By the Observer

All the North Shore is interested in the annual Ravinia Park festival, which takes place on Saturday afternoon and evening of September eleventh and celebrates the closing of the Ravinia symphony season, and which this year is to be termed the Ravinia Park frolic of 1915. It is held under the auspices of the Ravinia Club, which includes most of the prominent women of the North Shore suburbs, and the program will be unusually interesting.

Mrs. W. A. Alexander is general chairman of the "Frolic," and is assisted by several committees. The advisory committee has Mrs. Andrew McLeish at the head, with Mrs. Kenneth R. Jones, Mrs. John B. Bullen, Mrs. Thomas H. McInerney, Mrs. V. K. Spicer, Mrs. Louis Bunch, Mrs. Sidney Barnes, and Mrs. Julius Rosenwald assisting.

Mrs. Charles Guy Bolte is chairman of the committee on arrangements, assisted by Miss Sara Burdick, Mrs. George M. Groves, Mrs. Everett L. Willard, Mrs. William M. Wright, Mrs. Richard H. Welles, Mrs. O. B. Tennis, Mrs. Warren Reese, Mrs. Lucius B. Sherman, Mrs. A. F. Warner, Mrs. Charles S. Mauran, Mrs. Joseph Sosman, Mrs. Clarence E. Smith, Mrs. William Crosby, Mrs. Charles A. Wanner, and Miss Josephine H. Landon. The patronesses are: Mesdames J. Ogden Armour, George Marcy, L. V. Kelley, H. C. Chaffield, Taylor, E. F. Carr, Wallace De Wolf, Charles G. Dawes, Ward W. Willis, E. J. Buffington, S. M. Hastings, H. H. Hitchcock, Louis Eckstein, Robert B. Gregory, George M. Reynolds, Barney Eckhart, John Greenville Mott, James F. Houghetling, William M. Hoyt, C. N. Kimball, C. F. Banks, and A. O. Mason.

Mrs. J. McGregor Adams will have charge of the sale of tickets, which will commence this week at several places to be announced later. The boxes for the afternoon will be taken care of by Mrs. L. T. Osborne, while Miss Josephine Landon will perform a like service for the evening. An executive committee is composed of Mesdames George M. Groves, Sidney Burnet, W. L. Kroeschell, J. G. Houston, A. C. Torbert, Mrs. Charles W. Atkinson, and Ernest von Ammon and C. G. Alexander. The decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Charles T. Boynton, assisted by Mesdames Herman Paepcke, Edwin F. Lobdell, and Edgar M. Snow. Both afternoon program and vaudeville in the evening are under the direction of Miss Leonora Hoyne, assisted by Miss Marion Mason, Miss Charlotte Yoe, Mrs. William Kirk, and Mrs. William Sutherland. The programs have Mrs. Edward B. Hall, Miss Marjiam Stever, and Mrs. Lucile Showers looking after their welfare. The "society vaudeville" has promises from Miss Helen Rosenfield, Miss Evelyn Isom, Miss Emily Newton, Miss Virginia Maltby, and George Hanauer to exhibit their dances, ranging from the Pavlova imitations to the newest fox trot.
