Ossoli Club

In spite of the inclement weather on Thursday afternoon the Ossoli Club welcomed a good number of guests and members to a very interesting and instructive meeting, at the regular meeting of the club, at the club house. Following business transacted, the club was pleased to hear an entertaining report of the convention at Rockford by Mrs. Earl W. Spencer who told her experiences in a very well written paper. As the program was in charge of the Home and Educational Department of the club, Mrs. Bowen Schumacher, chairman, introduced the speaker of the day, Mrs. W. S. Hefferan, who is chairman of the Parent-Teachers Association of Chicago and vicinity. Mrs. Hefferan is indeed a wonderful speaker, and owing to her wide experience she is fully qualified to speak on the subject of education. She advocates more compromise for school children, less going out and more staying at home, where children should be properly taught. She would surround children with good music and books of a literary value, "literature that the race has loved in its development." In her outlining of the periods of growth of the individual, she gave many good suggestions to both parent and teacher. Mrs. W. A. Alexander furnished vocal selections, "Slumberland," by Mrs. Lily Waldhams Molins, who accompanied her on the piano, and two selections from John Alden Carpenter. Hostesses for the day were: Messdames Ira Geer, Robert Patton, Charlotte Boyd, Sidney Miller, A. P. Smith, H. Thayer, A. E. Carqueville, E. C. Day, J. R. Beatty, and H. H. Chandler.

The next meeting of the club will take place Thursday, December second, at 2:45 o'clock. The program will include: Songs—Tagore-Carpenter, by Mr. Worth Paulkner and a talk by Miss Ella Abesl, who will speak on "The Place of Rabindranath Tagore in Modern Thought." The meeting will be in charge of the Art and Literature Department.
