le Deluge" by Saint-Saens. Next Wagner evening will be tomorrow night, when the soloists will be Miss Beatrice La Palme, singing "Dich Theure Halle" from Tannhaeuser, and Mr. Walter Wheeler who will sing a group of songs, "In bygone Days," "The Pipes of Gordon's Men," and "A Bust of Melody."

The sixth student artist day will be held as usual in the pavilion at Ravinia Park on Tuesday afternoon, August third. The artist to play is Miss Catherine Kittelsby, who is to play on the piano Mozowski concerto opus 59. The orchestral parts are to be played by Mr. Kent Wanick. Both students are promising of a brilliant future. Miss Edith Davis was hostess at a welch rarebit party at her home on St. Johns Ave., Saturday evening. Eight guests were present. Miss Lillie Bell of North Ave., was hostess on Friday evening to thirty guests at a dancing party. Mrs. Sidney W. Miller of Prospect Ave., entertained eight ladies at luncheon on Wednesday of last week. Sewing and a social time passed the afternoon hours. Miss Gladys Tucker was hostess at a lawn party at her home on Thursday evening for twenty guests. Games on the lawn and refreshments served in the house were features of the evening.

Miss Helen Warner of Belle hve., was hostess Friday evening to fourteen guests at a dinner party. A five course dinner with dancing between courses and dancing at Ravinia Park afterwards, were features of the evening. The out-of-town guest was Mr. Charles Barlow of Evanston. If ever a gay day was spent on the beach by the children, Friday was the day when little Julia Donnelly entertained twenty-two of her little friends in memory of her eighth birthday anniversary. The girls all came dressed in costume, Red Cross nurses, Indian girls, cow boy girls, and red, white and blue costumes were in evidence. All sorts of games were played and later the children enjoyed bathing. Luncheon was served, a part of which was a birthday cake which delighted the children immensely.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Fred Rubby entertained twelve little friends of her son Paul's at a birthday party, the occasion celebrating his second birthday anniversary. Fifteen friends of Mr. Charles Timson of E. Central Ave., surprised him on Saturday evening by coming in for a supper party followed by dancing. A very pleasant time was reported by all.

The Misses Charity McKenzie and Marjorie Thompson were greatly surprised on Saturday evening when eighteen of their friends came in to help them pass the evening. Games, music and very delicious refreshments served at ten o'clock, passed a pleasant evening. Mrs. Robert Smith entertained the card club at her home on Friday afternoon. Among those recently entertaining at dinner-dances in the domino ball-room at Ravinia Park are: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Alexander, Mrs. McGregor Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Crandall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Mauran, on Wednesday evening of last week, and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Boynton on Thursday and Friday evenings. The dinner-dances are becoming quite a popular pastime.

Thursday evening Messdames Thomas Russell and William Rudolph of Highland Park entertained twenty-five guests at a dinner party at the latter's home, the occasion being the celebration of their birthday anniversaries. A five course dinner was served on two artistically decorated tables. Garden flowers were in evidence everywhere. The out-of-town guests included Mrs. Edward Welch of Waukegan, Miss Rudolph of Ravinia, Mrs. Thomas Welch and Mrs. N. Wink of Highland Park.

Mrs. W. J. Loderback of Moraine Rd., entertained the bridge club at luncheon on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Henry W. Boyd entertained the embroidery club at luncheon yesterday at her home on E. Laurel Ave.

On Monday afternoon, twenty friends of Mrs. Le Baron Drury, who lives at the Laurel Inn with her daughter, Mrs. Anna M. Atwater, helped to celebrate her ninth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Drury's room was a bower of most beautiful flowers, and loving messages from numerous friends were telegraphed to Mrs. Drury. A very delightful musicale formed a part of the afternoon's entertainment, at which time Mrs. A. O. Mason played the pretty minuet, which has been played at Ravinia Park recently. Other music was rendered by Messdames Carleton Vail, Henry Atwater, and Miss Marion Mason, who sang songs in their usual graceful manner, while Miss Lobdell played a few of her own compositions on the piano. At refreshment time a gayly lighted birthday cake was in evidence.

Mrs. B. D. Butler of Waverly Rd., will entertain at three tables of bridge on Friday evening for her father, Mr. N. H. Bussey of New York who is her guest.

