SLIPS OF THE TONGUE

One of Them Told a Bishop a Truth He Didn't Care to Hear. The misguided old lady who would persist in misapplying words with ludicrous results is as much among us today as she was when Sheridan wrote of her in his play, "The Rivals," two centuries ago. One dear old lady recently inquired of a well known professor whether soda water should be written as two separate words or with a siphon between.

A well known bishop who is very stout tells the story of a misadvent which had been instructed to address the prelate as "your eminence." Imagine his horror, however, when the girl dropped a courtesy to him one morning with the words, "Yes, your eminence!"

An American policeman became famous for his slips of the tongue. He used always to explain to recruits that "Third avenue ran paralyzed to Lexington," and on one occasion he proudly stated that he never paid any attention to "unanimous" letters.

A zealous temperance worker used to have a habit of confiding to her friends that certain persons were "adapted" to drink, while another gentleman in a mixed moment once asked a friend to open the window and "putrefy" the air.—London Spectator.

Just Like a Comet.

A well known astronomer and mathematician was on his way home one evening after having spent an hour or two in an observatory looking through a telescope at a comet.

Directly opposite him in the car sat a man with a loud voice, whose misadventure concerning comets would have supplied the material for a library and who appeared to be talking for the benefit of the passengers. The astronomer listened patiently for a time, then he said in a low tone to the man sitting next to him:

"Our friend on the other side of the aisle reminds me somewhat of a comet himself."

"How so?" "He is emptying his head to make a long tale."—Youth's Companion

A Curious Toy.

In an East Indian museum there is to be seen a singular instrument, invented for the delectation of Tipoo Sahib in his palace at Mysore. It is in the form of an automaton tiger, life size, represented in the act of devouring a British soldier, who lies prostrate under its paws. Inside this automaton is a rude organ, turned by a handle, and emitting sounds in imitation of the growls of a tiger and the moans of the dying victim. At the taking of Seringapatam this curious object was found in Tipoo's palace along with other evidences of the horridly cruel nature of the conqueror's prince.

FIND ROCK ISLAND MAY DEAD

G. A. McDonald, Retired Merchant, is Believed Slain.

Santa Monica, Cal., Oct. 5.—City and county officials are investigating the death of G. A. McDonald, a retired merchant of Rock Island, Ill., whose nude body was found on the beach a short distance north of here last Friday. Identification was made by Dr. W. H. Carl of Los Angeles, a nephew. The body was found close to the water and at first it was believed that drowning was the cause of death. Later investigation, the police said, showed there was no water in the lungs, as would be the case had drowning been the cause of death.

According to Dr. Carl, Mr. McDonald usually carried large sums of money and wore a large diamond ring. Officers have been unable to find the clothing, nor was a ring found on the body.

WET CHAMPION NOW LIFER

Italian Who Murdered Police Chief for Enforcing Law Sentenced.

Benton, Ill., Oct. 5.—Thomas Capello of Sesser, Ill., was found guilty by a jury in the Franklin county circuit court of murdering Robert T. Hill, chief of police of Sesser. Capello was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Chester penitentiary.

Hill was killed July 12, when he attempted to prevent the unloading of a car of beer in Sesser. Capello struck Hill on the head with a wagon stake, killing him instantly.

M. E. LAYMAN CHARGES SINISTER INFLUENCES

Chicago Lawyer Criticises Pension Fund Application.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church, arriving in Chicago to attend the opening session of the annual Rock River conference of the church at the First M. E. Church of Englewood Wednesday, were stirred by charges which insinuate graft and sinister influence in the application of the pension system of the church. The charges were issued in pamphlet form by George E. Dickson, a Chicago lawyer and a prominent Methodist layman.

Mr. Dickson in his pamphlet charges that the annuity plan and the $500,000 pension fund of the Rock River district were adopted without the knowledge of the membership of the church; that by increasing the pension fund other funds necessarily are much decreased, and that the pension fund, increasing as it has from $17,000 in 1912 to $30,000 in 1914, has been enlarged beyond all justification. Mr. Dickson holds that the pension should be administered with consideration for the financial condition of the prospective beneficiary.

DEED OF ANOTHER LOVER

Fellow "Loved" Girl So Much He Tried to Kill Her.

Mattoon, Ill., Oct. 5.—William Howell, twenty-one years old, who resided in Alton, Ill., died in Memorial hospital here from the effects of a bullet wound in the head, self-inflicted. Miss Martha Swank, twenty years old, of Neoga, who was shot and wounded by Howell because, he said, she jilted him for another man, lies in a serious condition in St. Anthony's hospital in Effingham.

The shooting occurred in the main street of Neoga. Miss Swank at the time was in the company of Delbert Hall, an apple buyer from Cobden, who is said to have been the accepted suitor. Howell called Miss Swank aside and when she refused to leave Hall was shot down. Then he shot himself.
