By the Observer

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clavey were host and hostess on Saturday evening to about two hundred guests, the occasion celebrating Mrs. Clavey's birthday anniversary. The guests were royally entertained with dancing in the barn, which was fittingly equipped with a new floor and gay in decorations of colored lights and Japanese lanterns. Pritchard's three-piece orchestra from Waukegan furnished the music. Cards were played by those who did not care to dance. Delicious refreshments were served, including two large birthday cakes with lighted candles. The out of town guests included folks from Chicago, Waukegan, Deerfield, Glenview and Shermerville.

A pretty home wedding of last Wednesday evening was that of Miss Marjory Rosing, daughter of Mrs. Anna Rosing of Ravinia, to Dr. Walter C. G. Kirschner, son of Mrs. Kirschner of St. Louis, which took place at the home of the bride's mother in Ravinia, Judge Brentano of Chicago read the service, which was followed by a reception and dance. The house decorations were of roses and autumn leaves. Sixty guests were present. After a honeymoon trip, which will be a motor trip to the White Mountains, Dr. and Mrs. Kirschner will be at home in St. Louis some time in October.

Mary S. Baker entertained informally a few little friends Saturday afternoon, in honor of Cleona Udell, who has recently returned from a summer spent in the west.

On Thursday evening Mr. Fred Fischer, Sr., of South Green Bay road was tendered a very pleasant surprise when thirty of his friends came to help him celebrate his birthday anniversary. Cards were the feature of the evening.

On September 29 Mrs. Richmond Dean will be hostess at a supper dance from 5:30 to 9 o'clock, honoring her daughter, Miss Dorcas Dean. House decorations are to be in yellow and white.

On Friday, Mrs. Otto Zwink was hostess to a number of friends at a beach party. A good time was reported by all the guests. Mrs. Zwink honored her guest, Mrs. Leams, from Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. John Irwin Marshall of Prospect Ave. entertained twelve guests at luncheon on Friday last for her guest, Miss Louise Clark of Washington, D. C. Pink and white asters made the luncheon table very attractive.

Mr. Robert Louis Barron, the violinist who is to give a recital at the Moraine Hotel on Sunday, October 3, will be one of the soloists tomorrow evening at the opening reception for this season of the Lake Forest Woman's Club. The others appearing on the program are Mrs. Catherine Ried-Martin, pianiste, and Miss Adah Keelms, reader, the artists who will assist Mr. Barron in his recital at the Moraine.

Mrs. John Udell of West Vine Ave. will entertain the North End Embroidery Club at her home this afternoon.

A large number of Highland Park people attended the dinner given at Deer Lick Farm on Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ford Carter as host and hostess.

The successful prize winners at Mrs. Edward Huber's euchre party, held last Thursday afternoon, were Mrs. Nels Nelson and Mrs. A. Knudson.

On Monday evening the C. E. Society of the Ebenezer Church, numbering about forty young people, enjoyed a beach party. The program included games of all sorts, marshmallow roast and delicious refreshments.

Miss Helen Gruel will entertain six guests at 5 o'clock supper on Sunday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. John Irwin Marshall was hostess to ten guests at a supper party Sunday evening for Miss Louise Clark of Washington, D. C., who has recently been the guest at the Marshall residence.

Mrs. H. B. Clarke of East Central Ave. entertained at luncheon yesterday for Chicago relatives, the guests being Mesdames C. F. Spalding, Hempstead Washburne, Kinney Smith, John Coleman, Jr., Jesse Spalding and Miss Mary Rend.