Mrs. C. T. Boynton will entertain the Drama Reading class tomorrow morning at her home on S. Sheridan Rd. The class, after an interesting series of readings, now announces its last meeting to take place in the early fall.

Mrs. John W. Scott of Winnetka turned over her grounds to a series of "tableaux vivants," for Arden Shore benefit last evening. The tableaux represented an ancient Egyptian frieze, English portraits, Fra Angelicos, and Japanese prints. The pictures were posed on an outdoor platform.

Mrs. John Grenville Mott of E. Laurel Ave., entertained a number of friends at bridge on Tuesday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Sedgwick of N. Sheridan Rd., was hostess to eight friends on Friday afternoon, July twenty-third at a birthday party. Games and dainty refreshments formed a delightful afternoon for the little girls.

Mrs. J. McGregor-Adams and Mrs. Robert Gregory will be hostesses on Wednesday evening next, at a "country supper" at seven o'clock. The supper which is to be served in the library at the Arden Shore Encampment is for the board of managers, five-year subscribers, and a few friends. Fifty guests will be present. After the supper an entertainment by the camp guests will be given.

The sixth children's day at Ravinia Park is to be a very pretty and quite elaborate playlette in which one hundred and twenty Glencoe children take part. The little play, which is entitled "Cinderella in Flower Land," is to begin at one forty-five. Dancing and music are to form a large part of it. The date is Thursday afternoon, August fifth, the place Ravinia Park. A good time is promised to all the children and it is hoped that the usual enthusiasm for children's day will be shown.

Mrs. Robert Gregory will be hostess tomorrow at luncheon for Mrs. Edward Rodman of Winnetka. Thirty guests will be present at the luncheon which will be served on the porch overlooking Lake Michigan. The guests will be mostly out-of-town guests from Winnetka.

Miss Dora Johnson entertained fourteen friends of her brother Fred, at a beach party on Sunday evening, the occasion celebrating his birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Marshall will be hostess on Wednesday afternoon to Campbell Chapter Guild at her home in Lake Forest.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Jane Zahnle of this city, to Mr. Harry Lehr of Chicago, which took place in St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Chicago on Tuesday, July twentieth at nine o'clock with high mass. Rev. J. Dettmer officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Shifflet of Chicago, while Mr. Nicholas Lehr acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Lehr will make their home in Chicago.

Mrs. H. B. Clarke will entertain sixteen guests today at Exmoor at luncheon and bridge and twelve guests on Saturday at her home.

Four scenes of Il Trovatore, opera by Verdi were given, Tuesday evening at Ravinia Park, to an eager, enthusiastic audience. Il Trovatore, with its beautiful costumes and scenery, and its tragic acting was certainly well applauded by the audience, which despite inclement weather, was sufficiently large to be encouraging; many curtain calls were insisted upon and graciously given. The following roles were sung: Manrico, Morgan Kingston; Leonora, Bettina Freeman; Count di Luna, Louis Kreidler; Azucena, Florence Mulford; Ines, Leonora Beck; and Ruiz, Palmiro Aleotti. Ernst Knoch conducted the opera. The opera to be given next week are: Cavalleria Rusticana and Lohengrin on Tuesday; Thaïs and Manon, Wednesday, Rigoletto; Thursday, Secret of Suzanne and Jewels of the Madonna, Saturday, and Il Trovatore on Sunday.

Deerfield News Items

Master Adolph Bennett of the Boy Scouts of Deerfield proved himself a hero at the sinking of the Eastland Saturday when he rescued a tiny child and escaped unharmed.

Mr. Frank Peterson is in St. Luke's hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis on Friday.

Deerfield had twenty-one delegates at the Township S. S. convention in Highland Park Sunday, twelve from the Presbyterian Church, eight from the United Evangelical, and one from St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Miss Irene Rockenbach was elected elementary superintendent; Mr. H. E. Moore, secondary superintendent; Mr. Irwin Plagge, temperance superintendent.

Miss Clara Ender entertained the Altar and Rosary Society of the Holy Cross church at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Misses Florence Ender and Trix Hally of Chicago were the week-end guests at the home of Mr. John C. Ender.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Segert of Libertyville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horenberger Sunday.

"One Man of You shall chase a thousand, for the Lord your God, He it is that fighteth for You, as He hath promised You" was the text of Rev. Orsborn's Sunday morning sermon which emphasized the possibilities of the individual in these days of organizations, lodges, federations and staggering numbers when we lose sight of the glorious possibilities of one man.

