

BAHR'S EDITORIAL

This is to let you know that it is time for planting Bulbs if you want flowers next spring.

There are the Tulips, Daffodils, Hyacinths, Crocus, Snowdrops and a whole lot of others, all beautiful. By a proper selection one can have a wonderful display.

The Crocus and the Snowdrops will bloom early in March, just as the snow begins to disappear, then along come the Scillas with their little blue bells, followed by the Tulips, the Poet's Narcissus, the Jonquils, Hyacinths, the Daffodils and last but not least the gorgeous English Cottage Tulips, their flowering period extends away into June.

There isn't anything in gardening that one gets more real delight and pleasure out of than these spring flowering bulbs and this fact is being realized and appreciated more and more with each year.

Think of it; we sell Poet's Narcissus bulbs at less than one cent each, LaReine Tulips at $1.50 per 100. We tell you this so you will get away from the impression that this is a luxury.

We import all of our bulbs direct—the Roman Hyacinths come from France, the Tulips and Crocuses from Holland, some of the Narcissus from the Isle of Guensey, England, the Lily of the Valley pips from Germany, the Auratum Lillies from Japan, the Christmas flowering Narcissus from China, the Amarylis are supplied by Italy, and Belgium furnishes us a superior type of Daffodils—Interesting isn't it? Also the fact that in spite of the awful conditions on the other side, all of these bulbs arrive here the same as usual.

There will be two interesting show widows for you to look at this coming Saturday at Bahr's Flower Shop on Central Ave., next door to the post office. One will be a collection of about 60 different Dahlias, flowers furnished by Mr. W. C. Egan from his wonderful grounds. In the other window will be displayed a collection of Bulbs for fall planting, we call this the Educational Window; every flower in it has a neat card on it with its correct name. We shall keep this window going for some time because it must be interesting to every flower lover and it helps us to sell more flowers, that's what we opened the new store for, and we are doing it. Come on over, let's show you what a progressive florist you have in your home town—spend a few minutes here with the flowers—we will try to make it interesting for you.

Mr. W. J. Knecht of Elgin visited friends in Deerfield last week.

Miss Marie Aid of Chillicothe, Ohio, is the guest at the home of Dr. C. J. Davis.

An out of town wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends in Deerfield was that of Mr. Peter Duffy to Miss Stasia Quinn of Chicago, which was solemnized in the Blessed Sacrament church, Chicago, Wednesday morning, September 22, at 9 o'clock, with a high mass. The Rev. T. F. Quinn, brother of the bride, performed the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. J. Conway and Rev. John J. Morisey. Lohengrin's wedding march was played as the bridal party entered. The bride was attractive in a pretty bridal dress of crepe de chine trimmed with exquisite point d'aleon lace. She wore a stunning white satin hat and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Marie Quinn, as bridesmaid. She wore an effective gown of lavender tulle trimmed with real lace and hat to match and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauties. The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Mr. William Duffy. A wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's sister immediately followed the church ceremony, at which only the immediate relatives were present. Mr. Duffy and his bride left on a bridal tour to Green Bay, Wis., and on their return will occupy the Roscoe Wessling apartment on Deerfield avenue, where they will be at home to their friends after November 1.

P. T. A. of Deerfield

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Deerfield grammar school met in the assembly hall Friday afternoon with an attendance of only fifteen, a number too small to transact the business for which the meeting was planned. The pupils of the four upper grades under the direction of Miss Glynh sang a group of songs, "We Hail the Merry Autumn Days," "The Clang of the Forge," "Illinois" and "Dixieland." Mr. Nelson ran off a reel of Mutual Weekly, which was shown at the movie show in the evening. The hall was decorated with purple asters and gladiolus. Mrs. Supple, the president, expressed her regret at the small attendance, also her desire to have every woman in the community attend these helpful meetings, especially the mothers of children in the school. Mrs. Reichelt, Sr., gave the report of the constitution committee. Mrs. Jarvis, the treasurer, reported a balance of $55.23 in the treasury. Miss Woodman reported that the program committee had decided to meet each month to arrange a program for the following month, instead of making out a program for the entire year. Miss Glynh stated the aims of the social committee. The committees for the year are: Program committee, the Misses Woodman, E. Knaak and McMahan; social committee, Mesdames Bercham, Schaffer and Miss Glynh; finance committee, Mesdames Supple and Reichelt, Sr.; Mr. Nelson; publicity committee, Mrs. Reichelt, Jr., and Miss Kent.

The teachers were called upon to state their needs for the following year, as the Parent-Teacher Association supplies all of the materials for school use which the board of directors can not purchase on account of lack of funds. Any of the articles asked for can be supplied by generous public spirited members of the community, if they wish to do so, before the association meets again. The following things were requested: Song books, an unabridged dictionary, supplementary readers, reference books, pictures, scissors, and a sewing machine. A plea was made for the books selected by the librarian of the Chicago
