Baptist Church Notes

In the morning at the Baptist Church, Evangelist Thompson preached on Heaven. "There are many things here that make this world unsatisfactory, such as sickness and death, weeds, etc. Heaven is a place of beauty; there are the flowers without the weeds; a place of blessed companionship, where the wicked are expelled. A place where we may know each other, a place where all evil is excluded, and where we will never get old. We get old here, in spite of the doctor." Evangelist Thompson will start the popular Sunday night services next Sunday evening, Sept. 6th, when there will be songs with harp accompaniment and Gospel message. These Sunday night services will continue for several weeks beginning at eight o'clock. At seven o'clock, the Young People's Society will meet. The other services of the day will be as usual. The Beach Party given by the young men of Mr. C. E. Thompson's Sunday School to the Young Ladies of the Philathea Class last Thursday night, was a very enjoyable affair.