The Campbell Chapter Guild, an organization formed last spring of members of Campbell chapter Eastern Star for the purpose of making articles for a bazaar, has finished its work, and judging from the amount of articles made by the members, who so willingly gave their time, proved a success. The public will have a splendid opportunity to see for itself the unusual and complete display of articles when on Wednesday, September 29, the bazaar will take place both afternoon and evening in Masonic Hall. Miss Myrtle Wenban of Lake Forest, who is general chairman of the guild, has the affair in charge and is being ably assisted by the following ladies, who are chairmen of the following booths: Mrs. Herbert Strang, chairman of the fancy work booth; Mrs. Samuel Levin of the candy booth; Mrs. S. R. Bricknell of Lake Forest of the apron booth; Mrs. Wm. Marshall of Lake Forest of the towel booth; and Mrs. Paul Roeder of the bakery booth. Final arrangements have not as yet been completed, but those who have the affair in their guidance extend a cordial invitation to the public and feel confident that a good time is in store for all. Supper is to be served from five until seven o'clock. The large hall is to be decorated in autumn leaves and wild flowers in which booths will be located, while the dining room will be used for the dinner. The proceeds of the bazaar is to be added to the treasury of Campbell chapter Eastern Star.

Mrs. George Lytton of E. Vine Ave., is entertaining at six tables of bridge this afternoon for her guest, Mrs. Chester Atkinson, who comes from a years stay in South America. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Lytton will entertain at informal bridge for Mrs. Atkinson.

The Misses Wessling entertained the Philathea club of the United Evangelical Church in the parlors of the church on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. A. R. Carqueville of Hazel Ave. was hostess to eight out-of-town guests at a luncheon on Tuesday.

Trinity Church Notes

Nothing is being spared to make the November bazaar a complete success. The date set for the bazaar is Tuesday, November 23, and it is to be held in the parish house. Many attractive tables have been planned for, such as baby, utility and dolls tables. Fancy work, towels, aprons and other articles which will make appropriate Christmas gifts are to be on sale. The Junior Auxiliary is to have a grab bag and a fish pond. Candy will be made on the platform, and although full arrangements have not been made, it is planned to serve luncheon and supper in the parish house, the ladies in charge of which are well known for their talent in culinary art. The bazaar is in charge of Trinity Guild.

The regular fortnightly meetings of Trinity Guild are to commence on the second Monday in October.

Moraine Hotel Notes

Robert Louis Barron, the well-known African violinist, will give a recital at the Moraine Hotel on Sunday evening, October 3. Mr. Barron is well known through his extensive concertizing. He has given many Chicago recitals and this will be the third recital at the Moraine, as he appeared there in two joint recitals last season.

During the season of 1913-14 he made a tour of the west, appearing in 160 concerts and numerous private musicales. He has also filled engagements before a number of Chicago clubs, some of which are the following: Town and Country Club, Ravenswood Masonic Club, Fortnightly Musical Club, Temple Shalom's Women's Club and many others.

He will be assisted by Mrs. Catherine Reed-Martin of Belfast, as accompanist, and Miss Adah Kuhns of Chicago, reader. Mrs. Martin has accompanied Mr. Barron on many occasions and her very artistic work is always appreciated. Miss Kuhns is an exceptionally fine reader, having a wonderful personality and fine dramatic ability.

It is hoped that no one will miss the opportunity of hearing these fine artists.

The last Tuesday evening dinner-dance was held on Tuesday of this week. The dance was in the nature of a "grande tout ensemble nationale," to which every guest responded with a great deal of enthusiasm. The ballroom was decorated in red, white and blue, lanterns, parasols and festoons of paper, all of which added to the gayety of the occasion, and gave a warm appearance to the room. The national colors served well as a decorative scheme, and with the national airs put the dancers in a most frolicsome spirit. A red, white and blue cotillion was a feature of the party, while for one dance the lights were lowered and "Young America" sparklers were lit, which made the ballroom a pretty scene. Very attractive favors of pretty red, white and blue fans, parasols, horns and caps were generously distributed among the guests. The evening closed with many regrets that these successful Tuesday evening parties were over.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Allport, who have spent the summer at the Moraine, left this week for their Chicago home.

The summer dining room has been closed, and also the new annex, which has been used all summer.

Motion pictures will be shown at the hotel every Thursday evening, beginning next Thursday evening.

The Thursday evening dancing classes under the direction of Mr. Craig Royston Harrison and Miss Frances Motley Packer will be discontinued. The success of the Tuesday evening dinner-dances is due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Harrison and Miss Packer.
