High School Notes

The "double header" Suburban League game, Saturday evening in the boys' gymnasium, was a marked success. Deerfield, making its initial bow to the Suburban League, won the two basketball games defeating Bloom township fives. Deerfield took the heavyweight contest, 24 to 13, after trailing, 10 to 11, at half time. Carlson featured the attack with six ringers. The lightweight game resulted in a 14 to 10 victory, with the score 9 to 8 at intermission time favoring Deerfield.

The brass band played at the game, which added a great deal to the school spirit. The band which is reinforced by William Gallagher, not a student at the school, and Mr. Schneider, forms one of the most interesting phases of the school's activities. The members of the band are: cornets, Moses, Wheeler, Sheridan and Arnold; clarinets, Sandwick and Schreurs; alto horns, Melville, Van-Dusen and Siefert; tenor horns, Tribble and Peterson; bass horns, Lemkuhl and Mason; drums, Jiles and Williams; piccolo, Mr. Schneider; Mr. Morgan conducts. Friday evening at 7:30 the basketball team will meet LaGrange High School in the home gym.

On Friday evening a number of students entertained the Lake Forest Woman's Club at the Gorton School, Lake Forest. The program consisted of musical numbers by the Girls' Glee Club, the Boys' Glee Club, and piano selections by Mr. Russell Morgan, the musical director of the high school. All of the musical selections met with immediate applause and were fine examples of the work done at the school.

Elizabeth Buckley and Lillian Brayton did a sketch from "Ivanhoe," in costume, which gave the artistic touch to the whole program, both girls did exceptional work. Different parts from the "Tale of Two Cities" were given by Walter Rutter, Hamilton Quayle, Walter Nitchki, Helen Welch, Truman Metzler, Leonard Bird and others. These young people showed great ability along the dramatic lines, and won a good deal of praise from their enthusiastic audience.

Eleanor Nelson and Isabelle King appeared in a part of the "Merchant of Venice" in costume, adding much to the program. A French play in which Betty Bacon, Francis Everett, Dorothy Baker, Gloria Beecham, Grace Smith, and Fredrick Spencer appeared, followed.

It was well done, and much appreciated. After a rousing school song, informal dancing was enjoyed.
