REGULARS CLIMBING IN CHAMPIONSHIP RACE

member from last year, accepted three hard chances and laid the willow against the pill every time up and delivered two safeties.

Captain Wallace was there as usual with his progressive fielding, and met the ball each time up, but could not drive it safely.

The team in general is the strongest that ever represented Highland Park, and the fans should all be on hand Sunday to help keep the Lake county championship in Highland Park. As it will be impossible to have Collins in the lineup next Sunday, his place will be filled by Chief Miller, who has been drafted by the Brooklyn Nationals.

The Waukegan team will be strengthened by the addition of Jack Lelivelt, who led the American Association this year in fielding and hitting. It is supposed that Stremmel, who held Dave Black to a 0 to 0 tie in the first game, will hurl for Waukegan and Armstrong will catch.

For Highland Park the battery will be Cantwell and Reed, and that in itself will insure victory.

Show your loyalty, and be sure to be on hand next Sunday at Waukegan. Highland Park—

Old General Prosperity
(With Apologies to James Whitcomb Riley)

Old General Prosperity's come to our town to stay; the local merchants all are glad, now trade has come their way; there was a time when money vanished from us like a fog: "Enclosed find check, for which please send _____ as per your catalogue." We had the same goods right at home; our prices, too, were right, but somehow no one understood, and no one saw the light; out-of-town concerns had methods that we didn't know about—the mail order firms'll git you, if you don't watch out.

Once we had a citizen who wasn't very wise; he kept the general store, but was too proud to advertise. His groceries and dry goods, an' his eggs and butter, too; his hardware an' his boots an' shoes were good, but no one knew; and so we spent our money where it didn't help a bit to make the town a better one, to make us proud of it; the big city got the profit, and we—what were we about? The mail order firms'll git you, if you don't watch out.

This citizen at last woke up and advertised his goods, an' all the others followed suit, and came out of the woods, an' they helped their home town paper which had allus done its share to boost the town and help to put it on the map somewhere. An' the paper it helped them in turn, an' people came to buy, an' found that money spent at home makes old Depression fly, and unless this mutual spirit kinda hovers all about, the mail order firms'll git YOU, if you don't watch out.

D. A. R.

The first regular monthly meeting of the North Shore chapter of the D. A. R. was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gordon Buchanan on Moraine Road. A large number of members and guests were present at this first meeting, which makes a good start on the year's work. The meeting was opened by the singing of "America," led by Miss Mildred Thayer, which was followed by a business meeting, at which time it was decided to hold the annual rummage sale on October 12, 13 and 14, which days fall on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The ladies in charge are to be Mesdames C. J. McBride, Henry Boyd, Sewall Truxax, W. C. Egan, Gordon Buchanan and F. B. Green. The sale will be held in the vacant shop on East Central avenue, next to Sobey's meat market. The speaker of the day was Mrs. William I. Thomas of Chicago, who spoke on "Peace," as this meeting was a "peace meeting." Mrs. Thomas, who was a delegate to the peace conference held at The Hague recently, has a broad idea of the question, and spoke plainly and directly to the chapter of the cruelty, expense and horror of the European war. Following the address on "Peace," the election of delegates for the state conference took place, which resulted in the election of Mrs. Sandwick, while the name of the other delegate was not decided upon. The next regular meeting of the D. A. R. will be held at Mrs. A. P. Smith's home on North Linden avenue. Refreshments were served.

The topic for discussion at the Christian Endeavor meeting is "Shields Against Temptation" and will be in charge of Milton Macchite.

At the evening service Rev. Van Evera will speak on the "Attraction of the Cross," basing his remarks on John 12:33. The Philathea Class was entertained by Miss Ne' da and Sadie Wessling on Tuesday evening.

Is Advertising Expensive?

Advertising that is regarded by the advertiser as an expense is just that. There is something wrong with it. Nine times out of ten the copy has a charley-horse. It's so weak it could not move itself, let alone move others. And whose fault is that? Advertising's? Not on your life. It's the fault of the man who is paying for the advertising. Go to his store, and the chances are that you will find it slowly expiring from dry rot. The goods will be dirty and unkept. The shelves will be dusty and neglected. Even the boss will have a grouch, and the grouch never attracts buyers. Life is too short to waste with the wooden faces. It isn't the advertising that's expensive, it's the lack of push that's behind the failures.
