Of the many social events indulged in by our Ravinia friends there is none perhaps so thoroughly enjoyed and in which practically every family contributes active assistance than the festivity given in honor of Washington's birthday and which is known in Ravinia as the Annual Colonial Costume Dinner. Preparations are now being made for the celebration of the third affair of the kind and indications are this third annual dinner will surpass even the two preceding occasions in the interesting and unique features to be developed in some kind of "show" (a profound secret) by the men and another by the young ladies. From time to time there will be community singing of songs written by local talent and appropriate to the occasion together with a cotillion. Dancing will complete the evening's entertainment. The committee in charge of the dinner is Mrs. Schoeninger, chairman, assisted by Mesdames Dieter, Chindlund, Wood, Wicks, Palmer, Bott, Powell, Bird and Miss Mary Highley.
