High School Notes

This afternoon, at 2:45, in the English Club room; the Forum, the school debating club, will meet for a debate on the question, "Resolved, that Examinations in the High School are of Benefit to the Students." On the negative, Dorothy Baker will speak; on the affirmative, Howard Flagg. This is to be followed by an informal open discussion of the question. The club meets every other Thursday afternoon.

The Juniors, not to be outdone by the Seniors, who gave a party last week, gave a very pretty party on Monday afternoon in the English club room. The faculty were guests of the occasion. The afternoon was spent in contests of different kinds, needle, pie, cracker and three legged races being the most prominent and creating much excitement. Those on the program were, Dorothy Bowen, who gave a parody on Barbara Fritchie, in Dutch dialect; Bertha Wyman, who gave violin selections, and others. The girls wore ruffs of purple and gold, the class colors, while the whole decorative scheme carried out that color effect. Dancing with the Victrola completed the afternoon's fun.

Y. W. C. A. News

The Mothers' Club held their second meeting of the year Tuesday evening, November 9, at the association rooms. A most excellent program was given. Mrs. Jennie Sharples, field secretary of the American Bureau of Moral Education, gave a deeply interesting talk on the vital questions of the day which was listened to with rapt attention by the large audience that greeted her. The personal touch that she gave brought her address straight home to the hearers. Her's is a mission and the good she is doing can never be estimated by casual observers. At present she is working among the high school pupils in Illinois. She handles the difficult subject in a refined and cultured manner and being a woman of charming personality she wins her hearers at the start and continues to the close. The Y. W. C. A. was fortunate in securing her for their Mothers' Club. Instrumental music was furnished by the Misses Krueger. Mrs. Chas. Warren and Miss Charity McKenzie contributed a very pretty duet, and one of the Commonweal groups gave a class song that was very pleasing. Sandwiches and coffee were served. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Henry Dittmer, president, and a social committee composed of Mesdames Fosbender, Henbrooks and Zimmer.

The Y. W. C. A. board of directors held their monthly meeting Tuesday morning.

Plans are being formulated for observing the jubilee which occurs February, 1916, being the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Young Women's Christian Association in the United States and it is hoped to make this celebration nation-wide.

From time to time notices of this will appear in the press, so that all may know the scope and intent of the work.

Mrs. Searcy attended the funeral of Miss Mary Burr, the former gymnasium instructor of the Y. W. C. A. at Ravenswood, Tuesday afternoon.

Highland Park Club

On Friday evening the assembly room was filled to overflowing with members and guests who gathered to hear a most interesting talk on "Six Months at the Back of the Front," by Mr. Arthur B. Doe, of Balliol College, Oxford, who spoke forth his experiences of the European war in a direct, frank manner which won for him at once the attention of the people. Mr. Doe was introduced by the president of the club, Mr. J. V. Norcross. On the walls were hung posters, which spoke the theme of the evening.

On Saturday evening, Mr. E. M. Neuman is to give his travel-talk on "Argentina." Mr. Neuman is to begin a series of travel talks on South America, at Orchestra Hall, Chicago, beginning the seventeenth of November, and the idea of having him at the club on Saturday evening should be of much interest to every club member.

The photoplay "Mignon" proved to be a very attractive feature of the week, there was a large number present. Music furnished by the Jacobs trio of Chicago, a violin, piano and cello. Motion pictures will begin again on the nineteenth, and be given every Friday evening beginning at seven-thirty, thereafter. On Tuesday evening the sixteenth, the regular card party will take place. Mrs. Henry Doty will have charge of the party. The large number present at the last party proved that a great deal of interest is being shown in them.

Trinity Church Notes

The work for the Trinity Guild bazaar proceeds in a definite way. The date has been set for November twenty-third and as the time draws nearer and nearer the members of the Guild are working with more decision to make the bazaar the best of its kind. Many attractive tables are being arranged and there will be found on sale something for every one. Following are the names of the chairmen and their different tables: Mrs. John Glass, fancy work table; Mrs. George A. Mason, doll table; Mrs. J. W. Prindiville, baby table; Mrs. Robert Smith, flower table; Mrs. Henry Mason, and Miss Turnley, preserves and pickle table. There will be a candy booth, though chairmen have not been appointed as yet. The Junior Auxiliary promises a treat in the form of a "grab bag," the sort of entertainment that attracts every one. Luncheon, afternoon tea, and supper will be served, with Mrs. W. E. Ten Broeck in charge of that committee. The sale will be held all day at the Parish House, and will afford an opportunity to purchase pretty gifts for Christmas.
