HALF TIMBER, WITH INTERIOR VIEW.

Design 1079, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

INTERIOR VIEW—AN ATTRACTIVE DINING ROOM.

The interior view of the dining room in this residence shows a built-in sideboard and china closets. This sideboard extends into the room about ten inches, with panel sides and bracket effect for the head casing. The doors are cut up with wood mullions. These doors are of French glass. Below the china closets is a space for cut glass, inclosed at each end with wood panels. In the center of the sideboard, below the counterself, is a wide drawer for table linen. At each side there are drawers for silverware, etc. Around this room is a plate rail for the china. On the ceiling beams run both ways and the half beam around the entire room. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $5,000.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will furnish a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains over 300 designs costing from $1,000 to $8,000; also a book of interiors, $1 per copy.

A DESIRABLE SMALL COTTAGE.

Design 641, by Glenn L. Saxton, Architect, Minneapolis, Minn.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

This small cottage is carefully studied out to provide an unusually large and well arranged living room. At the front is an open piazza which may be screened and glazed in. There is a coat closet under the stairway. This stairway is provided for what is known as the grade door. Size 24 feet wide by 26 feet deep over the main part. First story, 9 feet; second story, 8 feet in the clear. Birch or red oak floors, with red oak, birch or Washington fir finish for the first story and pine to paint in the second story. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $2,000.

Upon receipt of $1 the publisher of this paper will furnish a copy of Saxton's book of plans, "American Dwellings." It contains over 300 designs costing from $1,000 to $8,000; also a book of interiors, $1 per copy.

RECEIVES SPIES' PROPERTY

Widow of Capitalist to Receive Bulk of $600,000 Estate.

Menominee, Mich., Aug. 31.—The will of Augustus Spies, capitalist and donor of the Spies public library in Menominee, disposing of property estimated at $600,000 in value, was filed for probate. Of the estate, $50,000 is real estate and $550,000 personal property. Mrs. Gertrude Spies, the widow, is given one-third of the property, both real and personal; $100,000 is left in trust for Arthur Spies, a son, and the remainder of the estate, with the exception of $10,000 for each of three executors, is divided equally among the other eight children, two sons and six daughters.

WOMAN MURDERED IN BED

Search is Being Made for the Mate of the Victim.

Ontonagon, Mich., Aug. 21.—A wide search is being made through the upper peninsula for William Hanson, who is suspected of having murdered his wife while she was asleep in her home. The body of the woman was found by neighbors who went to the house. Marks on her neck showed that she had been strangled. A search was then made for her husband, who was also believed to have been killed.

BIG BAY SCENTS A DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Finding of Body Thought to Indicate Murder.

Big Bay, Mich., Aug. 21.—A murder, suicide and murder or accidental death of two unidentified men was indicated here when the body of a man was found near the shore of Lake Independence. The body is identified as being one of two men who ten days ago rented a rowboat on the lake and who never returned, although the upturned craft was found the next day. There were a few bruises on the decomposed body and this is taken to prove the murder theory and the escape of the slayer. A watch is still being kept for the possible appearance of the other man's body.

Hold Picnic Near Waupaca.

Waupaca, Wis., Aug. 31.—A livestock judging contest for boys and a milking contest for girls were among the features of the best attended picnic ever held by the Holstein Freisian Breeders' association of Waupaca and Portage counties.

The exercises of the day were given at the farm of John Erickson, well known throughout Wisconsin and the country at large as a raiser and dealer in blooded Holstein cattle.

Catholics at Sheboygan.

Sheboygan, Wis., Aug. 31.—Nearly 300 delegates are expected to attend the annual convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Catholic societies here on Sept. 5 and 6, which will be attended by Archbishop Messmer and many other of the leading Catholics of the state.

Injuries Prove Fatal.

Mantowoc, Wis., Aug. 31.—Injuries which she sustained by being run down by a motorcycle proved fatal to Mrs. James Sufferan. She never regained consciousness, having suffered a hemorrhage of the brain. The death is the second of its kind here within three weeks.

Pickpockets Elude Police.

Green Bay, Wis., Aug. 31.—Pickpockets, following the Barnum and Bailey circus, made their escape from the police here in a sensational manner, after being chased for many blocks. The thieves had just relieved Herman Schaefer of Waupaca of $75.

Plaintiff Wins Phone Case.

Weyauwega, Wis., Aug. 31.—Circuit Judge Park has decided the suit of George H. Dobbins of Fremont against the Weyauwega Telephone company in favor of the plaintiff. The decision sets aside sale of stock amounting to $1,000.

Open Industrial Department.

Eau Claire, Wis., Aug. 31.—The Wisconsin-Minnesota Light and Power company has announced the opening of an industrial department for promoting the growth of communities supplied with electricity by the company.