Eva Ender is visiting relatives in Greenburg, Ind.

The Misses Edith Pettis and Johanna Smith of Chicago enjoyed the week-end at Kilburn City, Wis.

Miss Virginia Lord of Chicago is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George Pettis.

Laura Stryker was the guest at the home of Mrs. Herman Fabry of Evanston last week.

Mr. Walter Foster of Chicago, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. W. E. Beecham for the past month returned to his home Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. D. Nichols, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Louis Beecham of Austin, Ill. for the past two weeks, returned to her home in Deerfield Monday.

The Misses Gladys and Florence Goodman entertained the Mission Band of the United Evangelical church on their lawn Thursday afternoon. The subject for the afternoon was "The American Indian."

Prominent among the social events of the past week was the meeting of the Mu Sigma Chi which was delightfully entertained by Miss Gloria Beecham at the country home of Mr. W. E. Beecham Thursday evening. After the usual routine of business five-hundred was a feature, at which Miss Loretta Kress was the successful player and was awarded a beautiful picture by the hostess, and Miss Margaret McKellar of Fargo, N. D., was awarded the consolation prize. After the card game a very dainty luncheon in two courses was served and delightful music furnished by the Edison Diamond Point needle victrola was enjoyed.

The M. W. A. and the R. N. A. gave an ice cream social on the lawn of Mr. R. N. Vant Thursday evening.

Mrs. Dr. D. W. Harrington of Milwaukee was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Steffis last week.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Evangelical church will be held at the home of Mrs. Peter Perry Tuesday afternoon.

Owing to the inclement weather of Saturday the lawn fête which was scheduled for Saturday afternoon and evening was postponed until Saturday, July 31st.

Mrs. Kluprode and Mrs. August Weir and son Charles of Chicago were the guests of Mrs. August Winter last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph King of Waukegan were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison Sunday.

The St. Paul's League will not meet on Thursday this week but on Friday, July 30, at the residence of Mr. Irvin Antes.

Next Sunday being the first Sunday in August, the service in the St. Paul's church will be in English.

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Paul's Ladies Aid will be held next Wednesday at the residence of Mrs. Fred Horenberger.

Sunday, August 8th, the St. Paul's congregation will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the Ladies Aid. English services will be held in the morning and everything in the afternoon will be German. The congregation of Shermerville and Highland Park expect to participate in the celebration.

DRINK AND FEAR NOT

Our syrups and fruit juices are pure and wholesome. The soda water and fancy soft drinks served at our Soda Fountain are just right. You will be pleased with our new drink, it is a real throat quencher.

Geary's Home Bakery
26 W. Central Ave.

Bowman Dairy Company

Pure Cream
BUTTER
Perfectly Pasteurized

The Butter with the Mild, Sweet, Delicate Flavor

TELEPHONES: { HIGHLAND PARK, 9
GLENCOE, 70

Bowman Dairy Company

121 Vine Avenue

Phone 184 - Kieckhefer's Certified Milk

Zahnle's Ridgewood Farm Dairy

Pasturized Milk and Cream

17-19 W. Elm Place Highland Park, Illinois

REPAIRING
of all makes of
Talking Machines
as well as Watches,
Clocks and Jewelry

SAMUEL LEVIN, the Jeweler
120 E. Central Avenue

THE ERSKINE BANK
is a
GOOD BANK
It's Old and Strong

3 per cent interest paid on Savings
Real Estate, Loans and Insurance

Building Material Coal and Feed

THE SCIENCE OF BUSINESS
IS THE SCIENCE OF SERVICE

Sudden Service
Phone 67

RUSSIAN BLOUSE
BREAKFAST SUIT

Consisting of Skirt, Blouse
and Cap

$1.00

These Suits come in a variety of colors and sizes

Chas. H. Warren Co.
PHONE 110
Highland Park's Headquarters for
Reliable Merchandise

PATENTS

Trade marks and copyrights obtained for you. Used models, drawings of designs and specifications for FREE SEARCH and report on patentability. Book references furnished. PATENTS BUILD FORTUNES for you. Our Free Booklet tells how, what to invent and how you may. Write today.

D. SWIFT & CO.
PATENT LAWYERS,
305 Seventh St., Washington, D. C.