FOR THE TINY CHRISTMAS BABY

A Baby Basket or an Outfit
For the Wee One.

HIS basket is willow-gilded and lined daintily with silk of any color preferred. It is equipped with every known article for baby's toilet—soap box, powder box, brush and comb.

A baby's outfit is also a charming gift to a young mother. The carriage blanket might be crocheted of pink worsted or the heavier quality if the present is for a boy and blue if a girl is to use the dainty articles. Pure white is of course sweetest of all for a wee baby, but white soles very quickly and washes badly. The blanket should be square and quite large and may have stripes of pink and white with a white border and pink shells. The cap should be of pink, with white shells, edged with pink and tied with a pink ribbon. A frosting of pink silk is added by chaining eleven stitches to every five on the cap, crossing every alternate row. This over the single zephyr is very soft and pretty. The booties should be made in white for the soles and sides and pink for the instep and leg, worked in single stitch to within a short distance of the top.

where alternate rows of pink and white in double stitch, with white shells edged in pink, form a charming design. The little mittens should be of white, with pink and white wrists and edge.

The sack is not so easy to make. It is formed of a back piece and two front pieces, narrowing at the neck and broadened about the armholes. The pink sack needs a white border with a pink edge and pink ribbons to match those on the cap. To make it very warm crochet a white sack inside the pink one, sewing them together when finished, or they can be interlined with wool. This is better in the case of a long cloak, which may be lined with two thicknesses of china silk interlined with lamb's wool.

FOR A MAN FRIEND.

Slumber Robe is a Gift That is Always Appreciated.

This year as never before initials are in demand. And the always perplexing question what to give a man may be safely answered by buying linen and hemstitching and embroidering the initial or monogram on the handkerchief thus made, or, if your time is limited, buy the handkerchief and work the initial.

Another gift sure to be appreciated by the master of the house is made in the form of a bright slumber robe. It is of Germantown wool, knitted in plain garter stitch on large rubber or bone needles, the work being alike on both sides. It is done as follows:

Knit three stripes of the colored yarn and two of black, with sixty stitches on a needle. Five skeins make a stripe. The colors of the fancy stripe are five—red, dark olive, yellow, peacock blue and light olive.

Colored stripe: Ten bouts (once across and back) red, 5 dark olive, 10 yellow, 5 blue, 2 (each three times repeated) of light olive, red, dark olive, yellow and blue, then 10 of light olive, 5 of red, 10 of dark olive, 5 of yellow and 10 of blue. Next another stripe of the three times repeated narrow ones, then 5 of light olive, 10 of red, 5 of dark olive, 10 of yellow, 5 of blue. Again the narrow variegated stripe, then 10 of light olive, 5 red, 10 dark olive, 5 yellow, 10 of blue, followed by the variegated stripe again. Next 5 light olive, 10 red, 5 dark olive, 10 yellow, 5 blue and then the variegated stripe. Lastly, 10 of light olive, 5 red and 10 dark olive.

This completes the stripe. Make the black ones the same length and join with a crocheted twist of black and yellow. Crochet an edge in shells of black or fringe the ends with the mixed colors.

Words About the Useful Gift.
A useful present is sometimes a delusion and a snare, not alone failing of its purpose, but even entailing disastrous consequences.

The present useful to the giver often circulates among the members of the same family, particularly if they live in the same house. A man receives an armchair, for instance, and a woman some towels. These gifts are not primarily intended to please the recipient, but the giver intends to get full use out of them. Thus the father of the family is often presented with a library table or an icebox. One woman in particular gave her husband a lawn mower and a garden hose for Christmas; another spent her money buying a carving knife.

HANDSOME PRESENTS FOR FEMININITY

Dainty Lingerie Always a Charming Gift.

IT is likely to be frivolous occasionally. Life is serious enough at best, and if the fripperies of femininity delight her soul let's provide her with them. So here is a suggestion: Buy a few yards of sheer batiste and some lace and ribbon and fashion her the bit of lingerie in which her soul delights. The picture of a pretty piece of combination lingerie is shown herewith.

Traveling has become so common in the average American home that little conveniences for the trunk or grip are always welcome. A tray cover will help the girlish traveler to keep her waist fresh, and it is easily made. A strip of linen, denim or crash is cut the exact size of a trunk tray and bound all the way around with braid of a contrasting color. The center is embroidered with the initials of its owner in mercerized floss to match the braid, and pieces of tape are fastened near the corners of the cover in length sufficient to tie under the tray. Such a cover, of course, is not needed with the old-fashioned trunk, whose single tray has a lid attached, but the new trunks are made up from innumerable trays without lids, and here the washable cover is most useful.

A most welcome gift to the woman who goes out much in the winter is an opera bag. Crochet in very open stitches, rings in single stitch or squares made by crocheting four solid stitches to a chain of four stitches until a long piece has been made which, when folded and overseamed on the edges forms a bag. Into this place a bright colored silk lining and then twist a thick cord of the silks used in the lining and crochet, with tassels at the ends. Crochet over eight brass rings in single stitch and then sew the rings to the bag, one inch below the top, and run the cords through these rings before the tassels have been added, one cord entirely around each side, to draw together.

Caps for children, purse covers, book covers, pillowshams and small table covers are now made of solid crocheted.

A stock and cuffs of crocheted lace are also acceptable gifts, and mittens are by no means despised by either women or men.

A Novel Cosy.

The woman whose duty and pleasure it is to sit behind the tea table is always pleased with a pretty cosy. A parrot shaped one is a novelty. It is of velveteen, the head being made of pale orange red, with a little white top knot. The body is of pale parrot green velveteen, with a few lines to indicate feathers. Two thicknesses of wadding are added, then a thin lining of silk. The edges are bound with velvet, and a black bead eye gives the finishing touch. Flat embroidery on the velvet will bring out the features, or they may be hand painted.
